A Cultural History of Shopping in the Modern Age Vicki Howard, 2022-06-02 A Cultural History of Shopping was a Library Journal Best in Reference selection for 2022 In the modern consumer age that emerged after the First World War shopping became a ubiquitous cultural practice Despite its apparent universality the historicity and contingency of shopping should not be ignored its meaning was always inextricably linked to the political material and economic contexts within which it took place Gendered female for the most part shopping continued to evoke different cultural responses embraced as liberatory by some condemned as frivolous by others Business decisions and public policies helped construct the frameworks within which new often American led shopping cultures emerged from downtown department stores to chain stores to suburban shopping malls The digital revolution in shopping that began in the last decade of the 20th century has changed the face of cities and towns and led to the closure of many bricks and mortar stores but as this volume explores the shopper remains very much at the center of Western capitalist societies A Cultural History of Shopping in the Modern Age presents an overview of the period with themes addressing practices and processes spaces and places shoppers and identities luxury and everyday home and family visual and literary representations reputation trust and credit and governance regulation and the state Tourism and the Millennium Development Goals Jarkko Saarinen,Christian M. Rogerson,Haretsebe Manwa,2013-10-31 In 2000 United Nations adopted the Millennium Development Goals UN MDGs committing the member nations to a new global partnership to reduce extreme poverty and setting out a series of specific targets with a deadline of 2015 Related to the UN MDGs tourism is increasingly seen as a promising tool for poverty reduction ensuring environmental sustainability and developing a global partnership for development for example Thus the industry has become an important policy tool for community and regional development in many developing countries and the expectations for tourism and its social and economic outcomes have evolved to a high level However there are still many challenges to overcome in the relationship between tourism industry development and poverty reduction This book aims to discuss the promises challenges and outcomes of tourism in development with a specific aim of drawing together research related to tourism and UN MDGs The papers discuss what lessons can be learnt and conclusions drawn from the utilisation of tourism for development and poverty reduction What emerges from this collection is a set of interesting results and notions which both support and challenge the connections between tourism and development and the new role of tourism in global development This book is an extended version of a special issue published in Current Issues in Tourism A World History of Mobility Gijs Mom,2025-08-01 As a tool of globalized mobility the car provides a useful barometer for charting the global development of socio cultural economic technical and political modernization Shaped by prevailing gender and racial norms and popularized by a Western driven car culture it is a commodity whose access and use embodies wider inequalities In this comprehensive world history of auto mobility Gijs Mom draws upon his extensive research into the field to assess the past and present of road cultures and hypothesize their future Ranging from the impact of climate change to decolonization this volume spotlights how profoundly automobilism impacts our sense of identity and imagination Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations,2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events The Management Of Cultural World Heritage Sites and Development In Africa Simon Makuvaza, 2014-03-28 Ever since the signing of the World Heritage Convention 40 years ago and ratified by 33 African countries to date only 43 cultural heritage sites have been successfully proclaimed as World Heritage Sites in Africa These include archaeological and historical sites religious monuments and cultural landscapes This book is a re evaluation of the nomination and management of cultural World Heritage sites in Africa from the late 1970s when the Island of Gor e of Senegal and the Rock Hewn Churches of Ethiopia were first inscribed on the WHL until today It considers whether a credible and well balanced WHL has been attained especially in regards to the nomination of more sites in Africa The book also examines the roles and contribution of various heritage organizations and African governments to the nomination and management of cultural World Heritage sites in Africa Lastly the volume also scrutinizes economic development which may result from the nomination and successful management of cultural World Heritage sites in Africa
