Hawkins, 1994 Each volume includes excerpts from the works of eight contemporary American authors supplemented by author profiles reflection questions and a companion video Publ The Story of Narrative Preaching Mike Graves, 2015-03-02 Forty years ago the one thing that could be said about sermons was they were biblical Unfortunately they were sometimes tedious too Narrative preaching aimed to fix that advocating for a dynamic experience of the text over against a static lecture Preaching could be like the parables of Jesus intriguing and compelling The Story of Narrative Preaching is the story of seven students who are enrolled in Professor Freeman's preaching course Once a new trend narrative preaching is now older than most of them As Professor Freeman notes two things went wrong with narrative styles over time the church became biblically and theologically illiterate and the promised stress on experience didn't always measure up to the weight of the gospel Readers are invited to sit in on the class to reflect on the expositional nature of preaching and to experience the stories of some modern storytellers Flannery O'Connor Alice Walker and others to see what they might teach us about narratives of depth In the end we discover what may be the most important word in preaching The Bible in the American Short Story Lesleigh Cushing Stahlberg, Peter S. Hawkins, 2017-11-02 The Bible in the American Short Story examines Biblical influences in the post World War II American short story In a series of accessible chapters Lesleigh Cushing Stahlberg and Peter S Hawkins offer close readings of short stories by leading contemporary writers such as Flannery O'Connor Allegra Goodman Tobias Wolff and Kirstin Valdez Quade that highlight the biblical passages that they reference Exploring episodes from the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament and both Jewish and Christian heritages this book is an important contribution to understanding the influence of the Bible in contemporary literature Saved and Sanctified Deidre Helen Crumbley, 2012-04-22 On one level this book tells a very particular story of a church started by a charismatic woman born just 16 years after the Emancipation Proclamation which not only survived the death of the founder but also institutionalised power sharing by female and male elders On another level it tells a more universal human story of institution building establishing community and pursuing a life of faith while negotiating rapidly changing and often adversarial social realities Feasting on the Word: Year C, Volume 3 David L. Bartlett, Barbara Brown Taylor, 2010-01-27 With this new lectionary commentary series Westminster John Knox offers the most extensive resource for preaching on the market today When complete the twelve volumes of the series will cover all the Sundays in the three year lectionary cycle along with movable occasions such as Christmas Day Epiphany Holy Week and All Saints Day For each lectionary text preachers will find four brief essays one each on the theological pastoral exegetical and homiletical challenges of the text This gives preachers sixteen different approaches to the proclamation of the Word on any given occasion The editors and contributors to this series are world class scholars pastors and writers representing a variety of denominations and traditions And while the twelve volumes of the series will follow the pattern of the Revised Common

Lectionary each volume will contain an index of biblical passages so that nonlectionary preachers as well as teachers and students may make use of its contents Living Water, Klara Tammany is a professional Christian educator who goes about her calling with a joyous urgency This book demonstrates her impassioned approach to religious instruction She starts with the premise that ongoing Christian education must be central to a life of faith and then proceeds from the corollary that baptism must be central to all Christian education Eight group sessions focus repeatedly on water first as a natural element necessary to life then as a symbolic element necessary to spirituality Gradually through prayer song scripture silence poetry visual arts storytelling group discussion and personal reflection water as baptismal element gains ascendancy No longer mere occasional refreshment Living Water inundates becomes life's very medium This text makes for excellent catechumenal preparation but is intended for use by all Christians those who are years into their journeys as well as those who are beginning Designed for small groups of adult Episcopalians the program is easily adaptable to other denominations to one on one spiritual mentoring to children young adult or intergenerational groups and even to individuals for private meditation

Hawkins, 1994 Each book includes excerpts from the works of eight contemporary American authors supplemented by author profiles reflection questions and a companion video Gathered Before God Jane Rogers Vann, 2004-01-01 What is the central purpose of the church today How can churches experience renewal through worship In Gathered before God Jane Rogers Vann answers these important questions by studying ten vibrant small medium and large churches Her findings she argues show that worship is the most important thing churches do and is vital to the renewal of congregational life Vann explores how these congregations changed into worship centered churches and how their experiences can help other churches do the same Gathered before God offers resources for pastors worship leaders and Christian educators to reflect on their worship leading to an openness to change and processes to help church leaders support each other during the periods of reform and renewal Moving beyond the contemporary versus traditional debate Gathered before God is an earnest call for us all to reclaim worship as a central act of our life together as Christians that expresses clearly what the church believes about God itself and the world Fireweed Evangelism Elizabeth Geitz, 2004-11 Fireweed always the first flower to spring up and bloom in ruins and burned over places is Elizabeth Geitz's metaphor for evangelism that comes from the heart It is the motivation that makes some Christians eager to welcome the stranger and invite people into their churches while others hang back In this prequel to Entertaining Angels Hospitality Programs for the Caring Church Geitz explores this missing ingredient in Christian hospitality reminding us that in a multi faith world where Christians wish to honor the validity of other religious paths we may hesitate to talk about the uniqueness of Jesus Christ Her book helps both individuals and communities to understand what holds them back from evangelism and discover the path that is right for them This book unfolds in three sections In the first we look at the factors that inhibit our evangelism including the awareness that we live in a pluralistic world and do not wish to offend those with other faith commitments Geitz offers both reflection and exercises to help us discover our own motivation for evangelism Part 2 addresses the question of context Where does evangelism take place and for whose benefit To what sort of communities do we invite those to whom we reach out Section 3 focuses on the uniqueness of Christian hospitality and describes the nuts and bolts of newcomer ministry and the programs needed to sustain Christian hospitality in a pluralistic society It includes workshop and group process material

