Liminal Travel The Spaces In Between:

Liminality in Tourism Robert S. Bristow, Ian Jenkins, 2021-09-05 Liminality is not typically associated with tourism even though it can be viewed as an intrinsic element of the social cultural experiences of tourism Liminality in Tourism Spatial and Temporal Considerations aims to build upon the tradition of liminality as expounded in social and anthropological disciplines elaborating on the theoretical principles and concepts found within certain aspects of the tourist journey and tourist product The emergence of post modern society has impelled a change in the tourist gaze towards a more experiential and adventuresome globalised experience An important aspect of the tourist phenomenon of liminality is where a transformative experience is triggered by entering a liminoid tourist space leaving the tourist permanently psychologically transformed before returning to normalised society The narrative provides a new perspective on the tourist experience with a provocative examination into the multidimensional aspects of tourism by exploring tourism within the spatial and temporal aspects of liminal landscapes Covid 19 has further changed the rubric of tourism Until the current pandemic tourism has basically been a fun experience In a post pandemic world however the tourist is now facing an unknown future which will almost certainly affect tourism liminality This book presents the reader with a wealth of examples and case studies closely illustrating the association between tourism and liminal experiences The geographical perspectives explore the more subconscious outcomes of destination and tourist product consumption The book should be a useful reader to tourism geography where the theory of liminality can be synthesized into tourist experiences The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Tourism Geographies

Landscapes of Liminality Dara Downey, Ian Kinane, Elizabeth Parker, 2016-11-16 Landscapes of Liminality expands upon existing notions of spatial practice and spatial theory and examines more intricately the contingent notion of liminality as a space of in between ness that avoids either essentialism or stasis It capitalises on the extensive research that has already been undertaken in this area and elaborates on the increasingly important and interrelated notion of liminality within contemporary discussions of spatial practice and theories of place Bringing together international scholarship the book offers a broad range of cross disciplinary approaches to theories of liminality including literary studies cultural studies human geography social studies and art and design The volume offers a timely and fascinating intervention which will help in shaping current debates concerning landscape theory spatial practice and discussions of liminality

Liminality, Transgression and Space Across the World Basak Tanulku, Simone Pekelsma, 2024-03-05 This book analyses various forms of liminality and transgression in different geographies and demonstrates how and why various physical and symbolic boundaries create liminality and transgression Its focus is on comprehending the ways in which these borders and boundaries generate liminality and transgression rather than viewing them solely as issues It provides case studies from the past and present allowing readers to connect subjects periods and geographies It consists of theoretical and empirical chapters that demonstrate how borders and liminality are interconnected

The book also benefits from the power of several visual essays by artists to complete the theoretical and empirical chapters which demonstrate different forms of liminality without need of much words The book will be of interest to researchers and students working in the fields of urban and rural studies urban sociology cities and communities urban and regional planning urban anthropology political science migration studies human geography cultural geography urban anthropology and visual arts

Betwixt and Between Liminality and Marginality Zohar Hadromi-Allouche, Michael Hubbard MacKay, 2023-03-20

Betwixt and Between Liminality and Marginality Mind the Gap offers an interdisciplinary thinking on the marginal within society Using the framework of Victor Turner's earlier notions of liminality the book both challenges Turner's symbolic anthropology and celebrates its continued influence across disciplines and under new theoretical constraints Liminality in its simplest forms provides language for meaningful approaches to articulate transition and change It also represents complex social theories beyond Turner's classical symbolic approach While demonstrating the enduring relevance of Turner's language for expressing transition this volume keeps an eye toward the validity of critiques against him It thus theorizes with Turner's work while updating even abandoning some of his primary ideas when applying it to contemporary social issues A central focus of this volume is marginality Turner recognized that marginals like liminars are betwixt and between however they lack assurance that their ambiguity will be resolved This volume explores the dialogic relationship of space and agency to recognize marginal groups and people and inquire without a harmonious resolution what happens to the marginals Have race class gender and sexual orientation become the space for thinking about reintegration and communitas Each chapter examines how marginal groups or liminal spaces and ideas destabilize shape and affect the dominant culture

