Global Perspectives on Adolescents and Their Families Yan Ruth Xia, Maria Rosario T. de Guzman, Rosario Esteinou, Cody Stonewall Hollist, 2024-02-22 This edited volume examines the adolescent period across multiple cultural settings and in a range of contemporary contexts e g rural vs urban political unrest war rapid globalization It employs a multi disciplinary lens

while addressing traditional issues e.g. identity development and recently emergent ones e.g. social media. It contains four main sections: 1. adolescence and families in contexts with rapidly shifting societal norms; 2. adolescence and families in the context of socio-political crisis and upheaval; 3. adolescence and families in the context of individual stress and strain; and 4. adolescent identity development in the family and in transition to adulthood. Contributors to this volume are leading scholars from a range of disciplines e.g. anthropology, psychology, family science, and thus explore adolescence from multiple perspectives. Cross-cutting themes include how the broader socio-ecological background and ecocultural niche shape various dimensions of adolescence; how the role of the family is redefined in these various contexts and circumstances; and how adolescent resilience and family strengths are formed across a broad range of settings. Throughout this volume highlights the continued centrality of family in the development and well-being of adolescents across the globe. This is an essential resource for practitioners and researchers who treat and study adolescents.

Research Methods in Family Therapy Douglas H. Sprenkle, Fred P. Piercy, 2005-06-01 Fully revised and updated the second edition of this widely adopted text and professional reference reflects significant recent changes in the landscape of family therapy research. Leading contributors provide the current knowledge needed to design strong qualitative, quantitative, and mixed method studies; analyze the resulting data; and translate findings into improved practices and programs. Following a consistent format, user-friendly chapters thoroughly describe the various methodologies and illustrate their applications with helpful concrete examples. Among the ten entirely new chapters in the second edition is an invaluable research primer for beginning graduate students. Other new chapters cover action and participatory research methods, computer-aided qualitative data analysis, feminist autoethnography, performance methodology, task analysis, cutting-edge statistical models, and more.
