Illustrated History Of Furniture From The Earliest To The Present Time:

Illustrated History of Furniture Frederick Litchfield, 1899 Illustrated History of Furniture Frederick Litchfield, 2006-10 Who hasn't sometimes struggled with saying the wrong thing at the wrong time? Certified behavioral consultant Deborah Pegues knows how easily a slip of the tongue can cause problems in personal and business relationships. That is why she has put together a 30-day devotional to help you tame that unruly member and turn it into a productive asset. With humor and a bit of refreshing sass, Deborah devotes chapters to learning how you can overcome the Retaliating Tongue, Hasty Tongue, Know-it-all Tongue, Gossiping Tongue, Belittling Tongue, and 25 more. Short stories, anecdotes, soul-searching questions, and spiritually based personal affirmations combine to make each chapter tongue- and life-changing.

Illustrated history of furniture Frederick Litchfield, 1907 Illustrated History of Furniture Frederick Litchfield, 2016-09-14 Excerpt from Illustrated History of Furniture From the Earliest to the Present Time. It will be obvious that within the limits of a single volume of moderate dimensions it is impossible to give more than an outline sketch of many periods of design and taste which deserve far more consideration than is here bestowed upon them; the reader is therefore asked to accept the first chapter which refers to Ancient Furniture and covers a period of several centuries as introductory to that which follows, rather than as a serious attempt to examine the history of the Furniture during that space of time. The fourth chapter which deals with a period of some hundred and fifty years from the time of King James the First until that of Chippendale and his contemporaries, and the last three chapters are more fully descriptive than some others, partly because trustworthy information as to these times is more accessible, and partly because it is probable that English readers will feel greater interest in the Furniture of which they are the subject. The French meubles de luxe from the latter half of the seventeenth century until the Revolution are also treated more fully than the Furniture of other periods and countries on account of the interest which has been manifested in this description of the cabinet-maker's and metal-mounters' work during the past fifteen or twenty years. There is evidence of this appreciation in the enormous prices realised at notable auction sales when such Furniture has been offered for competition to wealthy buyers.
