The Literature of the Rebellion (Classic Reprint) John Russell Bartlett, 2015-07-06 Excerpt from The Literature of the Rebellion In preparing this Bibliography of the Rebellion the compiler has been at a loss where to begin his labors inasmuch as events of great importance which occurred long before the outbreak had a direct bearing upon it and require notice The Raid at Harper's Ferry by John Brown the contest for Freedom in Kansas the working of the Fugitive Slave Law the Missouri Compromise and the long struggle between the Slave and Free States from the very adoption of the Federal Constitution which finally culminated in the rebellion all seem to be a preparation for this event With this view of the subject the compiler has deemed it best that his catalogue should cover the whole ground of these several events and should consequently include works relating to American Slavery The historians of the rebellion generally have taken the same view and have covered the field beginning with the adoption of the Constitution in their preliminary remarks But although it was determined to embrace works on this subject in the catalogue it is in this respect far from complete as the compiler did not commence till recently to collect works on American Slavery But notwithstanding the deficiencies in this department he believes that his catalogue contains more titles on the subject than can be found elsewhere The catalogue will be found to include titles of the following

- 1 Books and Pamphlets relating to the Rebellion and to topics connected therewith published in the United States and Europe
- 2 Congressional Reports Reports and Documents from the Departments of the War and the Navy Proceedings of Courts Martial Communications from the Executive of the United States Speeches in Congress and all other publications of the general government
- 1861 63 relating to the war
- 3 Official publications of the several States covering the period of the war 1861 to 1865 embracing Messages of Governors Reports of Adjutant and Quartermaster Generals Rosters of Volunteers Documents and Reports relative to Volunteers Bounties the Draft etc
