Dana, Robert G. Malgady, 2020-08-26 Ethnic minority children now comprise over 75 percent of students in 100 of the largest cities in the United States. However, these students have not been given equal access to nor benefited from the contemporary mental health system as have their non-minority peers. TEMAS Tell Me A Story Assessment in Multicultural Societies examines the health mental care system in which professional service providers including psychologists labor to offer quality care for youth in the United States. The authors ardently support the use of the TEMAS assessment instrument as a useful tool for diagnosis of all youngsters, particularly its use on the growing population of minority children and adolescents. Part I presents a rationale and context for employing TEMAS. Introductory chapters describe the mental health status of the population at risk as well as systems of care for youth where assessment and intervention are components. Topics to follow highlight a history of positive TEMAS test reviews with the detail required by instructors for preparing dedicated TEMAS courses. The volume thoroughly outlines cross-cultural studies and illustrates case examples of European American, Hispanic/Latino, Asian American, and forensic studies. TEMAS Tell Me A Story Assessment in Multicultural Societies brings practical insight to instructors who teach standard assessment courses, clinicians, counselors, and school psychologists, assessment specialists, and administrators concerned with mental health services designed for children and adolescents.

Culturally Diverse Counseling Elsie Jones-Smith, 2018-10-09. Culturally Diverse Counseling: Theory and Practice by Elsie Jones Smith adopts a unique strengths based approach in teaching students to focus on the positive attributes of individual clients and incorporate those strengths along with other essential cultural considerations into their diagnosis and treatment. With an emphasis on strengths as recommended in the 2017 multicultural guidelines set forth by the American Psychological Association (APA), this comprehensive text includes considerations for clinical practice with twelve groups including older adults, immigrants and refugees, clients with disabilities, and multiracial clients. Each chapter includes practical guidelines for counselors including opportunities for students to identify and curb their own implicit and explicit biases. A final chapter on social class, social justice, intersectionality, and privilege reminds readers of the various factors they must consider when working with clients of all backgrounds.

Health Care in Transition Mary N. Smyth, 2002. Health care is clearly in transition, but to where? Managed or unmanaged care? HMOs or not? Are insurance companies and hospitals the enemy of health care for their own patients? What about the 40,000,000 uninsured in America? Don't ask the patients for they have become the ping pong balls in the health care game. This book examines
