Governing Cities In A Global Era Urban Innovation Competition And Democratic Reform:

Governing Cities in a Global Era R. Hambleton, 2007-11-26 This book is about the role that ideas institutions and actors play in structuring how we govern cities and more specifically what projects or paths are taken Global changes require that we rethink governance and urban policy and that we do so through the dual lens of theory and practice Theoretical Foundations and Discussions on the Reformation Process in Local Governments Sadioglu, Ugur, Dede, Kadir, 2016-06-01 Local government can be defined as a public entity acting as the sub unit of a state or of a region charged with the task of enforcing public policies There have been many reforms of local government in recent years from the grassroots led movement that took root in the 90 s to the overarching effects of globalization and decentralization Local governments must adapt their practices in order to most effectively provide for their constituents Theoretical Foundations and Discussions on the Reformation Process in Local Governments addresses the effects of recent reforms in the political administrative system of local governments and politics as well as future outlooks It reviews the challenges innovations and lessons from local governments while providing theoretical perspectives on methods for positive reform This book is a critical reference source for policy makers government organizations professionals and actors in both local and international politics Making Sense of the Multilevel Governance of Migration Tiziana Caponio, 2021-11-22 This book examines the nexus between City Networks multilevel governance and migration policy Examining several City Networks operating in the European Union and the United States of America s multilevel political settings it brings migration research into conversation with both policy studies and political science One of the first comparative studies of City Networks and migration the book argues that multilevel governance is the result of a contingent process of converging interests and views between leaders in network organisations and national governments the latter continuing to play a key gatekeeping role on this topical issue even in the supranational EU system Schools and Urban Revitalization Kelly L. Patterson, Robert Mark Silverman, 2013-10-08 New research in community development shows that institutions matter Where the private sector disinvests from the inner city public and nonprofit institutions step in and provide engines to economic revitalization and promote greater equity in society Schools and Urban Revitalization collects emerging research in this field with special interest in new school neighborhood partnerships that lead today s most vibrant policy responses to urban blight International Encyclopedia of Political Science Bertrand Badie, Dirk Berg-Schlosser, Leonardo Morlino, 2011-09-07 With entries from leading international scholars from around the world this eight volume encyclopedia offers the widest possible coverage of key areas both regionally and globally The International Encyclopedia of Political Science provides a definitive comprehensive picture of all aspects of political life recognizing the theoretical and cultural pluralism of our approaches and including findings from the far corners of the world The eight volumes cover every field of politics from political theory and methodology to political sociology comparative politics public policies and international relations Entries are arranged in alphabetical order and a list of entries by subject area appears in the front of each volume for ease of use The encyclopedia contains a detailed index as well as extensive bibliographical references Filling the need for an exhaustive overview of the empirical findings and reflections on politics this reference resource is suited for undergraduate or graduate students who wish to be informed effectively and quickly on their field of study for scholars seeking information on relevant research findings in their area of specialization or in related fields and for lay readers who may lack a formal background in political science but have an interest in the field nonetheless The International Encyclopedia of Political Science provides an essential authoritative guide to the state of political science at the start of the 21st century and for decades to come making it an invaluable resource for a global readership including researchers students citizens and policy makers The encyclopedia was developed in partnership with the International Political Science Association Key Themes Case and Area Studies Comparative Politics Theory and Methods Democracy and Democratization Economics Epistemological Foundations Equality and Inequality Gender and Race Ethnicity International Relations Local Government Peace War and Conflict Resolution People and Organizations Political Economy Political Parties Political Sociology Public Policy and Administration Qualitative Methods Quantitative Methods Religion