Inhabiting Liminal Spaces Isabella Clough Marinaro, 2022-02-09 This book draws together debates from two burgeoning fields liminality and informality studies to analyze how dynamics of rule bending take shape in Rome today Adopting a multiscale and transdisciplinary approach it unpacks how gaps and contradictions in institutional rulemaking and application force many residents into protracted liminal states marked by intense vulnerability By merging a political economy lens with ethnographic research in informal housing illegal moneylending unauthorized street vending and waste collection the author shows that informalities are not marginal or anomalous conditions but an integral element of the city's governance logics Multiple actors together construct the local cultural norms conventions and moral economies through which rule negotiation occurs However these practices are ultimately unable to reconfigure historically rooted power dynamics and hierarchies In fact they often aggravate weak urbanites' difficulties in accessing rights and services A study that challenges assumptions that informalities are predominantly features of developing economies or limited to specific groups and sectors this volume's critical approach and innovative methodology will appeal to scholars of sociology and anthropology interested in social theory urban studies and liminality

Liminal Landscapes Hazel Andrews, Les Roberts, 2012 Liminal Landscapes brings together variety of new and emerging methodological approaches of liminality from varying disciplines to explore new theoretical perspectives on mobility space and socio cultural experience By doing so it offers new insight into contemporary questions about technology surveillance power the city and post industrial modernity within the context of tourism and mobility The book brings together recent research from scholars with international reputations in the fields of tourism mobility landscape and place alongside the work of emergent scholars who are developing new insights and perspectives in this area

Liminal Moves Flavia Cangià, 2021-04-02 Moving slowing down or watching others moving allows people to cross physical symbolic and temporal boundaries Exploring the imaginative power of liminality that makes this possible Liminal Moves looks at the immobilities of three groups of people street monkey performers in Japan adolescents writing about migrants in Italy and men accompanying their partners in Switzerland for work The book explores how for these travelers the interplay of mobility and immobility creates a liminal hotspot a condition of suspension and ambivalence as they find themselves caught between places meanings and times

Mapping Liminalities Lucy Kay, Zoë Kinsley, Terry Phillips, Alan Roughley, 2007 The essays in this book offer new perspectives on the concept of liminality They explore the relevance and significance of the limen or threshold from a variety of critical and theoretical perspectives and across a broad range of historical periods The authors all seek to revisit key questions raised in recent literary and cultural criticism whilst also moving that discussion in new directions In particular the essays stress the importance of defining liminality for particular literary and cultural contexts and highlight the fact that whilst it is liberating and progressive in some instances in others it is violent and oppressive Examining texts from the early modern to the postmodern periods by authors on both sides of the Atlantic the volume embraces a wide range of literary forms including novels travel narratives religious texts and philosophical treatises it also includes consideration of non literary forms of representation such as photography This book reveals the complexity of the concept of liminality and underscores its powerfulness and potential for understanding the ways in which both individuals and communities in the past and in the present day negotiate states of transition and give expression to their experience of being in between

Travel and Transformation Garth Lean, Russell Staiff, 2016-02-24 Travel and tourism have a long association with the notion of transformation both in terms of self and social collectives What is surprising however is that this association has on the whole remained relatively underexplored and unchallenged with little in the way of a corpus of academic literature surrounding these themes Instead much of the literature to date has focused upon describing and categorising tourism and travel experiences from a supply side perspective with travellers themselves defined in terms of their motivations and interests While the tourism field can lay claim to several significant milestone contributions there have been few recent attempts at a rigorous re theorization of the issues arising from the travel transformation nexus The opportunity to explore the socio cultural dimensions of transformation through travel has thus far been missed Bringing together geographers sociologists cultural researchers philosophers anthropologists visual researchers literary scholars and heritage researchers this volume explores what it means to transform through travel in a modern mobile world In doing so it draws upon a wide variety of traveller perspectives including tourists backpackers lifestyle travellers migrants refugees nomads walkers writers poets virtual travellers and cosmetic surgery patients to unpack a cultural phenomenon that has captured the imagination since the very first works of Western literature Deep Mapping Les Roberts,2018-10-01 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Deep Mapping that was published in Humanities

