Fishback, Thomas Balch Library Commission, 1999-05-20 Loudoun County one of Virginias most charming areas is truly a picturesque region balanced with sweeping pastoral landscapes along the Potomac and many lovely small towns and villages Over the past several hundred years this county has enjoyed an ethnic rich past meaning that many diverse cultures the American Indian European and African have called this place home These different civilizations have left an indelible mark on Loudoun Countys character and architectural appearance from traditional churches and shops to the more ornate and lavish homes scattered across the countryside Fortunately many of these buildings still stand serving as fitting reminders to these different peoples struggles and lives In this volume of over 200 photographs many never before published you will experience the Loudoun County of yesteryear a time when wagons and early automobiles competed for space on the same dusty highways when homes and schools were made of cobblestone and wood framing and when life seemed overall slower and less complicated This book takes us on a wonderful journey through the countys major towns such as Leesburg Hamilton Hillsboro Lovettsville Middleburg Purcellville and Round Hill and to the smaller villages such as Waterford Broad Run Farms and Taylorstown From the turn of the twentieth century to more contemporary times you will see your home county as you
