L'islam, nouvel espace public en Afrique Gilles HOLDER, 2009-09-01 Au fil d'un parcours travers cinq pays de l'Afrique de l'Ouest le Burkina Faso la Côte d'Ivoire le Mali le Niger et le Sénégal cet ouvrage souligne combien l'Afrique musulmane est inscrite dans la modernité et participe de ce que l'on peut appeler la globalisation islamique Mais plus encore qu'une active présence au monde l'Afrique d'aujourd'hui donne voir des pratiques politiques et sociales originales qui puisent massivement dans la ressource religieuse cherchant ainsi pallier la faillite morale politique et économique des États Découvrant le phénomène d'assimilation réciproque des sphères politique et religieuse et le degré d'organisation des acteurs islamiques au sein des sociétés civiles cet ouvrage pose la question de l'émergence d'un nouveau type de rapports entre l'État et la société que l'on peut qualifier d'espace public religieux

L'islam, nouvel espace public en Afrique Holder Gilles, 2009-09-01 En dépit de sa présence déterminante sur la longue durée l'islam en Afrique a encore du mal se départir d'une image de religion importée et bricolée face un monde musulman arabophone Si cette présence au sud du Sahara n'a nullement tenté à l'inscrire au contraire dans des effets de replis et de reprises successifs le puissant mouvement de réislamisation qui s'amorce la fin du XVIII<sup>e</sup> siècle pour s'accroître dans les dernières décennies du XX<sup>e</sup> siècle ne permet plus de faire l'économie de la dynamique sociale et politique du religieux pour comprendre l'Afrique actuelle et singulièrement de la place qu'il occupe l'islam Au fil d'un parcours travers cinq pays de l'Afrique de l'Ouest le Burkina Faso la Côte d'Ivoire le Mali le Niger et le Sénégal cet ouvrage souligne combien l'Afrique musulmane est inscrite dans la modernité et participe de ce que l'on peut appeler la globalisation islamique Mais plus encore qu'une active présence au monde l'Afrique d'aujourd'hui donne voir des pratiques politiques et sociales originales qui puisent massivement dans la ressource religieuse cherchant ainsi pallier la faillite morale politique et économique des États Découvrant et analysant les configurations des expériences démocratiques en cours le phénomène d'assimilation réciproque des sphères politique et religieuse et le degré d'organisation des acteurs islamiques au sein des sociétés civiles cet ouvrage pose en final la question de l'émergence d'un nouveau type de rapports entre l'État et la société que l'on peut qualifier d'espace public religieux

, The Oxford Handbook of the African Sahel Leonardo A. Villalón, 2021-10-15 Long on the margins of both scholarly and policy concerns the countries of the West African Sahel have recently attracted world attention primarily as a key battleground in the global war on terror This book moves beyond this narrow focus providing a multidimensional and interdisciplinary assessment of the region in all of its complexity The focus is on the six countries at the heart of the Sahelian geographic space Senegal Mauritania Mali Burkina Faso Niger and Chad Collectively the chapters explore the commonalities and interconnections that link these countries and their fates while also underscoring their diversity and the variations in their current realities The Sahel today is at an important crossroads under multiple pressures of diverse kinds environmental political demographic and economic as well as rapidly changing social and religious dynamics It is also marked by striking dynamism and experimentation drawing on a long history of innovation and cultural transfer In many ways the Sahel is today on the cutting edge of grand natural experiments exploring how humans will adapt to climate change to technological innovation to the global movement of populations and the restructuring of world politics to urbanization social change and rapid demographic growth and to inter religious contact The region is a weathervane on the front lines of the forces of global change In nine thematic sections the chapters in this book offer holistic analyses of the key forces shaping the region Including scholars based in Africa Europe and the United States the authors represent an exceptional breadth and depth of expertise on the Sahel Claiming and Making Muslim Worlds Jeanine

