Revista Kimelchén Abril 2008 Corporación Cultural Municipal Valdivia, The Gift of Logos David Jones, Michael Schwartz, Jason M. Wirth, 2009-12-14 The Continental tradition has always placed great emphasis on the Logos The Gift of Logos Essays in Continental Philosophy celebrates and situates this emphasis in the genre of the gift and its giving The process of receiving or giving of the gift overcomes the existential alienation and separation that is so present in the human condition To ritualize giving and its gifting is to provide a syntax of solidarity that bespeaks our desire for cohesion and need for identities beyond our own To give a gift is to befriend The gift of logos is more than a gift from the gods and goddesses it is an act of giving for those friends of wisdom for those philosophers who give to each other and to their worlds and receive the blessings of logos from each other The increasing objectification of human being has mobilized a regressive narcissism that shows the ego s reassertion in the light of the meaningless quantifying forces from without By not reflecting deeply enough upon its conditions of existence in the modern world and on its ordinary moments philosophy itself has not been immune from this besotted sense of self Although not an invective against thinking nor against modern and contemporary philosophy's genuine advances The Gift of Logos portends to shed the delusion that theoretical re-description is somehow the same as transforming who we are This transformation is our greatest gift to each other To give it voice is the gift of Logos and what this collection of essays commemorates

German Literature as World Literature Thomas Oliver Beebee, 2014-07-31 This new collection investigates German literature in its international dimensions While no single volume can deal comprehensively with such a vast topic the nine contributors cover a wide historical range with a variety of approaches and authors represented Together the essays begin to adumbrate the systematic nature of the relations between German national literature and world literature as these have developed through institutions cultural networks and individual authors In the last two decades discussions of world literature literature that resonates beyond its original linguistic and cultural contexts have come increasingly to the forefront of theoretical investigations of literature One reason for the explosion of world literature theory pedagogy and methodology is the difficulty of accomplishing either world literature criticism or world literary history The capaciousness as well as the polylingual and multicultural features of world literature present formidable obstacles to its study and call for a collaborative approach that conjoins a variety of expertise To that end this collection contributes to the critical study of world literature in its textual institutional and translatorial reality while at the same time highlighting a question that has hitherto received insufficient scholarly attention what is the relation between national and world literatures or more specifically in what senses
