

American Government
Social Studies Department
One Semester: .5 credits

1. Prerequisites:

- 1.1. Every senior must take American Government if they are not taking A.P. Government. Students are required to pass in order to graduate from Detroit Catholic Central High School.

2. Text Books:

- 2.1. Magruder's American Government. McClenaghan, William A.

- 2.2. Empire. Laxer, James

- 2.2.1. You will given a quiz on this book during class. It is your book to keep, I encourage you to underline/highlight and take notes while reading the book. You will be given questions to help guide your understanding as you read.

3. Course Goals and Objectives:

- 3.1. This course is devoted to gaining an understanding of the origins and foundations of our American Government. The course will also go beyond our borders and look at other governmental and economic systems throughout the world today. An understanding of current events and how they impact both us and our government is an important asset to this class. This course makes use of digitized primary and secondary sources to supplement and enhance instruction.

4. Course Description:

- 4.1. Unit 1: Intro to Government and Economic Systems

- 4.1.1. Chapter 1: Principles of Government

- 4.1.2. Chapter 23: Comparative Economic Systems

- 4.1.2.1. Unit one will look at the origins and the forms of government. In addition, Unit 1 will look at and break down three core economic theories: capitalism, socialism and communism.

- 4.2. Unit 2: Origins of American Government

- 4.2.1. Chapter 2: Origins of American Government

- 4.2.2. Chapter 3: The Constitution

- 4.2.2.1. Unit two will look at the major events that led to the formation of the American Government. The chapter will look at how European traditions have shaped our government and how America's first experiences shaped the government. In addition this unit will look at the organization and structure of the Constitution.

- 4.3. Unit 3: Federalism

- 4.3.1. Chapter 4: Federalism

- 4.3.1.1. Unit three will look at the relationship between the national and the state governments in the United States. Students will apply the theory of Federalism when looking at Hurricane Katrina's impact on the city of New Orleans and its residents.

Moore,2009-11-30 This book is a practical guide addressing the issues faced by philanthropists seeking to engage in international charitable activities and offers alternative approaches to traditional US based foundations A significant portion of the regulatory burdens facing US private foundations derives from tax benefits available to donors under US law A charitable organization must initially qualify and then be maintained under a complex regulatory regime If some or all of these tax benefits are either unavailable or not needed or if the tax advantages are outweighed by the burdens of regulatory compliance foundations can be established in foreign jurisdictions Charitable activities can then be operated flexibly and privately outside the constraints of the US regulatory regime For existing private foundations this book suggests strategies designed to hedge against ever increasing and intrusive regulation Consumers' Guide ,1943 Japanese War Crimes and Related Topics: A Guide to Records at the National Archives United States. National Archives and Records Administration,200? This finding aid will help researchers interested in Japanese war crimes war criminals and war crimes trials to navigate the vast holdings of the U S National Archives and Records Administration at College Park NARA It will also be useful to anyone interested in military intelligence political diplomatic economic financial social and cultural activities in the Far East during 1931 1951 as well as to those searching for information regarding Allied prisoners of war the organization functions and activities of American and Allied agencies and the Japanese occupation of countries and the American occupation of Japan While not aimed at researchers interested in the strategic and tactical military and naval history of the war in the Far East this finding aid may nevertheless be useful to those with such interests if only to identify record groups and series of records that may bear on those topics This finding aid covers records from over twenty record groups and includes materials declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act of 2000 P L 106 567 as well as records that were never classified and those declassified before the passage of the Disclosure Act Because the process of identifying declassifying accessioning and processing of records under the Act is taking place as this finding is being compiled late arriving records may not be identified in this finding aid Researchers should consult the IWG Web site <http://www.archives.gov/iwg> for a complete and up to date list of records declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act Federal agencies involved in the identification and declassification of relevant classified records ascertained that there were relatively few pertinent records that were still classified Most relevant records were either never classified or were declassified decades before the Act and were already in NARA s custody While this finding aid s coverage is broad it is not comprehensive Researchers may find other relevant series of records within the record groups mentioned or not mentioned Researchers are encouraged to use other finding aids and consult with NARA staff to locate records of interest In addition the National Archives at College Park holds nontextual records such as still photographs and motion pictures that researchers may want to examine Other NARA facilities hold many records and donated material related to World War II including records related to the subjects covered in this finding aid This is particularly true of the Franklin D Roosevelt the Harry S Truman and the Dwight D Eisenhower Think of archives as vast mountain ranges of records with the archivists guiding the expeditions Explorations on familiar well trodden paths produce new perspectives when examined with fresh eyes and imagination
