tradition of one of the first street women's masking and marching groups in the United States. They joyfully and unabashedly defy gender roles, claiming public space and proclaiming through their performance their right to social citizenship. Essayists draw on interviews, theoretical perspectives, archival material, and historical assessments to describe women's cultural performances that take place on the streets of New Orleans. They recount the history and contemporary resurgence of the Baby Dolls while delving into the larger cultural meaning of the phenomenon. Over 140 color photographs and personal narratives of immersive experiences provide passionate testimony of the impact of the Baby Dolls on their audiences. Fifteen artists offer statements regarding their work, documenting and inspired by the tradition as it stimulates their imagination to present a practice that revitalizes the spirit.

The 21 Divisions Hector Salva, 2025-09-12 One of the first books to explore the unique tradition of Dominican shamanism, the magical practices called the 21 Divisions. Like all forms of Caribbean Voodoo, practitioners of the 21 Divisions believe in one God, a distant God that doesn't get involved in human affairs. Followers of this Dominican spiritual tradition believe that God created intermediaries to help humans, beings known as Los Misterios. The Misterios are powerful beings with rulership and dominion over universal forces and human conditions. Practitioners of the 21 Divisions have ways of connecting with the Misterios to achieve success in life, improve their careers, resolve love and relationship issues, heal illness, and much more. Filled with detailed insider information and real stories of healing, magic, and mystery, this book will serve as an illuminating guide to the 21 Divisions. Hector Salva, one of the foremost authorities on the practice of the 21 Divisions, offers his insights into the history and foundations of Dominican Voodoo. The major Misterios or spirits of the 21 Divisions. Ceremonies, rituals, and magical spells. How to get started on the path of the 21 Divisions.

Searching for Sycorax Kinitra D. Brooks, 2018 Searching for Sycorax highlights the unique position of Black women in horror as both characters and creators. Kinitra D. Brooks creates a racially gendered critical analysis of African diasporic women challenging the horror genre's historic themes and interrogating forms of literature that have often been ignored by Black feminist theory. Brooks examines the works of women across the African diaspora from Haiti, Trinidad, and Jamaica to England and the United States, looking at new and canonized horror texts by Nalo Hopkinson, NK Jemisin, Gloria Naylor, and Chesya Burke. These Black women fiction writers take advantage of horror's ability to highlight U.S. white dominant cultural anxieties by using African folklore to revise horror's semiotics within their own imaginary. Ultimately, Brooks compares the legacy of Shakespeare's Sycorax of The Tempest to Black women writers themselves, who, deprived of mainstream access to self-articulation, nevertheless influence the trajectory of horror criticism by forcing the genre to de-centralize whiteness and maleness.

Good and Evil

Perspectives to Know D. G. Reagle,2025-04-11 In writing this book I set out with two main goals to create an accessible resource for anyone curious about life's big questions and to satisfy my own quest for answers While I often find the answers I seek they frequently lead to more questions especially on the nature of good and evil This concept has long intrigued me and for many it's a central question about God Over the past forty years I've explored these questions across the globe and contemplating the universe's mysteries While my conclusions may not resonate with everyone I hope to guide readers in finding answers that bring them peace Understanding good and evil can be deeply personal and I believe there s no single right answer what matters is discovering a perspective that aligns with your beliefs Various perspectives on good and evil emerge from religion philosophy and influential thinkers each offering unique insights Some overlap while others diverge significantly I invite you to consider questions like What defines good and evil for you Are they universal or culturally specific Is there a moral foundation and if so whose morals are they These reflections can encourage deeper exploration and build empathy
