Hippie Modernism The Struggle For Utopia:

Hippie Modernism Greg Castillo, Esther Choi, 2015 Hippie Modernism The Struggle for Utopia accompanies an exhibition of the same title examining the art architecture and design of the counterculture of the 1960s and early 1970s The catalogue surveys the radical experiments that challenged societal and professional norms while proposing new kinds of technological ecological and political utopia It includes the counter design proposals of Victor Papanek and the anti design polemics of Global Tools the radical architectural visions of Archigram Superstudio Haus Rucker Co and ONYX the media based installations of Ken Isaacs Joan Hills and Mark Boyle and Helio Oiticica and Neville D Almeida the experimental films of Jordan Belson Bruce Conner and John Whitney posters and prints by Emory Douglas Corita Kent and Victor Moscoso documentation of performances staged by the Diggers and the Cockettes publications such as Oz Magazine and The Whole Earth Catalog and books by Marshall McLuhan and Buckminster Fuller and much much more While the turbulent social history of the 1960s is well known its cultural production remains comparatively under examined In this substantial volume scholars explore a range of practices such as radical architectural and anti design movements emerging in Europe and North America the print revolution in the experimental graphic design of books posters and magazines and new forms of cultural practice that merged street theater and radical politics Through a profusion of illustrations interviews with figures including Gerd Stern and Michael Callahan of USCO Gunther Zamp Kelp of Haus Rucker Co Ken Isaacs Ron Williams and Woody Rainey of ONYX Franco Raggi of Global Tools Tony Martin Clark Richert and Richard Kallweit of Drop City and new scholarly writings this book explores the hybrid conjunction of the countercultural ethos and the modernist desire to fuse art and life

As Seen Zoë Ryan, 2017-01-01 Exhibitions have long played a crucial role in defining disciplinary histories This fascinating volume examines the impact of eleven groundbreaking architecture and design exhibitions held between 1956 and 2006 revealing how they have shaped contemporary understanding and practice of these fields Featuring written and photographic descriptions of the shows and illuminating essays from noted curators scholars critics designers and theorists As Seen Exhibitions that Made Architecture and Design History explores the multifaceted ways in which exhibitions have reflected on contemporary dilemmas and opened up new processes and ways of working Providing a fresh perspective on some of the most important exhibitions of the 20th century from America Europe and Japan including This Is Tomorrow Expo 70 and Massive Change this book offers a new framework for thinking about how exhibitions can function as a transformative force in the field of architecture and design

Gaming Utopia Claudia Costa Pederson, 2021-04-06 In Gaming Utopia Ludic Worlds in Art Design and Media Claudia Costa Pederson analyzes modernist avant garde and contemporary video games to challenge the idea that gaming is an exclusively white heterosexual male corporatized leisure activity and reenvisions it as a catalyst for social change By looking at over fifty projects that together span a century and the world Pederson explores the capacity for sociopolitical commentary in virtual and digital realms and highlights contributions to the history of gaming by women queer and transnational artists The result is a critical tool for understanding video games as imaginative forms of living that offer alternatives to our current reality With an interdisciplinary approach Gaming Utopia emphasizes how game design creation and play can become political forms of social protest and examines the ways that games as art open doors to a more just and peaceful world Non-Standard Architectural Productions Sandra Karina Löschke, 2019-07-30 This book captures concepts and projects that reshape the discipline of architecture by prioritizing people over buildings In doing so it uncovers sophisticated approaches that go beyond standard architectural protocols to explore experience based aesthetics encounters action based research critical practices and social engagement If these are widely understood as singular or incompatible approaches the book reveals that they form a growing network of interrelations and generate levels of flexibility and dynamism that are reshaping the discipline The thirteen chapters analyze thought provoking projects branded museums restaged exhibitions home work spaces multi cultural spaces ageing apartment blocks abandoned homes and urban slums amongst them Together they enliven the stalled debate about a single architectural response to the complex challenges of the contemporary world by highlighting pluralistic perspectives on architecture that offer fresh solutions on how architecture can improve people s lives Featuring essays from an international range of authors this book makes a vital contribution to our understanding of the wider conditions under which and in relation to which contemporary architecture is produced

Imagined Utopias in the Built Environment Anna Novakov, 2017-01-06 Beginning with the early history of London s Vauxhall pleasure gardens this volume surveys visionary architecture and urban planning from the 18th century to the present The recurrence of themes of technology individual agency and communal living in the work of Le Corbusier Eileen Gray Charles and Ray Eames and Constant Nieuwenhuys testifies to the continued search for an ideal personal and public space Inspired by works of fiction such as Utopia Herland Mizora World of Women and Homo Ludens and the films Metropolis and Stalker artists and architects created fantastic plans for individual homes housing complexes and entire urban centers The resulting projects discussed here manifest the modern anxiety between the liberation of the individual and the needs of the collective The urban landscape from the 18th to the 21st centuries has been woven into the fabric of architecture as a way to improve day to day life as well as to create personal identity within an expanding public world The seven chapter topics are arranged chronologically and begin with the design of social space in Georgian era pleasure gardens and conclude with a study of contemporary Utopian groups that utilize early literary references as a focus for their societies As such the book builds upon the understanding of technology and architecture in its many forms as a shared benchmark for the expansion of individual rights and the growth of Utopian ideas in modern European and American society