Peri-urban Water and Sanitation Services Mathew Kurian, Patricia McCarney, 2010-08-17 More than 2.6 billion people in the developing world lack access to safe water and sanitation service The Millennium Development Goal's MDG target is to halve the number of people without access to a sustainable source of water supply and connection to a sewer network by 2015 That target is unlikely to be met If there is anything that can be learnt from European experience it is that institutional reform occurs incrementally when politically enfranchised urban populations perceive a threat to their material well being due to contamination of water sources Toronto the Good? Shana Almeida, 2022-11-01 Armed with the motto Diversity Our Strength the City of Toronto has garnered a world class reputation for challenging racism largely because of how it is seen to value and include racialized groups through its diversity policies and practices Toronto the Good unsettles popular depictions of both diversity and the City of Toronto by attending to what diversity does in and for the City in the context of historical relations of race Toronto the Good brings together Shana Almeida's critical insights as a former political staff member along with her years of in depth research on diversity in the City of Toronto to offer a compelling case to rethink how we understand diversity and racial inclusion in the City of Toronto and beyond Initiated in a local context Toronto the Good critically contributes to global discussions on diversity race democracy political participation and power Urban Grassroots Movements in Central and Eastern Europe Kerstin Jacobsson, 2016-03-09 What can we learn about collective action across Central and Eastern Europe by focusing on activism within urban spaces This volume argues that the recent resurgence of urban grassroots mobilisation represents a new phase in the development of post socialist civil societies and that these civil societies have significantly more vitality than is commonly perceived The case studies here reflect the diversity and complexity of post socialist urban movements capturing also the extent to which the laboratory of urban politics is richly illustrative of the complex nexus of state society market relations within post socialism The grassroots campaigns and actions reflect the new social cleavages and increased polarisation as a consequence of neoliberal urbanisation and global integration as well as the transformation of state power and authority in the region Studying urban activism in Central and Eastern Europe is instructive for urban movements scholars generally as it forces us to acknowledge the variety of forms that contention can take and the usefulness of embedding the study of urban movements within a larger understanding of civil society

The Routledge Handbook of the Governance of Migration and Diversity in Cities Tiziana Caponio, Peter Scholten, Ricard Zapata-Barrero, 2018-09-03 How have immigration and diversity shaped urban life and local governance The Routledge Handbook to the Governance of Migration and Diversity in Cities focuses on the ways migration and diversity have transformed cities and how cities have responded to the challenges and opportunities offered Strengthening the relevance of the city as a crucial category for the study of migration policy and migration flows the book is divided into five parts Migration history and urban life Local politics and political participation Local policies of migration and diversity Superdiverse cities Divided cities and border cities Grounded in the European debate on the local turn in the study of migration policy as contrasted to the more traditional focus on the nation state the handbook also brings together contributions from North America South America Asia and the Middle East and contributors from a wide range of disciplines It is a valuable resource for students and scholars working in political science policy studies history sociology urban studies and geography

Politics of Representative Bureaucracy B. Justice, Crime, and Citizenship in Eurasia Erica Marat, Lauren A. McCarthy, 2022-08-18 What role does law play in post communist societies This book examines the law as a social institution in Eurasia exploring how it is shaped in everyday interactions between state and society organisations and individuals and between law enforcement and other government entities It bridges the gap between theoretically rich work on law in action and the empirical reality of Eurasia The contributions in this volume include research on policing the legal profession public attitudes towards law regime support and oppositional mobilisation crime policy and property rights among others The studies shift away from the common perception that in Eurasia the law exists only as a tool for the state to enforce order and suppress dissent Instead they show through empirical analyses that citizens evade use reinterpret and shape the law even in authoritarian contexts sometimes containing state violence and challenging the regime and other times reinforcing state capture from below The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Europe Asia Studies

Australia's Metropolitan Imperative Richard Tomlinson, Marcus Spiller, 2018-07-01 Since the early 1990s there has been a global trend towards governmental devolution However in Australia alongside deregulation public private partnerships and privatisation there has been increasing centralisation rather than decentralisation of urban governance Australian state governments are responsible for the planning management and much of the funding of the cities but the Commonwealth government has on occasion asserted much the same role Disjointed policy and funding priorities between levels of government have compromised metropolitan economies fairness and the environment Australia's Metropolitan Imperative An Agenda for Governance Reform makes the case that metropolitan governments would promote the economic competitiveness of Australia's cities and enable more effective and democratic planning and management The contributors explore the global metropolitan renaissance document the history of metropolitan debate in Australia and demonstrate metropolitan governance failures They then discuss the merits of establishing metropolitan governments including economic fiscal transport land use housing and environmental benefits The book will be a useful resource for those engaged in strategic transport and land use planning and a core reference for students and academics of urban governance and government

