Lina Bo Bardi The Theory Of Architectural Practice:

Lina Bo Bardi Lina Bo Bardi, 2014 The architect Lina Bo Bardi 1914 1992 has long been considered one of the major modern architects of the twentieth century in Brazil Her iconic Museum of Art of S o Paulo 1968 and the bold Social Service for Commerce Building Pomp ia S o Paulo 1986 have gained recognition in recent years and her reputation is beginning to be acknowledged internationally Bo Bardi s major writings on architecture however have not been translated and are not well known This book contains the first English language translation of Propeadeutic Contribution to the Teaching of Architecture Theory Habitat Ltd S o Paulo 1957 a seminal text published in Portuguese by the Italo Brazilian Bo Bardi It is arguably the first published writing on architecture theory by a practicing woman architect Accompanying the translation is an introductory essay that interprets Bo Bardi s text as a critical and constructive theory of architecture built from a collection of textual and visual artifacts This translation clearly renders Bo Bardi s work in English and contextualizes it theoretically taking into account the specific historical sources and contemporaneous discourses from which it draws With comparisons to other important architectural pedagogies and theoretical texts of the period it is also an inquiry into the nature of architecture history and theory its role in education and its relation to practice Lina Bo Bardi Monica Ponce de Leon, 2022-10-25 Lina Bo Bardi 1914 1992 is renowned for her boldly modernist designs like the S o Paulo Museum of Art and the culture and leisure center SESC Pomp ia An artist architect designer writer and activist she was a tireless champion for local craft and materials Her democratic designs were inclusive and stood as an open invitation to those typically excluded from elitist institutions embodying an aesthetic that stood out among the modernist movement in Brazil and abroad This collection of essays presents new perspectives on Bo Bardi from leading contemporary artists architects curators and scholars Contributors engage with the conceptual social and political philosophies latent in the architectural materials she chose from her application of concrete to her implementation of nature and her reuse of vernacular materials Imagined Utopias in the Built Environment Anna Novakov, 2017-01-06 Beginning with the early history of London s Vauxhall pleasure gardens this volume surveys visionary architecture and urban planning from the 18th century to the present The recurrence of themes of technology individual agency and communal living in the work of Le Corbusier Eileen Gray Charles and Ray Eames and Constant Nieuwenhuys testifies to the continued search for an ideal personal and public space Inspired by works of fiction such as Utopia Herland Mizora World of Women and Homo Ludens and the films Metropolis and Stalker artists and architects created fantastic plans for individual homes housing complexes and entire urban centers The resulting projects discussed here manifest the modern anxiety between the liberation of the individual and the needs of the collective The urban landscape from the 18th to the 21st centuries has been woven into the fabric of architecture as a way to improve day to day life as well as to create personal identity within an expanding public world The seven chapter topics are arranged chronologically and begin with the design of social space in Georgian era pleasure gardens and conclude with a study of contemporary Utopian groups that utilize early literary references as a focus for their societies As such the book builds upon the understanding of technology and architecture in its many forms as a shared benchmark for the expansion of individual rights and the growth of Utopian ideas in modern European and American society Radical Pedagogies Beatriz Colomina, Ignacio G. Galán, Evangelos Kotsioris, Anna-Maria Meister, 2022-05-31 Experiments in architectural education in the post World War II era that challenged and transformed architectural discourse and practice In the decades after World War II new forms of learning transformed architectural education These radical experiments sought to upend disciplinary foundations and conventional assumptions about the nature of architecture as much as they challenged modernist and colonial norms decentered building imagined new roles for the architect and envisioned participatory forms of practice Although many of the experimental programs were subsequently abandoned terminated or assimilated they nevertheless helped shape and in some sense define architectural discourse and practice This book explores and documents these radical pedagogies and efforts to defy architecture's status quo The experiments include the adaptation of Bauhaus pedagogy as a means of unlearning under the conditions of decolonization in Africa a movement to design for every body including the disabled by architecture students and faculty at the University of California Berkeley the founding of a support network for women interested in the built environment regardless of their academic backgrounds and a design studio in the USSR that offered an alternative to the widespread functionalist approach in Soviet design Viewed through their dissolution and afterlife as well as through their founding stories these projects from the last century raise provocative questions about architecture's role in the new century Makers of Modern Architecture, Volume III Martin Filler, 2018-09-25 An invaluable guide to lives and work of Frank Gehry Antoni Gaudí Frank Lloyd Wright Louis Kahn Maya Lin and other important figures of 20th and 21st century architecture Martin Filler's contribution to both architecture criticism and general readers' understanding is invaluable according to Publishers Weekly This latest installment in his acclaimed Makers of Modern Architecture series again demonstrates his unparalleled skill in explaining the revolutionary changes that have reshaped the built environment over the past century and a half These studies of more than two dozen master builders women and men celebrated and obscure idealists and opportunists range from the environmental pioneer Frederick Law Olmsted and the mystical eccentric Antoni Gaudí to the present day visionaries Frank Gehry and Maya Lin Filler's broad knowledge embraces everything from the glittering Viennese luxury of Josef Hoffmann to the heavy duty construction of the New Brutalists from the low cost postwar suburbs of the Levitt Brothers to today's super tall condo towers on Manhattan's Billionaire's Row Sometimes the interplay of social and political forces leads to dark results as with Hitler's favorite architect Albert Speer and interior designer Gerdy Troost More often though heroic figures including Frank Lloyd Wright Louis Kahn and Lina Bo Bardi offer uplifting inspiration for the future of the one art form we all live with and in every day Modern Architecture: A Critical History (Fifth) (World of Art) Kenneth Frampton, 2020-09-08 An extensively revised and updated edition of a bestselling classic on modern architecture and its origins by Kenneth Frampton Kenneth Frampton's highly acclaimed survey of modern architecture and its origins has been a classic since it first appeared in 1980 Starting with the cultural developments since 1750 that drove the modern movement moving through the creation of modern architecture and exploring the effects of globalization and the phenomenon of international celebrity architects this book is the definitive history of modern architecture For this extensively revised and updated fifth edition of Modern Architecture Frampton added new chapters exploring the ongoing modernist tradition in architecture while also examining the varied responses to the urgent need to build more sustainably and create structures that will withstand changing climates This new edition features completely redesigned interiors and an updated and expanded bibliography making this volume more indispensable than ever

