Nyakudya, Wesley Mwatwara, Joseph Mujere, 2022-11-15 This book provides a timely reconceptualization of Zimbabwe's anti-colonial liberation struggle resisting simple binaries in favour of more nuanced critical analysis. Most historiographies characterize Zimbabwe's liberation struggle as being defined by simple bifurcations along racial, ethnic, class and ideological perspectives. This book argues that the nationalist struggle is far more complex than such simple configurations would suggest and that many actors have been overlooked in the analysis. The book broadens our understanding by analysing the roles of a wide range of political figures, organizations and members of the military as well as the media and the often overlooked part that women played. Over the course of the book the contributors also reflect on the ways in which revolutionary figures have been repainted as sellouts in particular by the ZANU PF ruling party and what that means for the country's interpretation of their recent past. Highlighting in particular the expertise of leading scholars from within Zimbabwe across a range of disciplines, this book will be of interest to researchers of African history, politics and postcolonial studies.

Mediating Gender in African Social Media Shepherd Mpofu, Kealeboga Aiseng, 2025-09-18 Through African case studies this book explores how gender and sexuality are articulated on social media. While the representation of gender in mainstream media has been studied for many decades, this book fills a gap by focusing on social media platforms like Facebook, X, Instagram and Tik Tok and examining representation, commodification and sexuality on these platforms. The contributors hold a mirror to society and reflect on the issues in our current world of empowerment where sexuality and gender preferences are respected and sexual rights are protected by constitutions in progressive democracies. Through their research, Shepherd Mpofu, Kealeboga Aiseng and the contributors strive to alter the male gaze, commercial benefits of commodification and African culture as benefited and influenced by patriarchal societies.

House of Truth & Bloke and His American Bantu Siphiwo Mahala, 2025-02 Siphiwo Mahala delves into the lives of iconic figures from South Africa's tumultuous past in this remarkable collection of plays. The collection opens with The House of Truth which explores the complexity of Can Themba, a fearless journalist, playwright and poet living under an oppressive apartheid regime. The one-man play weaves together elements of Themba's life and career, recreating the excitement and pathos of the DRUM era, South Africa's first magazine for a black audience and his resident neighborhood, Sophiatown in Johannesburg, before it was destroyed by apartheid legislation. Themba is brought back to life as an ordinary person with human flaws and attributes, both tragic and inspirational. In the second play, Bloke and His American Bantu, Mahala brings to life the extraordinary lives of

Bloke Modisane a South African writer exiled in London and Langston Hughes the renowned American poet This two hander play celebrates their remarkable camaraderie and intellectual exchange Through a reimagined correspondence the play deftly explores how a simple friendship blossomed into a catalyst for international solidarity and cultural exchange across continents from Africa to the UK to America As a whole the plays explore the intersections of identity creativity and resistance With wit poise and unflinching honesty they bring to life the triumphs and struggles of these remarkable men who left an indelible mark on their worlds and celebrate the human spirit s capacity to persevere inspire and uplift Southern Africa in World Politics Janice Love,2018-03-09 These days politics often seem to be local and global simultaneously challenging people politicians and scholars to sort out what is domestic from what is international and how the two are related Janice Love demonstrates the complex realities of how local and global politics are intimately interwoven sometimes inextricably so specifically in southern Africa In southern Africa like many other regions such linkages have existed for decades if not centuries Yet the current era is different from previous times when human communities found themselves closely intertwined Love examines military political and economic changes in recent decades Students of international relations comparative politics and African studies will find the region s experience instructive in understanding larger trends in the world Students particularly interested in Africa will gain insight not only about this region but also its significance for the whole continent Deliberately crosses the boundaries of domestic politics and foreign policy as well as comparative politics and international relations By taking a globalization approach connecting the local regional and global the book offers fresh insights into the dynamics of war and peace wealth and poverty as well as local to global governance in southern Africa Examines globalization in three arenas or domains military political and economic not only distinguishing them from each other but also probing what has changed and what has remained the same across time Examining Global Regulations During the Rise of Fintech Justin, Mercia Selva Malar,Jalagat, Revenio,Chandar, Kumar,Aquino, Perfecto,Sayari, Karima,2024-09-25 The fintech industry s rapid growth is revolutionizing the global financial sector by providing unparalleled convenience and innovation However this disruptive force also brings challenges particularly in regulation With fintech evolving at breakneck speed traditional regulatory frameworks struggle to keep pace leading to potential risks and uncertainties for economies and financial systems worldwide Without adequate and adaptable regulations the benefits of fintech could be overshadowed by its disruptive potential impacting financial stability and consumer trust Examining Global Regulations During the Rise of Fintech offers a comprehensive analysis of Fintech regulations across nations providing insights into the diverse approaches and their impacts By examining the experiences of different countries the book helps policymakers industry professionals and academics understand what works and what doesn t in fintech regulation It offers frameworks and recommendations to promote innovation while ensuring financial stability It is an essential guide in the rapidly evolving fintech ecosystem The Routledge Handbook of African Law Muna

