Antiheroines of Contemporary Media Melanie Haas,N. A. Pierce,Gretchen Busl,2020-12-02 This volume of essays provides a critical foray into the methods used to construct narratives which foreground antiheroines a trope which has become increasingly popular within literary media film and television Antiheroine characters engage constructions of motherhood womanhood femininity and selfhood as mediated by the structures that socially prescribe boundaries of gender sex and sexuality Within this collection scholars of literary cultural media and gender studies address the complications of representing agency autonomy and self determination within narrative texts complicated by age class race sexuality and a spectrum of privilege that reflects the complexities of scripting women on and off screen within and beyond the page This collection offers perspectives on the alternate narratives engendered through the motivations actions and agendas of the antiheroine while engaging with the discourses of how such narratives are employed both as potentially feminist interventions and critiques of access hierarchy and power

The Neoliberal Imagination in Contemporary Literature
Tammy Amiel Houser, 2024-08-06 This book examines the relationship between empathy and neoliberalism as it unfolded in the aftermath of the 2008 financial crisis and through the turbulent 2010s Via close readings of contemporary novels as well as various non fictional texts it traces the changing approaches to empathy in the post financial crisis imagination highlighting a crucial re conceptualization of empathy as a boundaryless force untethered to local or social circumstance This reconceptualization implicitly aligns empathy with the neoliberal ethos of globalism and distances it from the traditional notion of sympathy Via complex dialogue with the novelistic tradition of sympathy contemporary novelists highlight the problematics of boundaryless empathy while exploring ways to resist neoliberal views and values Analyzing engagements with empathy in post 2008 literature and culture the book sheds light on the underlying affective dynamics that enabled the persistence of neoliberalism after the 2008 financial crisis alongside efforts to challenge its dominance