Terms of Appropriation Amanda Reeser Lawrence, Ana Miljački, 2017-12-06 This collection focuses on how architectural material is transformed revised swallowed whole plagiarized or in any other way appropriated It charts new territory within this still unexplored yet highly topical area of study by establishing a shared vocabulary with which to discuss or contest the workings of appropriation as a vital and progressive aspect of architectural discourse Written by a group of rising scholars in the field of architectural history and criticism the chapters cover a range of architectural subjects that are linked in their investigations of how architects engage with their predecessors

The New Urban Condition Leandro Medrano, Luiz Recamán, Tom Avermaete, 2021-04-07 This book explores new architectural and design perspectives on the contemporary urban condition While architects and urban designers have long maintained that their actions drawings and buildings are post critical this book seeks to expand the critical dimension of architecture and urbanism In a series of historical and theoretical studies this book examines how the materialities forms and practices of architecture and urban design can act as a critique towards the new urban condition It proposes not only new concepts and theories but also instruments of analysis and reflection to better understand the current counter hegemonic tendencies in both disciplinary strategies and appropriation tactics The diversely international selection of chapters from Brazil Portugal Spain Sweden the United States and the Netherlands combine different theoretical and empirical perspectives into a new analysis of the city and architecture Demonstrating the need for new critical urban and architectural thinking that engages with the challenges and processes of the contemporary urban condition this volume will be a thought provoking read for academics and students in architecture urban design geography political science and more

Twenty-Five Buildings Every Architect Should Understand Simon Unwin, 2014-11-17 Twenty Five Buildings Every Architect Should Understand is an essential companion to Simon Unwin's Analysing Architecture and part of the trilogy which also includes his Exercises in Architecture Learning to Think as an Architect Together the three books offer an introduction to the workings of architecture providing for the three aspects of learning theory examples and practice Twenty Five Buildings focusses on analysing examples using the methodology offered by Analysing Architecture which operates primarily through the medium of drawing In this second edition five further buildings have been added to the original twenty from an even wider geographical area which now includes the USA France Italy Mexico Switzerland Spain Finland Germany Australia Norway Sweden India and Japan The underlying theme of Twenty Five Buildings Every Architect Should Understand is the relationship of architecture to the human being how it frames our lives and orchestrates our experiences how it can help us make sense of the world and contribute to our senses of identity and place Exploring these dimensions through a wide range of case studies that illustrate the rich diversity of twentieth and twenty first century architecture this book is essential reading for every architect