Tourism and Violence Hazel Andrews,2016-02-24 Exploring the connection between tourism and violence this book draws on a range of disciplinary approaches including social anthropology cultural geography sociology and tourism studies Ideas and concepts of violence have long been explored in the social sciences literature but in relation to tourism studies specifically the concept has rarely been problematised Drawing on a range of case studies this book demonstrates the relationship between tourism and violence both in its overt physical form and in the social structures and symbolic landscapes that underpin touristic activity Tourism and Violence offers a timely intervention in this field by bringing together for the first time work by scholars who in their different ways are engaging with the concept of violence within touristic settings and practices This unique book paves the way for future research that will probe further the intersections between violence and tourism Spatial Anthropology Les Roberts,2018-06-20 Spatial Anthropology draws together a number of interrelated strands of research focused on landscape place and cultural memory in the north west of England At the core of the book lies an engagement with the methodological opportunities offered by new interdisciplinary frameworks of research and practice that have emerged in the wake of a putative spatial turn in arts and humanities scholarship in recent years The spatial methods explored in the book represent a consolidation of site specific interventions enacted in landscapes located in the north west and beyond Utilising digital tools and geospatial technologies alongside ethnographic performative and autoethnographic modes of spatio cultural analysis spatial anthropology is presented as a geographically immersive and critically reflexive set of practices designed to explore the embodied and increasingly multi faceted spatialities of place mobility and memory From the radically placeless environment of a motorway traffic island to the affective archipelago of former cinema sites or the songlines and micro geographies of musical memory Spatial Anthropology offers a rich tapestry of landscapes practices and spatial stories that speaks to both the particularities of place and locality as well as the more delocalised topographies of regional national and global mobility Women in Transit through Literary Liminal Spaces Teresa Gómez Reus,T. Gifford,2013-09-26 This edited book provides a unique opportunity for international scholars to contribute to the exploration of liminality in the field of Anglo American literature written by or about women between the Victorian period and the Second World War Learning as a Creative and Developmental Process in Higher Education Judie Taylor,Clive Holmwood,2018-10-26 Much has been written about the importance of creativity in learning and education over the last few decades This unique book extends beyond the usual focus on implementing creative methods in learning teaching and assessing within higher education to an examination of creativity as central to a learning process which is transformational for the student More specifically Learning as a Creative and Developmental Process in Higher Education examines the importance of a facilitative tutor student relationship and environment which contextualise this creative process of teaching and learning Bringing together unique teaching and learning approaches developed by experienced academics this book discusses a number of complex issues including approaches to an understanding of the student s self concept as learner the nature of the curriculum the potential of metaphor and creativity and a multi modal approach to learning and teaching Contributions to the book also examine some of the challenges and tensions of such an approach within the context of arts based subjects in higher education institutions Using a unique and coherent thematic structure that is based upon the student journey as a transformational process this book provides a new way of understanding the student journey through higher education Including an examination of the parallels between educational and arts education and arts therapies disciplines this book will be of interest to researchers academics and postgraduate students involved in the arts and the arts therapies as well as those studying creativity in teaching and learning in higher education It should be of particular interest to those involved in the teaching and training of teachers and lecturers in higher education Beyond the Threshold Hein Viljoen,C. N. Van der Merwe,2007 What happens when we cross a significant boundary We step into an unsettling in between zone where we have to abandon accepted structures and truths Yet this liminal zone can also open up possibilities for inner transformation leading to the birth of a new sense of fellowship Since 1994 South Africans have been experiencing the anxieties of old structures breaking down and of new ones being built a process that South African authors have been powerfully representing and questioning Beyond the Threshold analyzes the transformative powers of liminal states and hybridizing processes in literature Its authors discuss a wide range of intriguing liminal characters dangerous liminal situations and unique transformations in recent books mainly from South Africa These books tell the compelling stories of marginal characters giving their stories moral authority while exploring their transformative possibilities From publisher The Year of the Queer Jeff Hood,2016-12-05 A theologian historian and bioethicist by academic training Rev