Preaching to Head and Heart Thomas R. Swears,2019-11-26 Preachers have long been faced with two options On the one hand they can appeal to their congregations intellects teaching them the substance of the faith from the pulpit On the other they can seek to stir their hearers emotions wooing or warning them with the gospel Usually we reserve these two forms of preaching for different tasks or audiences If you are preaching an evangelistic message to the unchurned then your preaching style will draw more heavily on the emotional aspects If you are leading the faithful into a deeper grasp of the Christian message then you will more likely draw on the intellectual components of preaching While most preachers know that the choice between the head and the heart is a false one they often don't know how to bring the two together effectively In this book Thomas Swears offers detailed practical advice on how to preach to both head and heart He shows how both emotions and intellect function any time one tried to convey meaning from the pulpit regardless of the kind of message one is preaching Without abandoning the conventional wisdom on evangelistic vs teaching sermons he nonetheless insists that preaching with integrity in which the Word is truly embodied will always involve the whole person and personality of both the preacher and the congregation

Inching Toward Heaven's Door John F. Sieckhaus, Ph.D.,2001-11-01 There are few clues as to why a person responds to the vicissitudes of life in a given way As John Sieckhaus states in this memoir of his own spiritual journey some have the courage to choose life from their earliest moments of sober reflection while others opt to soothe their pain with addictions of the mind and body some choose an early final exit and still others stay the healing course trusting that there is purpose to their lives meaning in their suffering and healing as the intended outcome of some higher power The tragic slaying of his parents propels the author as sixteen year old onto a life course dictated initially by his own errant choices and the acculturations of family tribe and society His decision to pursue a Ph D in chemistry is consistent with his search for life s magic formula the alchemist s quest for the philosopher s stone but the first fruits of this venture are depression and a horrific encounter with his family demons Resort to psychotherapy and chemical dis ease management a therapeutic model characterized by a patient s need to trust in the alchemical wisdom of his or her therapist proves to be a mere palliative in a desperate striving to arrest the pain and it is only through an encounter with the living God amidst a small band of refugees from mainline Christian churches that his journey of faith remembrance and healing begins John Sieckhaus tells this story with conviction and a deep sense of gratitude for God s provision of trustworthy guides and fellow travelers on the way It was from James and Mary Baird a couple whose decision to stand against the racial prejudices inherent in their small town culture in Baird Mississippi in the 1950s forced them to leave family clan and culture to reach out to the hurting and the needy in southeast Asia that he learned to heed God s call in his life and to pursue his vocation with a new sense of adventure and purpose In so doing he had to come to grips with his work as a scientist engaged in the development of weapon systems and was eventually led to challenge his company s involvement with nerve gas research and resign his position With each step in his vocational journey the healing went deeper and finally after staying the course for more than twenty years the author was gifted with a revelation of his family pathology which provided the clues concerning his own responses to life This is a story that the author was compelled to tell because the telling was an integral part of his healing journey and because as he states in the introduction I believe that what I have experienced and learned is not just for my own healing and spiritual growth that perhaps it may help others walk their own path to wholeness If this should prove to be the case for only one other person it the telling will have been worth the effort

The Language of Grace Peter S. Hawkins,2004-09-01 Hawkins explores both traditional and contemporary ways grace has been handled in literature The traditional representation of grace is explained using among other things the parables of Jesus Then he turns to more contemporary literature including O Connor s A Good Man is Hard to Find Percy s The Second Coming and Murdoch s A Word Child Through these novels and short stories Hawkins highlights the impoverishment of spirit and imagination when religious language fails us He presents three writers struggling to bridge the gap between ourselves and those mysterious realities we can no longer talk about
