WILLIS, 1854      Thwing Walter Eliot Thwing, 2017-10-22 Excerpt from Thwing A Genealogical Biographical and Historical Account of the Family OF those who have never undertaken a work like this few can realize what a vast amount of research and patient labor is required properly to trace out a Family Tree or Genealogy It is not the work of a few months only but often occupies several years It is only within a few years that public records of births marriages and deaths have been properly kept even in New England and still in many parts of this country the keeping of such records is very imperfect especially in the South and West It is a matter of regret that this important branch of history has been so much neglected as a great deal of valuable material is thereby forever lost Those of our family who live in the South will understand this to be the reason why their records are so meagre for I have availed myself of every opportunity at my command to obtain all the information possible and the result is contained in the following pages A village bearing the name of Thwing lies forty miles east of the city of York about which Rev Edward Payson Thwing in his Out door Life in Europe writes as follows One little hamlet ten miles distant was my Mecca this time the town of Thwing It was sought with the zeal of an antiquary simply About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

History, Genealogical and Biographical, of the Eaton Families (Classic Reprint) Nellie Zada Rice Molyneux, 2015-07-05 Excerpt from History Genealogical and Biographical of the Eaton Families I do not suppose that I have avoided all mistakes in a work of this kind it would not be strange of there should be inaccuracies Town county and family records are the authorities which I have depended upon Tradition says that the Eatons were Britons That when Caesar first invaded Britain 55 years before Christ the Britons had no towns but dwelt in scattered huts When they went out to battle they dyed their faces in order to terrify their enemies In their religion they worshiped many Gods and most horrible were the sacrifices they practiced The Romans were a civilized people and had been so for many centuries and it was not until Caesar's Second Invasion that the Britons knew fear For it was at this time that the Chief of the tribe which had subdued many Of the neighboring tribes and whose stronghold was a stockade near the modern St Albans found his followers seeking the protection of Caesar About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that
