A House Divided Anne M. Wagner,2012-02-14 In this much needed and courageous book Anne Wagner lays down a gauntlet to all those interested in modern and contemporary art to think anew about these works by canonic artists and about the relationship of art to recent history and politics Wagner presents an exhilarating and innovative set of closely worked historical arguments that are remarkably timely and her lucid prose makes complex ideas and critical debates accessible to a broad audience Briony Fer Professor of History of Art UCL In A House Divided Anne Wagner takes on the so called post war era in American art and asks searching questions about what that term might mean now amid cultural division and perpetual war Far more than a sum of its parts this collection of essays is essential reading on American artists post war responses to nationalism state violence and the 1960s Mignon Nixon author of Fantastic Reality Louise Bourgeois and a Story of Modern Art      Believing in Opera Tom Sutcliffe, 2014-07-14 The staging of opera has become immensely controversial over the last twenty years Tom Sutcliffe here offers an engaging and far reaching book about opera performance and interpretation This work is a unique tribute to the most distinctive and adventurous achievements in the theatrical interpretation of opera as it has developed in recent decades Readers will find descriptions of the most original and successful avant garde opera productions in Britain Europe and America Sutcliffe beautifully illustrates how updating transposition or relocation and a variety of unexpected imagery in opera have qualified and adjusted our perception of the content and intention of established masterpieces Believing in Opera describes in detail the seminal opera productions of the last fifty years starting with Peter Brook in London after the war and continuing with the work of such directors and producers as Patrice Ch reau in Bayreuth Peter Sellars and David Alden in America Ruth Berghaus in Frankfurt and such British directors as Richard Jones Graham Vick Peter Hall and David Pountney Through his descriptions of these works Sutcliffe states that theatrical opera has been enormously influenced by the editing style imagery and metaphor commonplace in the cinema and pop videos The evolution of the performing arts depends upon revitalization and defamiliarization he asserts The issue is no longer naturalism but the liberation of the audience s imagination powered by the music Sutcliffe an opera critic for many years argues that opera is theater plus music of the highest expressive quality and as a result he has often sided with unconventional and novel theatrical interpretations He believes that there is more to opera than meets the ear and his aim is to further the process of understanding and interpretation of these important opera productions No other book has attempted this kind of monumental survey Originally published in 1997 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905      Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists , 1970-12 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world      Impact Ali Rahim, Hina Jamelle, 2020-10-06 This issue of AD explores the working discipline of architecture as it impacts the material culture within which it is always embedded An architecture of impact uses advanced digital techniques in such a way that its material assembly supersedes its use of the digital Until now this type of architecture has been formally and materially bound by restrictive conventional methodologies which the digital project has moved from the scale of installations to three dimensional building sized fabrications Unless architects turn to a new culture of making architecture shaped by even innovative digital technology will become irrelevant Architectural projects that are more subversive in how they are created and that lose their digital signature have greater potential to be at the forefront of the discipline's new materialisations. This issue illustrates these ideas and their architectural impact. Jim Dine has produced more than three thousand paintings, sculptures, drawings, and prints, as well as performance works, stage and book designs, poetry, and even music. His art has been the subject of numerous individual and group shows and is in the permanent collections of museums around the world. This illustrated volume, full of fresh insights and incorporating short essays by Dine himself, is the most comprehensive study ever published on his work. Survey of Historic Costume Phyllis G. Tortora, Keith Eubank, 2009-06-08. In the Preface of the 5th Edition of Survey of Historic Costume, Tortora and Eubank conclude with the following: "In the history of dress at the beginning of the 21st century, costume might be compared to a constantly moving river. This river divides into many narrower channels that separate, cross, come together, and separate again, and yet that river continually moves on." Building on the previous editions, the authors update their analysis of Western dress to 2008. Survey of Historic Costume has, from its beginnings, taken seriously the need to accompany the text with appropriate illustrations, and the major change in the 5th Edition is the move to full color throughout the book to enrich the text and the concepts. Perfect for anyone interested in historic costume, fashion, textiles, drama, and design, this beautifully illustrated book is full of interesting facts and commentary. New to this Edition: Over 500 four-color photographs and illustrations. Updated text to 2008. Additional influences from one period or civilization to another, including influences from other cultures. Index updated and organized to be utilized as a glossary, with terms defined and page numbers printed in boldface. Instructor's Guide provides sources for visuals, websites, teaching strategies, and evaluation techniques. PowerPoint Presentation contains interactive visual presentation with links to Internet. Old Ideas, New Practices: When Religion Is for Relationships Bernard Lawrence Potvin, 2021-03-15. This book is an upstream solution to the problems, issues, and questions young people struggle with: downstream alienation, boredom, and mistrust of religion. It includes over a hundred teaching strategies, tactics, logistics, and relationship builders that teachers in homes, schools, and churches can use. This book is a treasure chest of old ideas cast into new and proven teaching practices, each to be mined for the gem in it. Potvin's interest in writing this book, however, is not to focus on what is broken and ineffective in Christian religious education, and a lot of education is broken and ineffective, but on what he has learned to be proven to be effective. He has drawn from his PhD studies, parenting with its perturbations and insights, and over forty years of teaching in universities, public and faith-based schools. Jesus gave us our program of studies with much to think about and practice: what could work to bring us to our true self, friendship with the Creator, love for others, and justice for all. And given the unprecedented trend towards home education, and online teaching designed for and led by parents new practices based on old ideas may be just what the doctor ordered
