Medialogies David R. Castillo, William Egginton, 2017-01-01 We are living in a time of inflationary media While technological change has periodically altered and advanced the ways humans process and transmit knowledge for the last 100 years the media with which we produce transmit and record ideas have multiplied in kind speed and power Saturation in media is provoking a crisis in how we perceive and understand reality Media become inflationary when the scope of their representation of the world outgrows the confines of their culture s prior grasp of reality We call the resulting concept of reality that emerges the culture s medialogy Medialogies offers a highly innovative approach to the contemporary construction of reality in cultural political and economic domains Castillo and Egginton both luminary scholars combine a very accessible style with profound theoretical analysis relying not only on works of philosophy and political theory but also on novels Hollywood films and mass media phenomena The book invites us to reconsider the way reality is constructed and how truth sovereignty agency and authority are understood from the everyday philosophical and political points of view A powerful analysis of actuality with its roots in early modernity this work is crucial to understanding reality in the information age

Zombie Talk John Edgar Browning, David Castillo, David Schmid, David A. Reilly, 2016-04-30 Zombie Talk offers a concise interdisciplinary introduction and deep analytical set of theoretical approaches to help readers understand the phenomenon of zombies in contemporary and modern culture With essays that combine Humanities and Social Science methodologies the authors examine the zombie through an array of cultural products from different periods and geographical locations films ranging from White Zombie 1932 to the pioneering films of George Romero television shows like AMC s The Walking Dead to literary offerings such as Richard Matheson s I am Legend 1954 and Seth Grahame Smith s Pride Prejudice and Zombies 2009 among others
