Nation and the Writing of History in China and Britain, 1880-1930

Asier Hernández Aguirresarobe,2022-08-19 Nation and the Writing of History in China and Britain explores through a comparative approach the reception of the nationalist worldview and its effects on the practice of history in China and Britain This book proposes that nationalism rather than a political doctrine is a way of making sense of the world which results from the combination of a set of definite assumptions The work analyzes how each one of these premises was accepted and negotiated by literati intellectuals historians and other scholars in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The results of this research showcase how the reception of the new nationalist worldview crucially affected images of the past the present and the future in both societies and decisively framed cultural social and political debate In addition they likewise evidence the fundamental role that historical narratives play in the crystallization of national identities This book is perfect for readers interested in China and Britain during this time period but also to anyone attracted to new ways of conceiving nationalism and its role in our world

The Temporality of Building Yun Gao, Nicholas Temple, Jing Xiao, 2025-03-31 This book examines the role that time plays in the life of buildings adopting a comparative study of this influence between European and Chinese traditions Whilst issues of time in architecture have attracted increasing interest by academics in the West challenging the dominant modernist precepts of space there is little understanding of the subject in China and how these compare to historical and contemporary perspectives in Europe A guiding premise of the investigation is that notions of building time require insight into how cultural habits commingle with natural rhythms or what David Leatherbarrow calls concurrency Rather than examining specific buildings the first three chapters apply three key themes language ritual and heritage as cultural lenses to reveal differences and similarities between the two traditions Through these lenses buildings interiors and their exterior spaces churches cathedrals temples palaces gardens and courtyard houses are explored to demonstrate how building time involves particular situations settings and their correlating relationships to past traditions In the final chapter we consider notions of time in the context of contemporary buildings in Europe and China drawing on the earlier historical investigations and addressing globalising influences This book would be of interest to architects architectural theorists historians philosophers sociologists and anthropologists