Art as Information Ecology Jason A. Hoelscher, 2021-08-09 In Art as Information Ecology Jason A Hoelscher offers not only an information theory of art but an aesthetic theory of information Applying close readings of the information theories of Claude Shannon and Gilbert Simondon to 1960s American art Hoelscher proposes that art is information in its aesthetic or indeterminate mode information oriented less toward answers and resolvability than toward questions irresolvability and sustained difference These irresolvable differences Hoelscher demonstrates fuel the richness of aesthetic experience by which viewers glean new information and insight from each encounter with an artwork In this way art constitutes information that remains in formation a difference that makes a difference that keeps on differencing Considering the works of Frank Stella Robert Morris Adrian Piper the Drop City commune Eva Hesse and others Hoelscher finds that art exists within an information ecology of complex feedback between artwork and artworld that is driven by the unfolding of difference By charting how information in its aesthetic mode can exist beyond today's strictly quantifiable and monetizable forms Hoelscher reconceives our understanding of how artworks work and how information operates Nervous Systems Johanna Gosse, Timothy Stott, 2021-11-02 The contributors to Nervous Systems reassess contemporary artists and critics engagement with social political biological and other systems as a set of complex and relational parts an approach commonly known as systems thinking Demonstrating the continuing relevance of systems aesthetics within contemporary art the contributors highlight the ways that artists adopt systems thinking to address political social and ecological anxieties They cover a wide range of artists and topics from the performances of the Argentinian collective the Rosario Group and the grid drawings of Charles Gaines to the video art of Singaporean artist Charles Lim and the mapping of global logistics infrastructures by contemporary artists like Hito Steyerl and Christoph Bachel Together the essays offer an expanded understanding of systems aesthetics in ways that affirm its importance beyond technological applications detached from cultural contexts Contributors Cristina Albu Amanda Boetzkes Brianne Cohen Kris Cohen Jaimey Hamilton Faris Christine Filippone Johanna Gosse Francis Halsall Judith Rodenbeck Dawna Schuld Luke Skrebowski Timothy Stott John Tyson

Timing the Future Metropolis Peter Ekman, 2024-11-15 Timing the Future Metropolis an intellectual history of planning urbanism design and social science explores the network of postwar institutions formed amid specters of urban crisis and renewal that set out to envision the future of the American city Peter Ekman focuses on one decisive node in the network the Joint Center for Urban Studies founded in 1959 by scholars at Harvard and MIT Through its sprawling programs of organized research its manifold connections to universities foundations publishers and policymakers and its years of consultation on the planning of a new city in Venezuela Ciudad Guayana the Joint Center became preoccupied with the question of how to conceptualize the urban future as an object of knowledge Timing the Future Metropolis ultimately compels a broader reflection on temporality in urban planning rethinking how we might imagine cities yet to come and the consequences of deciding not to Climax Change! Pedro Gadanho, 2022-05-25 Climax Change represents the much needed overview of how climate change and the current environmental emergency will affect the practice of architecture both in terms of its design philosophy and rising opportunities to innovate and radically transform the current tenet of architecture's aesthetic ethical and professional drives Climax Change offers an overview of how the current environmental emergency will impact the practice of architecture At a crossroads in which the construction sector and built environment produce nearly 40% of greenhouse gases accountable for global warming architects are just starting to acknowledge their complicity in an impending disaster In need of a paradigm shift similar to that of the Modern Movement architecture desperately requires clear guidelines and targets so as to operate its inevitable transformation towards an ecologically friendly design logic From historical analyses of ecocide or the environmental avant gardes to topics such as decarbonization degrowth the Great Transition and the aspirations of Green New Deals this book features ten essays around today s climate change debates bringing them home to architectural thinking

Ecological by Design Kjetil Fallan, 2022-11-22 How ecological design emerged in Scandinavia during the 1960s and 1970s building on both Scandinavia s design culture and its environmental movement Scandinavia is famous for its design culture and for its pioneering efforts toward a sustainable future In Ecological by Design Kjetil Fallan shows how these two forces came together in the late 1960s and early 1970s when Scandinavian designers began to question the endless cycle in which designed objects are produced consumed discarded and replaced in quick succession The emergence of ecological design in Scandinavia at the height of the popular environmental movement Fallan suggests illuminates a little known reciprocity between environmentalism and design not only did design play a role in the rise of modern environmentalism but ecological thinking influenced the transformation in design culture in Scandinavia and beyond that began as the modernist faith in progress and prosperity waned Fallan describes the efforts of Scandinavian designers to forge an environmental ethics in a commercial design culture sustained by consumption shows by recounting a quest for sustainability through Norwegian wood s that one of the main characteristics of ecological design is attention to both the local and the global and explores the emergence of a respectful and sustainable paradigm for international development Case studies trace key connections to continental Europe Britain the US Central America and East Africa Today ideas of sustainability permeate design discourse but the historical emergence of ecological design remains largely undiscussed With this trailblazing book Fallan fills that gap

Beyond the Happening Catherine Spencer, 2020-06-01 Beyond the Happening uncovers the heterogeneous uniquely interdisciplinary performance based works that emerged in the aftermath of the early Happenings By the mid 1960s Happenings were widely declared outmoded or even dead but this book reveals how many practitioners continued to work with the form during the late 1960s and 1970s developing it into a vehicle for studying interpersonal communication that simultaneously deployed and questioned contemporary sociology and psychology Focussing on the artists Allan Kaprow Marta Minuj n Carolee Schneemann and Lea Lublin it charts how they revised and retooled the premises of the Happening within a wider network of dynamic international activity The resulting performances directly intervened in the wider discourse of communication studies as it manifested in the politics of countercultural dropout soft power and cultural diplomacy alternative pedagogies sociological art and feminist consciousness raising
