My written words are my voice Until I learned to cry out to God it was me and the pen speaking on paper I found countless journals filled with my thoughts and ideas some written in shorthand and I could not decipher I wrote down everything that I held inside until I was able to verbalize it I encourage you to let God hear your voice Psalm 145:18-19 The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon him to all that call upon him in truth 19 He will fulfill the desire of them that fear him he also will hear their cry and will save them Boating, 1978-01 Taliban Safari Paul Darling, 2019-04-17 We aren't home yet Major Paul Darling reminds his team at the end of a sixteen hour day Two more miles and we are done We have pissed off a lot of Taliban today and they are going to want payback Shortly the major will find himself sitting on a concrete basketball court next to the bunker where the day started so long ago talking by satellite phone to his wife on the other side of the world When she asks What happened there is too much to say But one day he promises himself he will put into words what it was like one day in the life of a combat soldier in Afghanistan in 2009 This is the story of that day In crisp prose and sharp detail Darling offers a moment by moment account of a one day mission to track down and kill Taliban insurgents in the Zabul Province of southeastern Afghanistan A rare day in the life narrative that is also a page turner his story captures the mundane realities of deployment the waiting the heat the heavy gear the 0345 wake up along with the high octane experience of crossing foreign terrain where every turn every decision might have life or death consequences The living accommodations reporting up the chain of command the bureaucracy and the almost insurmountable challenges of functioning effectively in two cultures all become intimately real in Darling's telling as he balances the imperatives of his mission and the skills of his men against the ever multiplying unknowns the unpredictable and dangerous Afghan allies and the elusive enemy the unseen IED and the possibility of fatal miscalculation In the midst of the soldier's everyday drama of never quite knowing what comes next Darling's moments of humor and reflection put the chaos and uncertainties of combat into a larger perspective The story is about one man and the ethical choices and compromises he has to make as a leader a man who has promises to keep to family to country to his soldiers both Afghan and American and ultimately to himself
