perspective on the times and the events depicted Included are such pictures as Casablanca The Battle of Midway Der Fuhrer s Face and Letters from Iwo Jima Alastair Sim Mark Simpson, 2011-10-24 Alastair Sim was an enigmatic character both on and off the screen His idiosyncratic style of acting in films such as The Belles of St Trinian s endeared him to a cinema going audience desperate to escape the day to day dreariness of an invasive bureaucratic post war Britain In private he was a curiously contradictory character prejudiced and yet tolerant thoughtful but sometimes inconsiderate To examine the life of this extraordinary man this biography contains original contributions from around thirty actors and actresses including Sir Ian McKellen and Ronnie Corbett It is supported by extensive research including interviews with the playwright Christopher Fry the television producer John Howard Davies and actors who appeared on stage with Alastair as far back as the 1940s This book also explores Alastair s life outside of films including his marriage to Naomi Sim whom he first met when she was twelve his career as an elocution teacher his extensive work on stage including his theatrical endeavours with James Bridie his championship of youth and his stalwart refusal to sign autographs Alastair Sim offers a rare and fascinating insight into the life of one of Britain s most respected and best loved actors Simulacrum America Elisabeth Kraus, Carolin Auer, 2000 A collection of articles that analyses the role of the media in America from a deconstructionist viewpoint This collection of original essays is a response to the paradigm shift that has taken place in cultural studies in the wake of postmodernism and poststructuralism Such concepts as truth or reality have been increasingly called into question since the realization that our experience of the real is always mediated through an empire of signs as Roland Barthes put it After a predominantly optimistic evaluation of the effects of the media in the 1960s by Marshall McLuhan Hans Magnus Enzensberger and others a growing awareness of the total manipulation of society by mass media imagery has emerged The very concept of representation has become problematic witness the influential essay The Precession of Simulacra by the French sociologist Jean Baudrillard in which he defines simulation as the generation by models of a real without origin or reality a hyperreal the current boom in realityTV comes to mind In the seventeen years since the publication of Baudrillard s Simulacra and Simulation ever more sophisticated technologies based on the computer as the simulacrum machine par excellence have offered us powerful new means of manipulating data and consequently means of manipulating editing and inventing reality The aim of this study is to unmask false representations showing history personal and cultural identity especially gender and racial identities the simulacrum of speed and American reality itself to be constructs