Ndulo, Cosmas Emeziem, 2021-11-23 The Routledge Handbook of African Law provides a comprehensive critical overview of the contemporary legal terrain in Africa. The international team of expert contributors adopt an analytical and comparative approach so that readers can see the nexus between different jurisdictions and different legal traditions across the continent. The volume is divided into five parts covering Legal Pluralism and African Legal Systems, The State Institutions, Constitutionalism and Democratic Governance, Economic Development, Technology, Trade and Investment, Human Rights, Gender Based Violence and Access to Justice, International Law, Institutions and International Criminal Law. Providing important insights into both the specific contexts of African legal systems and the ways in which these legal traditions intersect with the wider world, this handbook will be an essential resource for academics, researchers, lawyers and graduate and undergraduate students studying this ever-evolving field.

Data Journalism and the COVID-19 Disruption Jingrong Tong, 2024-07-30 Data Journalism and the COVID-19 Disruption offers an international multidisciplinary account of how and to what extent the COVID-19 pandemic has been a blessing for data journalism. Bringing together insights into current developments in data journalism during and since the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic from world-leading data journalism practitioners and academics, this book draws on case studies and examples from different countries to critically reflect on emerging data journalism practices during the pandemic and their sustainability and implications for journalism and newsroom work in the post-pandemic era. The chapters document changes in the practice and integration of data journalism into newsrooms and the 24/7 news cycle after the unexpected onset of the pandemic and explore how newsrooms and journalists are coping with the sudden and immense demand for data journalism and related challenges. This book also scrutinises the implications for understanding the roles played by newsroom structure and operation, the uncertain nature of data and the relationship between journalism and other social entities such as audiences and the state in journalism's development through times of crisis. Offering a timely contribution to the discussions on how data journalism evolved during a time of crisis, this volume will appeal to scholars and students of data journalism, journalism practice, media and communication studies and media industry studies.

An Anthology of African Cultural Studies, Volume I Keyan G. Tomaselli, Handel Kashope Wright, 2024-10-04 This volume provides an overview of fundamental or grounding themes in African Cultural Studies, including the articulation of African cultural studies, the issue of Africa's diaspora, Africa's identity and identifications and media studies in Africa and its relationship with cultural studies. The first of two volumes, the book predominantly pulls together a rich reservoir of previously published articles from Critical Arts, South North Cultural and Media Studies, mapping a long history of the field that draws from a diverse range of origins and locations, especially from within Africa itself. The first section of the book addresses how African cultural studies has been called for and explained both as a comprehensive continental and sometimes national discourse and as being in conversation with established global cultural studies. The second section addresses the African diaspora and what might be termed diasporic African cultural studies A third principal theme explored is how African identities and identifications are articulated in African cultural studies On spatiality the volume takes a stance on the exclusive continental versus continuity conception of Africa the African diaspora is treated as contributory and its relationship to the continent as problematic while taking up continental Africa as the principal location of African cultural studies In terms of identity Blackness is taken up as the dominant but importantly not exclusive racial identity and identification of African cultural studies and gender and social class are also addressed in novel ways The book ends with an examination of the complex relationship between media studies and cultural studies This book will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of African cultural studies media and cultural studies African studies history politics sociology and social and cultural anthropology while also being of interest to those seeking an introduction to the sub field of African cultural studies Insight Guides South Africa Insight
