PROS OF MEDICAL CODING AND BILLING

1. It's a Rewarding Job: For people who like to work independently and are motivated to get things done without being micromanaged, medical billing and coding is a great career choice. Medical coding and billing is a good way to start your career in healthcare, help patients, and earn a decent living.
2. You Can Work From Home: Medical billing and coding is often a remote job, meaning you can usually work from home. This also allows you to pursue contract and freelance medical billing jobs. By saving time and effort by not commuting, this career can also reduce your stress and help you achieve better work-life balance. Many medical offices were already taking medical billing jobs remote, but in the aftermath of the pandemic, this became one of the jobs that has become almost entirely remote. Electronic health records have made this a job that allows medical billing specialists to work from anywhere they have a broadband internet connection.
3. Training Can Be Completed Quickly: Some medical industry jobs require several years of education. Medical coding and billing specialists can often complete a training program and earn certification in less than a year.
4. Good Work For Introverts: If you do your best work alone, focused on your job away from other people, medical billing and coding may be an ideal job for you. Since the work is almost always remote, you can work from a home office and avoid being around other people.
5. Work As an Independent Contractor: Many billers and coders work as independent contractors, not as employees. Medical coders and billers who work as 1099 independent contractors may work alone or in a team of contractors.
6. Steady Job Outlook: What skills are needed to thrive in a Medical Coding career?