Elif Dağyeli, Claudia Ghrawi, Ulrike Freitag, 2021-07-05 To what extent can Islam be localized in an increasingly interconnected world The contributions to this volume investigate different facets of Muslim lives in the context of increasingly dense transregional connections highlighting how the circulation of ideas about Muslimness contributed to the shaping of specific ideas about what constitutes Islam and its role in society and politics Infrastructural changes have prompted the intensification of scholarly and trade networks prompted the circulation of new literary genres or shaped stereotypical images of Muslims This in turn had consequences in widely differing fields such as self representation and governance of Muslims The contributions in this volume explore this issue in geographical contexts ranging from South Asia to Europe and the US Coming from the disciplines of history anthropology religious studies literary studies and political science the authors collectively demonstrate the need to combine a translocal perspective with very specific local and historical constellations The book complicates conventional academic divisions and invites to think in historically specific translocal contexts Islamic Reform in Twentieth-Century Africa Roman Loimeier, 2016-09-08 The first comprehensive analysis of Muslim movements of reform in modern sub Saharan Africa Based on twelve case studies Senegal Mali Nigeria Niger Chad Sudan Ethiopia Somalia Kenya Tanzania Zanzibar and the Comoros this book looks at patterns and peculiarities of different traditions of Islamic reform Considering both Sufi and Salafi oriented movements in their respective historical contexts it stresses the importance of the local context to explain the different trajectories of development The book studies the social religious and political impact of these reform movements in both historical and contemporary times and asks why some have become successful as popular mass movements while others failed to attract substantial audiences It also considers jihad minded movements in contemporary Mali northern Nigeria and Somalia and looks at modes of transnational entanglement of movements of reform Against the background of a general inquiry into what constitutes areform the text responds to the question of what areform actually means for Muslims in contemporary Africa Key features Biographies of reformist scholars complement the text Case studies are placed in the context of the dynamics of areform in the larger world of Islam Addresses the importance of trans national entanglements and their formative power Focuses on the dynamics of social and religious development the political dynamics of Islamic areform and issues of youth generational change and gender Cultural Heritage in Mali in the Neoliberal Era Rosa De Jorio, 2016-06-30 Up to 2012 Mali was a poster child of African democracy despite multiple signs of growing dissatisfaction with the democratic experiment Then disaster struck bringing many of the nation's unresolved contradictions to international attention A military coup carved off the country's south A revolt by a coalition of Tuareg and extremist Islamist forces shook the north The events so violent and unexpected forced experts to reassess Mali's democratic institutions and the neoliberal economic reforms enacted in conjunction with the move toward democracy Rosa De Jorio's detailed study of cultural heritage and its transformations provides a key to understanding the impasse that confronts Malian democracy As she shows postcolonial Mali privileged its cultural heritage to display itself on the regional and international scene The neoliberal reforms both intensified and altered this trend Profiling heritage sites ranging from statues of colonial leaders to women's museums to historic Timbuktu De Jorio portrays how various actors have deployed and contested notions of heritage These actors include not just Malian administrators and politicians but UNESCO and non-state NGOs She also delves into the intricacies of heritage politics from the perspective of Malian actors and groups as producers and receivers but always highly informed and critically engaged of international national and local cultural initiatives

Religion, Media, and Marginality in Modern Africa Felicitas Becker, Joel Cabrita, Marie Rodet, 2018-02-02 In recent years anthropologists historians and others have been drawn to study the profuse and creative usages of digital media by religious movements At the same time scholars of Christian Africa have long been concerned with the history of textual culture the politics of Bible translation and the status of the vernacular in Christianity Students of Islam in Africa have similarly examined politics of knowledge the transmission of learning in written form and the influence of new media Until now however these arenas Christianity and Islam digital media and old media have been studied separately Religion Media and Marginality in Modern Africa is one of the first volumes to put new media and old media into significant conversation with one another and also offers a rare comparison between Christianity and Islam in Africa The contributors find many previously unacknowledged correspondences among different media and between the two faiths In
