goatskin and called everybody man Young people identified as Sharpies Mods Rockers and Surfies depending on the fashions they wore and the music they listened to She takes us along the supermarket shopping aisles to the family dinner table I found a recipe in a magazine for Greek moussaka which featured minced lamb and potatoes not an eggplant in sight The list of ingredients included garlic the use of which was optional The white sauce topping was made from yoghurt flour and egg yolks Many dishes called for stock cubes and even monosodium glutamate A recipe for Neapolitan pizza dough in The Australian Women s Weekly in 1968 included copha and Deb Instant Potato Flakes But the nation was changing as young Australians woke up and switched on and our cities became more diverse New smells of garlic and rosemary and other herbs wafted through suburban back lanes and people took to the streets to protest conscription and to let the government know that they were not all the way with LBJ Containing more than 160 images and combining entertaining social history fact boxes and lively anecdotes Living the 1960s paints a picture of a decade that didn t just swing it twisted stomped and screamed For Noeline as for a generation of Australians it was the most important decade of her life

Rethinking Development Geographies Marcus Power,2004-08-02 Development as a concept is notoriously imprecise vague and presumptuous Struggles over the meaning of this fiercely contested term have had profound implications on the destinies of people and places across the globe Rethinking Development Geographies offers a stimulating and critical introduction to the study of geography and development In doing so it sets out to explore the spatiality of development thinking and practices The book highlights the geopolitical nature of development and its origins in Empire and the Cold War It also reflects critically on the historical engagement of geographers with the Tropics the Third World and the South The dominant economic and political philosophies that shape the policies and perspectives of major institutions are discussed The interconnections between globalization and development are highlighted through an examination of local national and transnational resistance to various forms of development The text provides an accessible introduction to the complex and confusing world of contemporary global development Informative diagrams cartoons and case studies are used throughout While exploring global geographies of economic and political change Rethinking Development Geographies is also grounded in a concern with people and places the view from below the views of women and the view from the South
