History Of The Middle East Core Knowledge Foundation:

The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary Middle Eastern and North African History Jens Hanssen, Amal N.

Ghazal, 2020-11-30 The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary Middle Eastern and North African History critically examines the defining processes and structures of historical developments in North Africa and the Middle East over the past two centuries. The Handbook pays particular attention to countries that have leapt out of the political shadows of dominant and better studied neighbours in the course of the unfolding uprisings in the Middle East and North Africa. These dramatic and interconnected developments have exposed the dearth of informative analysis available in surveys and textbooks particularly on Tunisia, Libya, Yemen, Bahrain and Syria.

Educational Leadership Pat Williams-Boyd, 2002-04-03 An objective discussion of educational leadership from both inside and outside the school system focusing on ethical issues, dominant models and today's unprecedented commitment to community involvement. During the last decade of the 20th century, the United States entered a new era of educational leadership. The seat of educational authority shifted from the district office to the individual school from the principal as manager to the stakeholders: students, teachers, families, community members, school boards, politicians and corporate and philanthropic foundations. In Educational Leadership, educator Pat Williams-Boyd traces these changes from their roots in the 19th century to the present day. She shows readers what leadership looks like when it is distributed throughout a community and explains how collaborative relationships can be forged. She also examines techniques for effective leadership during the hazardous process of school reform and presents a critical discussion of 20 leading school reform models.

Minorities and the State in the Arab World Ofra Bengio, Gabriel Ben-Dor, 1999 This text offers a comprehensive discussion of minorities and ethnic politics in eight Arab countries. Focusing on the strategic political chaos made by minorities, majorities and regimes in power, the authors point to probable future developments in majority-minority relations in the region.

Resources in Education, 2001-04 Taking Religion Seriously Across the Curriculum Warren A. Nord, Charles C. Haynes, 1998-08-15 The authors chart a middle course in our war over religion and public education: one that builds on a developing national consensus among educational and religious leaders. While it is not proper for schools to practice religion or proselytize, neither is it permissible to make them religion-free zones. Schools do not take religion seriously as the authors' review of textbooks and the new national content standards makes clear. In Part One, they outline the civic, constitutional and educational frameworks that should shape the treatment of religion in the curriculum and classroom. In Part Two, they explore major issues relating to religion in different domains of the curriculum in elementary education and in middle and high school courses in history, civics, economics, literature and the sciences. They also discuss Bible courses and world religions courses and explore the relationship of religion to moral education and sex education. Engaging with a Legacy: Nehemia Levtzion (1935-2003) E. Ann McDougall, 2014-06-11 Engaging with a Legacy shows how Nehemia Levtzion shaped our understanding of Islam in Africa and influenced successive scholarly generations in their approach to Islamization conversion and fundamentalism The book illuminates his work career and family life including his own life vision on the occasion of his 60th birthday It speaks to his relationship with researchers at home and abroad as mentor colleague and provocateur in one section several authors reflect on those dynamics in terms of personal and professional development Levzion s contemporaries also speak of interactions with him and his life long companion wife Tirza in the 1950s and 1960s we see in these writings the birth of West African historical studies Levzion s arrival as Israeli graduate student in Nkrumah s Egyptian leaning Ghana and the debate over what African Studies should mean in an environment that included the personal intervention of W E B Du Bois are stories told for the first time Most poignant is the account of Levzion s commitment to building African Studies complete with emphasis on Islam in the heart of the Jewish state at The Hebrew University His never ending defence of the program reflected his determination to be both engaged historian and engaged Israeli a legacy he chose for himself Finally an Epilogue to the original publication shows how one aspect this legacy Levzion s growing preoccupation with the public sphere in Muslim societies has become even more relevant in post Arab Spring Africa and the Middle East This book was published as a special issue of the Canadian Journal of African Studies     Routledge Handbook of Middle East Politics Larbi Sadiki,2020-03-31 Drawing on various perspectives and analysis the Handbook problematizes Middle East politics through an interdisciplinary prism seeking a melioristic account of the field Thematically organized the chapters address political social and historical questions by showcasing both theoretical and empirical insights all of which are represented in a style that ease readers into sophisticated induction in the Middle East It positions the didactic at the centre of inquiry Contributions by forty four scholars both veterans and newcomers rethink knowledge frames conceptual categories and fieldwork praxis Substantive themes include secularity and religion gender democracy authoritarianism and new borderline politics of the Middle East Like any field of knowledge the Middle East is constituted by texts authors and readers but also by the cultural spatial and temporal contexts within which diverse intellectual inflections help construct write speak academic meaning knowing and practice By denaturalizing notions of singularity of authorship or scholarship the Handbook plants a dialogic interplay animated by multi vocality multi modality and multi disciplinarity Targeting graduate students and young scholars of political and social sciences the Handbook is significant for understanding how the Middle East is written and re written read and re read epistemology methodology and for how it comes to exist ontology     The Writers Directory ,2013     Alternative Schools Brenda Edgerton Conley,2002-11-22 An examination of the growth and development of alternative schools in American society and their role in the public school environment In Alternative Schools A Reference Handbook educator Brenda Edgerton Conley surveys the emerging alternatives to our conventional educational system a system that is not only costly but ineffective for many children In a resource aimed at a broad audience school administrators politicians and most important parents Conley offers both a historical and a present day perspective on alternative educational programs What sets the alternative education movement apart she argues is its acknowledgment that we all learn differently That knowledge has given rise to an explosion of exciting alternatives from open schools to home schooling from charter schools to church schools These alternative schools are smaller and less bureaucratic more responsive to the community and more receptive to change America 2000, 1992 Life and Thought of Bernard Eugene Meland, American Constructive Theologian, 1899–1993 W. Creighton Peden, 2010-08-11 This book deals with Bernard Eugene Meland's life as presented in his unpublished intellectual autobiography and thought as a constructive theologian who taught in the Divinity School of The University of Chicago 1945–64 When Meland was in the process of completing his doctoral studies at the University of Chicago he came into close association with Henry Nelson Wieman who was joining the faculty Meland took the first course Wieman offered in which they read William Ernest Hocking's The Meaning of God in Human Experience Part IV and Whitehead's Religion in the Making He audited Wieman's other courses The philosophy of A. N. Whitehead played a large role in their relationship and theology With the sudden death of G. B. Smith Wieman became Meland's doctoral advisor After completing the doctoral program Meland spent the next year at Marburg University in Germany studying with Rudolf Otto He came away from this experience having discovered that the stimulus and lure in the language of the arts had become for him an alternative to the moral way of expressing value sensibility and fulfillment of human experience He returned from Europe to begin teaching at Central College in Missouri and in 1936 joined the faculty at Pomona College in Claremont California His association with Wieman continued in the 1930s as they co-authored American Philosophies of Religion 1936 While teaching at Central College Meland authored Modern Man's Worship 1934 and at Pomona College published Write Your Own Ten Commandments 1938 and The Church and Adult Education 1939 In 1945 Meland joined Wieman at the Divinity School as Professor of Constructive Theology Although Wieman soon retired their connection continued throughout Wieman's life The Second World War had concluded and Meland was in a state of anguish and despair over the war and especially by the atomic bomb In this troubled state of mind he published Seeds of Redemption 1947 America's Spiritual Culture 1948 and The Reawakening of Christian Faith 1949 His next two publications were Higher Education and the Human Spirit 1953 and Faith and Culture 1955 with the latter considered by many as his most important work While teaching at Chicago Meland twice served twice as The Barrows Lectures in India His lectures in 1957–58 were published as The Realities of Faith 1962 In 1963–64 he continued his theme of the relationship between faith and culture by focusing on the impact of secularization on modern cultures These lectures were published as The Secularization of Modern Cultures 1966 His last book was Fallible Forms and Symbols 1977 In the first section of this book Meland's thought is considered under four headings Metaphysical View Method Doctrine of God and View of Religion followed by an evaluation Section two is devoted to his Later Writings followed by a conclusion Routledge Handbook on Middle East Cities Haim Yacobi, Mansour Nasasra, 2019-07-01 Presenting the current debate about cities in the Middle East from Sana'a Beirut and

