Hopkin, 2003 Concentrating on the militarised borderlands of eastern France this book examines the disjuncture between the patriotic expectations of elites and the sentiments expressed in folksongs folktales and popular imagery in which issues of sexuality violence and separation took far greater prominence Hopkin follows the soldier through his life cycle from greenhorn recruit to grizzled veteran to show how the peasant conscript was separated from his previous life and re educated in military mores and the response that this transformation elicited from his family and community BOOK JACKET
