Corporate culture can be one of the most overlooked factors when considering employment. Most job seekers focus on the salary and benefits of a position, but neglect to discover an organization's personality. Corporate culture determines a number of important areas, such as the work hours, the dress code, and the office space you will work in. There is a big difference between spending 40 hours in a cubicle and spending 40 hours in an office with a window. Determining the corporate culture of a business prior to being hired can be tricky, but if an employee doesn't fit in with the culture, the experience can quickly turn negative for both parties.

The interview process offers a great time to inquire about the company and to make observations on how co-workers interact around the office. When waiting to be interviewed, take notice of the
