The Animals: Love Letters Between Christopher Isherwood and Don Bachardy Christopher Isherwood, Don Bachardy, 2014-05-13 The love story between Christopher Isherwood and Don Bachardy in their own words Christopher Isherwood was the celebrated middle aged English author of Goodbye to Berlin when he met the Californian teenager Don Bachardy on a Santa Monica beach in 1952 Defying convention the two created an enduring relationship out of that initial spark living as an openly gay couple for more than three decades in the closeted world of Hollywood The Animals is the testimony in letters of their extraordinary partnership which lasted until Isherwood's death in 1986 despite a thirty year age gap affairs jealousies the pressures of literary fame and the disdain of twentieth century America for love between two men In romantic letters to each other they invented the private world of The Animals Chris was Dobbin a stubborn old workhorse Don was a rash spirited white kitten named Kitty The ability to create a world a safe and separate milieu was a great talent of Isherwood's and a necessary one as a gay man in mid twentieth century America But Isherwood knew how to spread hay around his stable and attract beauty He drew Bachardy into his semisecret realm and together they invented a place for their love to thrive Bold transgressive and playful The Animals shows us the devotion between two creative spirits in tenderness and storms

The Global Spread of Football from the 1860s to the 1880s Thomas Adam,2025-08-05 This book offers a study of how football became in the 1870s a global sport that was played by high school students on several continents It provides a horizontal perspective that focusses on the spread of football in the 1870s from its English cradle to Germany the United States and Argentina It will be the very first account of football that does not treat this sport in isolation but brings together the phenomenon of football with the conditions in nineteenth century high schools and the crisis of urban living and thereby explains why this sport was so willingly and quickly accepted into various societies and cultures around the globe Football was part of the social reform movement that emerged in the second half of the nineteenth century in response to the social ills of urban life Adults and children spent more and more time inside badly ventilated buildings Beginning in the 1870s social reformers and teachers called for the introduction into school curricula of physical exercises that could be conducted on the meadows and sport fields outside cities
