Mearsheimer, 2001 A decade after the cold war ended policy makers and academics foresaw a new era of peace and prosperity an era in which democracy and open trade would herald the end of history State Institutions, Private Incentives, Global Capital Andrew Carl Sobel, 2010-09-23 The growth of global finance since 1960 constitutes one of the most important transformations in social relations during the twentieth century Using historical statistical and graphical techniques State Institutions Private Incentives and Global Capital examines three important aspects of this phenomenal shift in the international political economy First Andrew Sobel explores the reawakening of the international financial markets mapping their extraordinary transformation since the early 1960s and discussing the role of politics in that metamorphosis The author then offers a fresh understanding of the systematic differences in access for borrowers in this rapidly transforming and expanding global capital pool He then demonstrates the influence of political factors in producing differential access to the global capital pool Showing how the character and stability of a country's political system affects investors's decisions to invest in that country Sobel breaks new ground in understanding the basis for the frequent admonitions by the World Bank and others that a stable political and legal system are essential for states to attract significant foreign investment With the growing debate about the effect of financial interdependence on the ability of states to conduct economic policy and indeed to preserve their independence in the face of unprecedented economic linkages this book will be of interest to political scientists and economists as well as policy makers concerned with the impact of financial globalization and the causes of differentials in access to capital Andrew C Sobel is Assistant Professor of Political Science and Resident Fellow Center in Political Economy Washington University St Louis He is the author of Domestic Choices International Markets Dismantling National Barriers and Liberalizing Securities Markets Political Economy of Modern Capitalism Colin Crouch, Wolfgang Streeck, 1997-12-22 In the wake of Maastricht neo liberalism and de regulation have come to dominate national and international political economy Political Economy of Modern Capitalism addresses this convergence and provides a comprehensive overview for the future of capitalist diversity The Transformation of the State Georg Sørensen, 2017-03-14 Recent years have seen a range of theoretical challenges to traditional notions of state sovereignty and a burgeoning debate about the power of the state in the face of globalization and new forms of governance In this important new text Georg Sørensen provides a systematic assessment of the contemporary state steering a middle course between those who argue the state is in retreat and their critics In so doing he sheds new light on just what is actually changing in the nature of sovereign statehood on changes in the relative power of different states and on the changing relationship between the domestic and external aspects of state power The Imagined Economies of Globalization Angus Cameron, Ronen Palan, 2004 This book critically introduces the main contemporary debates on globalization and demonstrates how conventional versions or narratives of globalization have served to shape policy responses at both state and corporate levels New Modes of Governance in the Global System M. Koenig-Archibugi, M. Zürn, 2005-11-30 Globalization processes are propelling a transformation of governance As political problems become more transnational scholars determined to understand the 2008 financial crisis have examined the growth of US subprime mortgage debt in the period leading up to the collapse and how government policy supported this accumulation However the long history of the subprime crisis its connection to the patterns of financial risk designated by the postwar international monetary system has been all too often overlooked This book explores the long history of the subprime crisis through an original theoretic lens that sheds light on the institutional basis of global debt markets and the role of US Treasury debt in the international financial system The Global Gamble Peter Gowan,1999-08-17 Peter Gowan argues that since the collapse of the USSR the US government has been trying to bring about a unipolar world in which the United States can control and shape the pattern of economic and political change in all regions of the globe Empire of Democracy Simon Reid-Henry,2020-06-30 The first panoramic history of the Western world from the 1970s to the present day from the Cold War to the 2008 financial crisis and wars in the Middle East Empire of Democracy is a superbly informed and riveting historical analysis of our contemporary era Charles S Maier Harvard University Half a century ago at the height of the Cold War and amidst a world economic crisis the Western democracies were forced to undergo a profound transformation Against what some saw as a full scale crisis of democracy with race riots anti Vietnam marches and a wave of worker discontent sowing crisis from one nation to the next a new political economic order was devised and the postwar social contract was torn up and written anew In this epic narrative of the events that have shaped our own times Simon Reid Henry shows how liberal democracy and western history with it was profoundly reimagined when the postwar Golden Age ended As the institutions of liberal rule were reinvented a new generation of politicians emerged Thatcher Reagan Mitterrand Kohl The late twentieth century heyday they oversaw carried the Western democracies triumphantly to victory in the Cold War and into the economic boom of the 1990s But equally it led them into the fiasco of Iraq to the high drama of the financial crisis in 2007 8 and ultimately to the anti liberal surge of our own times The present crisis of liberalism is leading us toward as yet unscripted decades The era we have all been living through is closing out and democracy is turning on its axis once again Brilliantly Reid Henry calls for the salvation of democracy from the choices of its own leaders if it is to survive Samuel Moyn Yale University

Common Goods Adrienne Héritier, 2002-05-28 As European countries become more interdependent the provision of common goods increasingly must be organized across national boundaries levels of government and sectors In addition former adversaries in the public and private sectors must learn to collaborate rather than compete These changing paradigms call for new institutional and instrumental arrangements that move beyond existing modes of national governance Offering a unique focus on the emerging role of private actors this volume explores the evolving challenge of governing common goods in an increasingly transnational environment The first systematic analysis of institutional solutions for providing common goods this book shows how hierarchies established over centuries of nation state rule have become obsolete while negotiation and self regulation have grown in importance The contributors explore innovative solutions to the collective action problems countries encounter when clear lines of traditional authority dissolve

The Nation-State in Transformation Michael Boss, 2010-07-16 The Nation State in Transformation discusses the significance of the state in a globalised economy Focusing on Denmark and Ireland the book analyses how small states adapt to the international market and argues that the institutional mediation of globalisation helps us explain why some states seem to possess more capacity to adjust than others Not only must we bring the state back in we must also consider how history culture and collective identities influence the performance of the nation state in the new globalised world order With contributions by Francis Fukuyama Bob Jessop David Marsh John A Hall and John Campbell Georg Sorensen Bjorn Hvinden Rory O'Donnell Peadar Kirby Joseph Ruane Brian Girvin Sean O'Riain Chris McNerny Gert and Gunnar Svendsen Lars Bo Kaspersen and Linda Thorsager Henrik Bang and Michael Boss Coping With Globalization Jeffrey A.
