Romero, 2012-08-14 You're about to enter a city that has no equal It was built by extraordinary people with imaginative minds Did they drink Not sure but why else would they build it in a Nevada desert Some say you can go anywhere in the world and discover that people not only know about Las Vegas they'd give anything to get there True As soon as I graduated from college I took an all night bus to reach a city I'd heard of but never seen I stayed 30 years Damn good years too And the mystique of the entertainers and the film stars and the elaborate restaurants and 24 hour a day casinos never wore off I spent 20 of my years at the Sahara on the Strip got inside the gambling business in the 60s and loved it Helped it too with my writing and my inventions The Mob was still around in those days They were the first venture capitalists and owned a piece of every casino in town Did that stop anyone from having a good time Of course not Gradually the Mob faded away which is what happens when an FBI office with 15 agents sets up shop in town But the gaiety didn't stop for a second even when corporations realized they were the big guys now Our Sahara entertainment director stunned us in 1964 when he made a deal with The Beatles to play two shows I met the boys after dark at a small Las Vegas airport rode with them to the Sahara and helped get them to their suite before teen age girls tore their clothes off So take a chance have a seat and enjoy that drink in front of you Its time to start the show John Romero Midwifery - E-Book Sally Pairman, Jan Pincombe, Carol water It reveals the engineering marvels that brought water to Nevada City's dry hills from tens of miles away But what if all the water in every ravine creek and valley around Nevada City was controlled by just three men Well for three decades every miner farmer or business could only buy water from the powerful South Yuba Canal Company What would happen if you got into an argument with them Or couldn't afford to pay their water bill Or even dared to compete with them The book traces the ingenuity and hard work of the town's miners and ditch builders highlighting in detail the history and origins of various local neighborhoods including Nevada City itself Hirschman's Pond Sugar Loaf Mountain Deer Creek Scotts Flat Manzanita Diggings Gold Flat and various mining camps along Washington Ridge This vivid portrayal follows the area's evolution from the chaos of thousands of miners scratching out a living in clusters of muddy tents to a genteel town with hotels stores banks theaters and libraries What began as a search to uncover a sprawling network of old ditches turned into a collection of never before told stories of the gold miners the ruthless and greedy ditch company and the rivals that it crushed The domineering ditch company later enabled the next generation of monopoly to provide electrical power The story of PG E also started in Nevada City This in turn led to the now more forward looking stewardship of the Nevada Irrigation District The unique format of this book blends beautiful archival images with more than 35 in depth biographies of key figures in Nevada City This 884 page hardcover book includes over 600 photos and illustrations including 200 historic photographs and 75 hand crafted maps based on modern lidar technology that reveal the locations of the old mining ditches flumes mines and tunnels
