Raising twins on her own hasn't been easy for widowed mom Hannah Douglas. But she's determined to see her family and the picnic basket auction she's organizing for the town's centennial celebration succeed. Still, there are times she wishes for someone to lean on. To her surprise, Brody Harcourt's strong shoulders are at the ready. Seems like Jasper Gulch's favorite firefighter and rancher is always there when she needs him. But Hannah's not sure she's willing to take another chance on love, especially with someone whose job puts him in harm's way. Is the risk of loving Brody worth the reward to make her family complete? Praise for Her Montana Twins. The characters are well developed, especially when it comes to facing reality and dealing with the hand we are dealt. RT Book Reviews
