HouseHeal Sara Brown Crowder, 2012-03-12 What if creating a beautiful peaceful love filled home is easier than you think? Do you try your best to get things done at home only to lose momentum sometimes even before you start? Do issues like mess, clutter, décor repairs and updates seem to go on forever? Even if you manage to get everything done and looking good, does your home still feel like something is missing? What if you could learn how to bring a whole new level of order, peace, beauty, love and good energy into your home with ease for the rest of your life? HouseHeal: Transform Your Life through the Power of Home reveals the three keys to a beautiful home that supports you in living a life that you love. Weaving timeless universal principles with the practical details of daily life, HouseHeal helps you to connect with your true power, know what you want and move into action at home in a way that feels natural and life affirming, even fun. HouseHeal's compassionate and inspiring step by step approach gives you the understanding, skills and motivation you need to create a more beautiful home and a more beautiful life now. Many people take design inspiration from magazine pictures of other people's houses. It's like trying to fit into another person's shoes and can leave you uncomfortable or even unhappy. Design should enhance your life, not be an obstacle in it. HouseHeal helps you to be aware of what works for you, execute it and enjoy an enhanced life because of your house, not in spite of it, by helping you marry heart and home. At Distance Representation of The Migrants in Turkish Textbooks zafer çelik, 2024-04-29 In Turkish textbooks, migrants are frequently portrayed as marginalized individuals who are labelled as needy guests and consumers of limited resources. These textbooks fail to portray migrants as a constituent element of society, neglecting to acknowledge their substantial contributions to both social and economic life Furthermore the textbooks disregard the rich tapestry of migrants lives traditions and cultures by omitting instances of successful migrant experiences This narrative promotes discontent hatred exclusion and fear towards migrants within educational institutions and society at large However defining migrants as the constituent elements of society highlighting their contributions to social and economic life and including their culture and traditions in textbooks can play a pivotal role in cultivating positive attitudes and behaviors towards immigrants A paradigm shift in depicting migrants as essential constituents of society is imperative

Transformative Pedagogic Practice Stephanie Leder, 2018-12-08 This book explores how the transnational Education for Sustainable Development ESD policy is being translated into formal school education in India Stephanie Leder investigates the ESD s transformative potential for pedagogic practice and builds a set of principles for how the global objectives of the ESD can be interpreted in diverse socio cultural contexts Her approach for transformative pedagogic practice emphasizes the promotion of a critical consciousness through argumentation skills Using the case of water conflicts in geography education in India the book reveals the contradictions between ESD objectives and curricula syllabi textbooks and classroom teaching at secondary schools in Pune Maharashtra Leder s approach demonstrates how principles of schooling can be altered towards learner centered problem posing and network thinking teaching approaches to empower students towards reflective decision making on the sustainable use of natural resources

Civil Enculturation Werner Schiffauer, Gerd Baumann, Riva Kastoryano, Steven Vertovec, 2004-03-01 For several years now the concepts of civil culture and civil society have been widely discussed in the social sciences Theoretically innovative and empirically rich this volume is one of few studies that offer solid and focused ethnographic research on how the tenets and assumptions of civil culture are inculcated in schools The authors examined school curricula texts and pedagogical practices observed daily interaction within the schools and outside and conducted numerous interviews and discussion groups The experience of students from Turkish backgrounds in the four countries was given special attention thus offering valuable insights into the changing dynamics of nation state civil cultures in multicultural societies
