Fostering Habits of Mind in Today's Students Jennifer Fletcher, Adela Najarro, Hetty Yelland, 2023-07-03 Co published with and Students need more than just academic skills for success in college and career and the lack of an explicit instructional focus on the soft skills critical to postsecondary success poses a challenge for many students who enter college especially the underprepared Based upon a multi campus cross disciplinary collaboration this book presents the resulting set of habits of mind based strategies that demonstrably help not only low income ESL and first generation college students overcome obstacles on the path to degree completion these strategies equally benefit all students They promote life long integrative learning and foster intellectual qualities such as curiosity openness flexibility engagement and persistence that are the key to developing internalized and transferrable competencies that are seldom given direct attention in college classrooms This contributed volume written with full time and adjunct faculty in mind provides the rationale for this pedagogical approach and presents the sequential instructional cycle that begins by identifying students assets and progressively focusing on specific habits to develop their capacity to transfer their learning to new tasks and situations Faculty from both two year and four year colleges provide examples of how they implement these practices in English math and General Education courses and demonstrate the applicability of these practices across course types and disciplines Chapters address key factors of college success including The link between habits of mind and student retention and achievement Using an assets based approach to teaching and learning Supporting and engaging students Creating inclusive learning communities Building confidence and self efficacy Promoting transfer of learning Teacher networks and cross disciplinary collaboration By foregrounding habits of mind as an instructional lens this book makes a unique contribution to teaching in developmental and general education settings

Adrienne Rich Karen F. Stein, 2017-10-10 In her six decade long writing career Adrienne Rich 1929 2012 addressed with sagacity and probing honesty most of the significant issues of her lifetime A poet of finely tuned craft she won numerous prizes awards and honorary degrees and famously rejected the prestigious National Medal for the Arts in 1997 She wrote twenty five volumes of poetry and seven non fiction books as she combined the roles of poet scholar theorist and activist Rich wrote passionately and powerfully about major 20th and early 21st century concerns such as feminism racism sexism the Vietnam War Marxism militarism the growing income disparities in the U S and other social issues Her works ask important questions about how we should act and what we should believe They imagine new ways to deal with the social and political challenges of the twentieth century Setting her work in the context of her life and American politics and culture during her lifetime this book explores Rich's poetic and personal journey from conservative dutiful follower of cultural and poetic traditions to challenging questioner and critic from passivity and powerlessness to activist theorist and acclaimed poet of the oppositional imagination

From Curlers to Chainsaws Joyce Dyer, Jennifer Cognard-Black, Elizabeth MacLeod Walls, 2016-02-01 The twenty three distinguished writers included in From Curlers to Chainsaws Women and Their Machines invite machines into their lives and onto the page In every room and landscape these writers occupy gadgets that both stir and stymie may be found a Singer sewing machine a stove a gun a vibrator a prosthetic limb a tractor a Dodge Dart a microphone a smartphone a stapler a No 1 pencil and of course a curling iron and a chainsaw From Curlers to Chainsaws is a groundbreaking collection of lyrical and illuminating essays about the serious silly seductive and sometimes sorrowful relationships between women and their machines This collection explores in depth objects we sometimes take for granted focusing not only on their functions but also on their powers to inform identity For each writer the device moves beyond the functional to become a symbolic extension of the writer's own mind altering and deepening each woman's concept of herself WPA, Writing Program
