INKHEART meets INCEPTION in this allegorical masterpiece Fantasy author Kyla knows dreams don't come true Isolated and grappling with debilitating depression she copes by writing about the realm of Solera Fearless heroes feisty shapeshifters and mighty dragons come alive on her pages She adores her characters but she doesn't believe in happy endings And if she can't have one why should they Kyla's on the verge of giving up on everything when she wakes one morning magically trapped in her fictional world Now she's with her most cherished characters the friends she's always yearned for the family she's never known There's even someone who might be Prince Charming if Kyla could get her act together and manage some honest communication She'd surrender to the halcyon fantasy except she knows a nightmarish ending awaits Solera is at war and its defenders are losing against the insidious villain spawned in the depths of Kyla's mind He feeds on the energy of dreams seeks the destruction of all who oppose him and Kyla's become his number one target Kyla must trade her pen for a sword and fight to change her story's ending but this isn't a fantasy anymore No happily ever after is guaranteed And mental illness has robbed her of everything she needs to succeed love fighting spirit hope If Kyla can't overcome the darkness inside her she'll die with her darlings

Manifesting Sarah Prout, Sean Patrick Simpson, 2011 Cleaning Up Dan Zuberi, 2013-09-20 To cut costs and maximize profits hospitals in the United States and many other countries are outsourcing such tasks as cleaning and food preparation to private contractors In Cleaning Up the first book to examine this transformation in the healthcare industry Dan Zuberi looks at the consequences of outsourcing from two perspectives its impact on patient safety and its role in increasing socioeconomic inequality Drawing on years of field research in Vancouver Canada as well as data from hospitals in the U.S. and Europe he argues that outsourcing has been disastrous for the cleanliness of hospitals leading to an increased risk of hospital acquired infections a leading cause of severe illness and death as well as for the effective delivery of other hospital services and the workers themselves Zuberi's interviews with the low wage workers who keep hospitals running uncover claims of exposure to near constant risk of injury and illness Many report serious concerns about the quality of the work due to understaffing high turnover poor training and experience inadequate cleaning supplies and on the job injuries Zuberi also presents policy recommendations for improving patient safety by reducing the risk of hospital acquired infection and ameliorating the work conditions and quality of life of hospital support workers He makes the case that hospital outsourcing exemplifies the trend towards low road service sector jobs that threatens to undermine society's social health as well as the physical health and well being of patients in health care settings globally Writing from Scratch Shannon
