Age of Anxiety Anthony M. Wachs,Jon D. Schaff,2019-11-29 Age of Anxiety Meaning Identity and Politics in 21st Century Film and Literature analyzes literature and films that speak to our age of anxiety resulting from the decline of narratives that provided individuals with a meaningful human life The authors argue that the twentieth century sought to free individuals from the constraints of authoritative cultural traditions and institutions liberating the autonomous self Yet this has given rise to anxiety rather than liberation Instead of deriving one s sense of purpose from one s role and place within a community the consumer has been deceived into thinking that their identity can be purchased through the meaning represented by the conspicuous consumption of a brand The same phenomenon manifests itself in politics within recent populist revolts against globalist politics In addition the rapid pace of technological development is driving an unprecedented faith in the malleability of human beings raises doubts as to what it means to be a person Utilizing paradigms from the fields of Communication Rhetoric and Political Philosophy the book shows how the self has been displaced from its natural habitat of the local community The book traces the origins of modern anxiety as well as possible remedies Considered in the book are such popular culture artifacts as Downton Abbey WALL E Hacksaw Ridge Westworld and Lord of the Rings and zombie films

The Arab and Jewish Questions Bashir Bashir,Leila Farsakh,2020-12-15 Nineteenth century Europe turned the political status of its Jewish communities into the Jewish Question as both Christianity and rising forms of nationalism viewed Jews as the ultimate other With the onset of Zionism this question migrated to Palestine and intensified under British colonial rule and in the aftermath of the Holocaust Zionism s attempt to solve the Jewish Question created what came to be known as the Arab Question which concerned the presence and rights of the Arab population in Palestine For the most part however Jewish settlers denied or dismissed the question they created to the detriment of both Arabs and Jews in Palestine and elsewhere This book brings together leading scholars to consider how these two questions are entangled historically and in the present day It offers critical analyses of Arab engagements with the question of Jewish rights alongside Zionist and non Zionist Jewish considerations of Palestinian identity and political rights Together the essays show that the Arab and Jewish questions and the Israeli Palestinian conflict in which they have become subsumed belong to the same thorny history Despite their major differences the historical Jewish and Arab questions are about the political rights of oppressed groups and their inclusion within exclusionary political communities a question that continues to foment tensions in the Middle East Europe and the United States Shedding new light on the intricate relationships among Orientalism anti Semitism Islamophobia colonialism and the impasse in the Israeli Palestinian conflict this book reveals the inseparability of Arab and Jewish struggles for self determination and political equality Contributors include Gil Anidjar Brian Klug Amal Ghazal Ella Shohat Hakem Al Rustom Hillel Cohen Yuval Evri Derek Penslar Jacqueline Rose Moshe Behar Maram Masarwi and the editors Bashir Bashir and Leila Farsakh
