Self-Representation in an Expanded Field Ace Lehner,2021-05-31 Defined as a self image made with a hand held mobile device and shared via social media platforms the selfie has facilitated self imaging becoming a ubiquitous part of globally networked contemporary life Beyond this selfies have facilitated a diversity of image making practices and enabled otherwise representationally marginalized constituencies to insert self representations into visual culture In the Western

European and North American art historical context self portraiture has been somewhat rigidly albeit obliquely defined and selfies have facilitated a shift regarding who literally holds the power to self image Like self portraits not all selfies are inherently aesthetically or conceptually rigorous or avant guard But as this project aims to do address via a variety of interdisciplinary approaches selfies have irreversibly impacted visual culture contemporary art and portraiture in particular Selfies propose new modes of self imaging forward emerging aesthetics and challenge established methods they prove that as scholars and image makers it is necessary to adapt and innovate in order to contend with the most current form of self representation to date The essays gathered herein will reveal that in our current moment it is necessary and advantageous to consider the merits and interventions of selfies and self portraiture in an expanded field of self representations We invite authors to take interdisciplinary global perspectives to investigate various sub genres aesthetic practices and lineages in which selfies intervene to enrich the discourse on self representation in the expanded field today
