Governing Asia Reflections On A Research Journey:

Governing Asia: Reflections On A Research Journey Lee Kuan Yew School Of Public Policy, 2014-10-07 These thirty eight essays by the professors and research fellows of the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy is dedicated to the tenth anniversary of the School The core theme of the essays is governance in Asia and what its governments and peoples are doing for the public good As Asia rises its policymakers and citizens and indeed the rest of the world are increasingly asking how this dynamic region is making public policy what we can learn from that exciting often turbulent process and how Asians can do better The School s diverse and international group of scholars have written a set of informal provocative and passionate essays about governance in Asia its past present and future and why they study it The volume a candid engaging act of transparency and disclosure is also an invitation to join the conversation on the problems and promise of Asia and the larger dialogue on public policy and policy research in a globalized world

Economic Evaluation of Sustainable Development Vinod Thomas, Namrata Chindarkar, 2019-04-16 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This book presents methods to evaluate sustainable development using economic tools The focus on sustainable development takes the reader beyond economic growth to encompass inclusion environmental stewardship and good governance Sustainable Development Goals SDGs provide a framework for outcomes In illustrating the SDGs the book employs three evaluation approaches impact evaluation cost benefit analysis and objectives based evaluation The innovation lies in connecting evaluation tools with economics Inclusion environmental care and good governance thought of as wicked problems are given centre stage The book uses case studies to show the application of evaluation tools It offers guidance to evaluation practitioners students of development and policymakers The basic message is that evaluation comes to life when its links with socio economic environmental and governance policies are capitalized on

Urban Resilience to Droughts and Floods Cecilia Tortajada, James Horne, Larry Harrington, 2020-05-21 This book focuses on policies and governance on how to build the resilience of cities to droughts and floods in the short medium and long term There are discussions on how cities prepare for cope with learn from manage and recover from these extreme events The chapters also consider aspects such as changing paradigms policy responses under uncertainty scenario development institutional responses adaptive forecasting governance perspectives infrastructure development overall investments and technological innovation The Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and the Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction are discussed at length Most of the cities and regions studied are in Asia however cities from Oceania Europe Africa and North America are also included Analyses are not limited to cities but to the basins and regions from which urban populations obtain their resources and on which their resilience depends This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Water Resources Development

God and Governing Roger N. Overton, 2009-07-01 Abortion Poverty Pornography More than thirty years ago evangelical conservatives moderates and liberals alike began tackling these and other major social problems head on through concerted political effort The intervening decades witnessed the rise of groups such as the Moral Majority and the Christian Coalition which supported numerous politicians and religiously driven policies Why is it then that despite the seemingly great potential of these and other similar groups the same pervading social problems still persist How is it that evangelicals have been so ineffective at changing the political and social landscape of the United States in a positive way Based on a conference organized by Trinity Law School God and Governing brings together theologians politicians law professors and cultural critics in order to examine the root causes of evangelical political failure over the past thirty years With a foreword by Charles Colson contributors include David Wells Paul Marshall Os Guinness Patrick Nolan Vishal Mangalwadi Dallas Willard Donald McConnell and Stephen Kennedy      Access to the City Helena Cermeño, 2025-06-24 This research focuses on Punjab across the India Pakistan border specifically on the cities of Amritsar and Lahore Their proximity shared colonial past socio cultural ties and entangled urban heritage offer a unique setting for comparative research on postcolonial urban governance and transformation The book examines how governance practices shape urban dwellers access to housing and services in specific neighbourhoods and contribute to the re production of socio spatial in exclusion Rather than relying on a property rights lens it adopts and expands Access Theory conceptualising access as the ability to derive benefits from material institutional and symbolic resources This lens foregrounds governance mechanisms and power relations that enable control and maintain access over time Case studies in Amritsar and Lahore engage with theoretical mergers such as access assemblages evolutionary governance and city scapes to explore neglected dimensions of urban processes including human non human interfaces and socio material infrastructures By unraveling contestations over access the research traces evolving governance arrangements and dependencies While grounded in these two cities the findings contribute to broader debates on postcolonial and South east ern urbanism especially in border regions      Global Empowerment of Women Carolyn M. Elliott, 2007-12-12 The empowerment of women is a broadly endorsed strategy for solving a host of difficult problems from child poverty to gender violence to international development The seventeen international scholars in this multi disciplinary volume offer thoughtful critiques of the notion of empowerment based on their studies in twenty countries in all regions of the world The comparative introduction places concepts of empowerment in the context of models of the market and of community showing how contradictions in these models as they are enacted on the ground provide both spaces and constraints for women The chapters consider opportunities for women in the context of globalization resurgent nationalism and politicized religion cultures of masculinity and the HIV AIDS epidemic in Africa They show how initiatives at national or global levels are transformed by local cultures and power structures and demonstrate the fruitfulness of tensions between universal values of human rights and contextualized understandings This landmark multi disciplinary collection of original studies by distinguished international feminist scholars will be an essential addition to the fields of Political Science Women s Studies Economics Sociology International Development and Environmental Studies

Doing Diaspora Missiology Toward "Diaspora Mission Church" Luther Jeom Ok Kim, 2016-01-05 In U S Population Projections 2005 2050 Pew Research Center reported that The nation s population will rise to 438 million in 2050 from 296 million in 2005 and fully 82% of the growth during this period will be due to immigrants arriving from 2005 to 2050 and their descendants This shows that it is essential to study and understand how our mission especially in the context of the USA called the nation of immigrants will respond to this huge mobility of immigrant diaspora So far there has been emphasis on doing diaspora missiology however there is no practical implications and application in local church setting Now mission is next door which implies that the ministry of the local church should be emphasized for 21st contemporary mission This book provides detailed frameworks and methods of diaspora missiology within local churches called diaspora mission church According to the Bible all human beings are theologically and spiritually diaspora irrespective of ethnicity because they were banished from the Garden of Eden and scattered around the world in God s judgment Now they walk toward the encounter with Jesus Christ preach the gospel as the seed of Kingdom and finally move toward heaven
