Hippocrates: Coan prenotions ; Anatomical and minor clinical writings Hippocrates,2010      Castration and Culture in the Middle Ages Larissa Tracy,2013 Essays exploring medieval castration as reflected in archaeology law historical record and literary motifs Castration and castrati have always been facets of western culture from myth and legend to law and theology from eunuchs guarding harems to the seventeenth and eighteenth century castrati singers Metaphoric castration pervades a number of medieval literary genres particularly the Old French fabliaux exchanges of power predicated upon the exchange or absence of sexual desire signified by genitalia but the plain literal act of castration and its implications are often overlooked This collection explores this often taboo subject and its implications for cultural mores and custom in Western Europe seeking to demystify and demythologize castration Its subjects include archaeological studies of eunuchs historical accounts of castration in trials of combat the mutilation of political rivals in medieval Wales Anglo Saxon and Frisian legal and literary examples of castration as punishment castration as comedy in the Old French fabliaux the prohibition against genital mutilation in hagiography and early modern anxieties about punitive castration enacted on the Elizabethan stage The introduction reflects on these topics in the context of arguably the most well known victim of castration in the middle ages Abelard LARISSA TRACY is Associate Professor of Medieval Literature at Longwood University Contributors Larissa Tracy Kathryn Reusch Shaun Tougher Jack Collins Rolf H Bremmer Jr Jay Paul Gates Charlene M Eska Mary A Valante Anthony Adams Mary E Leech Jed Chandler Ellen Lorraine Friedrich Robert L A Clark Karin Sellberg Lena W nggren

Breastfeeding and Mothering in Antiquity and Early Byzantium Stavroula Constantinou, Aspasia Skouroumouni-Stavrinou,2023-09-29 This volume offers the first comparative interdisciplinary and intercultural examination of the lactating woman biological mother and othermother in antiquity and early Byzantium Adopting methodologies and knowledge deriving from a variety of disciplines the volume's contributors investigate the close interrelationship between a woman and her lactating breasts as well as the social ideological theological and medical meanings and uses of motherhood childbirth and breastfeeding along with their visual and literary representations Breastfeeding and the work of mothering are explored through the study of a great variety of sources mainly works of Greek speaking cultures written and visual anonymous and eponymous which were mostly produced between the first and the seventh century AD Due to their multiple interdisciplinary dimensions ancient and early Byzantine lactating women are approached through three interconnected thematic strands having a twofold focus society and ideology medicine and practice and art and literature By developing the model of the lactating woman the volume offers a new analytical framework for understanding a significant part of the still unwritten cultural history of the period At the same time the volume significantly contributes to the emerging fields of breast and motherhood studies The new and significant knowledge generated in the fields of ancient and Byzantine studies may also prove useful for cultural historians in general and other disciplines such as literary studies art history history of medicine philosophy theology sociology anthropology and gender studies      Esophageal Function Testing, An Issue of Gastrointestinal Endoscopy Clinics, E-Book John Pandolfino, 2014-09-26 This issue devoted to Esophageal Function Testing highlights these tests that are complimentary to endoscopy and should be considered after endoscopy is performed In fact a prerequisite for performing many of these studies is a negative endoscopy and thus the endoscopist should be well informed regarding the indication and utility of these tests Additionally some of these newer technologies require endoscopy to be performed during the study as the placement or positioning of the measurement tool will require endoscopic landmarks or direct placement There have been major advances in most of these older techniques and new novel measurement paradigms have been created that allow for a more visual and accurate depiction of physiologic and anatomic data These technologies have evolved to be more akin to an imaging technique and thus the visual display and data acquisition is much more intuitive and easier to teach to trainees This review would be of the utmost importance to readers of GI Endoscopy Clinics      A New History Of Cataract Surgery Christopher T. Leffler, 2025-08-14 Cataract surgery has been the procedure which has almost defined the profession of ophthalmology for millennia Patients have understood that cataract surgery could transform their lives in an almost miraculous way Much of the history of this surgery has been handed down to us and on occasion we have inherited some myths along with the facts In this two volume monograph we sought to uncover the reality behind the myths This book is entitled A New History of Cataract Surgery because it is based on original research from primary sources It is the work of 44 co authors from North America Europe the Middle East and Asia It contains new translations from Latin Greek Sanskrit Chinese Arabic Persian French Dutch and German It contains photographs from private collections We sought to tell stories you might have heard a little about from antiquity onward in a new way Many of the chapters in this book covering the 20th century were written by ophthalmologists who lived through the revolutionary changes in their field and were prime movers in making these advances      Hippocrates: Coan prenotions ; Anatomical and minor clinical writings Hippocrates, 2010      Die Literatur der archaischen und klassischen Zeit Bernhard Zimmermann, 2011
