Stern,2020-11-03 What ancient graffiti reveals about the everyday lives of Jews in the Greek and Roman world Few direct clues exist to the everyday lives and beliefs of ordinary Jews in antiquity Prevailing perspectives on ancient Jewish life have been shaped largely by the voices of intellectual and social elites preserved in the writings of Philo and Josephus and the rabbinic texts of the Mishnah and Talmud Commissioned art architecture and formal inscriptions displayed on tombs and synagogues equally reflect the sensibilities of their influential patrons The perspectives and sentiments of nonelite Jews by contrast have mostly disappeared from the historical record Focusing on these forgotten Jews of antiquity Writing on the Wall takes an unprecedented look at the vernacular inscriptions and drawings they left behind and sheds new light on the richness of their quotidian lives Just like their neighbors throughout the eastern and southern Mediterranean Mesopotamia Arabia and Egypt ancient Jews scribbled and drew graffiti everywhere in and around markets hippodromes theaters pagan temples open cliffs sanctuaries and even inside burial caves and synagogues Karen Stern reveals what these markings tell us about the men and women who made them people whose lives beliefs and behaviors eluded commemoration in grand literary and architectural works Making compelling analogies with modern graffiti practices she documents the overlooked connections between Jews and their neighbors showing how popular Jewish practices of prayer mortuary commemoration commerce and civic engagement regularly crossed ethnic and religious boundaries Illustrated throughout with examples of ancient graffiti Writing on the Wall provides a tantalizingly intimate glimpse into the cultural worlds of forgotten populations living at the crossroads of Judaism Christianity paganism and earliest Islam
