Student Discipline Strategies Oliver C. Moles,1990-08-27 Almost a third of public school teachers have considered leaving teaching because of student misbehavior When asked what were the greatest problems facing their local schools respondents to Gallup polls have cited discipline first almost every year back to the early 1970s Discipline problems may range from crimes in schools such as robbery and drug dealing committed by students or intruders to lack of respectful behavior toward teachers and classmates and the spectrum from crimes to disrespect is discussed in the chapters of this ground breaking volume This collection by leading scholars should be useful to social scientists educational researchers educators and school administrators all those who need to understand how specific and manipulable features of schools classrooms and their surrounding environments affect the course of student behavior and prospects for sustained improvement in the discipline climate in schools The information in these chapters provides many practical ideas as well as some cautions for trying new approaches to make schools more orderly learning environments for all students Policing Geoffrey P. Alpert,Roger G. Dunham,Meghan S. Stroshine,2014-10-28 The second edition of Policing Continuity and Change effectively combines theory research policy and practical experience Strategies for policing in the United States have evolved rapidly in the last four decades This concise introduction provides the necessary background to understand the challenges of policing the innovations in the field and the reforms shaping the profession Discussions of recruitment socialization and organization delineate who the police are what they do and how the police culture affects officers The authors highlight the proactive skills necessary for solving problems and for productive interactions with community members They emphasize the need for policies and training regarding use of force This vital up to date overview explores the implications for policing as departments employ new technologies and respond to demands for accountability Congressional Record United States.