Neoliberal Urban Policy and the Transformation of the City A. MacLaren, S. Kelly, Andrew MacLaren, 2014-08-12 This book reviews the character and impacts of actually existing neoliberalism in Ireland It examines the property development boom and its legacy the impacts of neoliberal urban policy in reshaping the city public resistance to the new urban policy and highlights salient points to be drawn from the Irish experience of neoliberalism

Cities and Communities Beyond COVID-19 Hambleton, Robin, 2020-10-16 The COVID 19 virus outbreak has rocked the world and it is widely accepted that there can be no return to the pre pandemic society of 2019 However many suggestions for the future of society and the planet are aimed at national governments international bodies and society in general Drawing on a decade of research by an internationally renowned expert this book focuses on how

cities and communities can lead the way in developing recovery strategies that promote social economic and environmental justice It offers new thinking tools for civic leaders and activists as well as practical suggestions on how we can co create a more inclusive post COVID 19 future for us all Rebuilding Sustainable Communities after Disasters in China, Japan and Beyond Adenrele Awotona,2014-06-02 This volume examines lessons learned in reducing the impact of disasters on communities in China Japan and other countries world wide Asia is the most disaster prone continent The 2012 data on natural disasters in 28 Asian countries released by the United Nations Office for Disaster Risk Reduction and the Belgian based Centre for Research on the Epidemiology of Disasters on December 11th 2012 showed that from 1950 to 2011 nine out of ten people affected by disasters globally were in Asia that of the top five disasters that created the most damage in 2012 three were in China that China led the list of most disasters in 2012 and that China was the only multi hazard prone country Similarly the March 2011 Tohoku earthquake was the greatest known earthquake ever to have hit Japan and one of the five strongest ever recorded earthquakes in the world since 1900 Subsequently the Center for Rebuilding Sustainable Communities after Disasters at the University of Massachusetts Boston organized a conference in November 2012 to survey the best practices in post disaster rebuilding efforts in China and Japan This edited book consists of selected papers from the proceedings of that event and previously invited contributions from leading scholars in post disaster rebuilding in China Japan and Namibia Planning Metropolitan Australia Stephen Hamnett,Robert Freestone,2017-10-24 Australia has long been a highly sub urbanized nation but the major distinctive feature of its contemporary settlement pattern is that the great majority of Australians live in a small number of large metropolitan areas focused on the state capital cities The development and application of effective urban policy at a regional scale is a significant global challenge given the complexities of urban space and governance Building on the editors previous collection The Australian Metropolis A Planning History 2000 this new book examines the recent history of metropolitan planning in Australia since the beginning of the twenty first century After a historical prelude the book is structured around a series of six case studies of metropolitan Melbourne Sydney Adelaide Perth the fast growing metropolitan region of South East Queensland centred on Brisbane and the national capital of Canberra These essays are contributed by some of Australia s leading urbanists Set against a dynamic background of economic change restructured land uses a more diverse population and growing spatial and social inequality the book identifies a broad planning consensus around the notion of making Australian cities more contained compact and resilient But it also observes a continuing gulf between the simplified aims of metropolitan strategies and our growing understanding of the complex functioning of the varied communities in which most people live This book reflects on the raft of planning challenges presented at the metropolitan scale looks at what the future of Australian cities might be and speculates about the prospects of more effective metropolitan planning arrangements Place-Based Evaluation for Integrated Land-Use Management Johan Woltjer,Ernest Alexander,Matthias Ruth,2016-03-03 In recent years there has been an increasing emphasis placed on local and regional integration in major planning projects and infrastructure development including roads rail and waterways This emphasis is not only on integrating various projects but also integrating them with related issues such as housing industry environment and water In other words land use planning and infrastructure management have become more spatially oriented This book brings together experts in the fields of spatial planning land use and infrastructure management to explore the emerging agenda of spatially oriented integrated evaluation It weaves together the latest theories case studies methods policy and practice to examine and assess the values impacts benefits and the overall success in integrated land use management In doing so the book clarifies the nature and roles of evaluation and puts forward guidance for future policy and practice