Jerusalem to Cairo Marrakesh and Gaza the book explores urban planning and policy migration gender and identity as well as politics and economics of urban settings in the region This handbook moves beyond essentialist and reductive analyses of identity urban politics planning and development in cities in the Middle East and instead offers critical engagement with both historical and contemporary urban processes in the region Approaching Cities as multi dimensional sites products of political processes knowledge production and exchange and local and global visions as well as spatial artefacts Importantly in the different case studies and theoretical approaches there is no attempt to idealise urban politics planning and everyday life in the Middle East which as with many other cities elsewhere are also situations of contestation and violence but rather to highlight how cities in the region and especially those which are understudied revolve around issues of housing infrastructure participation and identity amongst other concerns Analysing a variety of cities in the Middle East the book is a significant contribution to Middle East Studies It is an essential resource for students and academics interested in Geography Regional and Urban Studies of the Middle East

Emerging Subjectivity in the Long 19th-Century Middle East

Stephan Guth,2024-06-04 This volume revisits the long 19th century in the Middle East from the perspective of emerging subjectivity as a fundamentally new attitude of the individual vis vis the World Stephan Guth s holistic vision interprets emerging subjectivity as the key operator at the heart of the many aspects of the so called Arab ic Renaissance and corresponding movements in Turkish like rationalism critical analysis political emancipation reformism moralism and emotionalism but also a new language new genres and new concepts Guth s thoroughly philological approach demonstrates how a close reading of literary texts from the period a cultural psychological interpretation of linguistic phenomena and an etymology informed look into conceptual terminology can contribute to a deeper understanding of what modernisation actually meant deep inside the human beings mind and psyche in their meeting with a rapidly changing world Twenty essays on language literature and key concepts reflect the author s life long engagement with the culture of the period in question The articles are glued together by a guiding narrative that assigns each treated aspect its place in the author s vision which includes a global perspective

Critical Global Perspectives

Binaya Subedi,2010-03-01 The primary purpose of this book is to invite educators to re think what it means to critically conceptualize knowledge about the world In other words imagining curriculum in a critical way means decolonizing mainstream knowledge about global societies Such an approach re evaluates how we have come to know the world and asks us to consider the socio political context in which we have come to understand what constitutes an ethical global imagination A critical reading of the world calls for the need to examine alternative ways of knowing and teaching about the world a pedagogy that recognizes how diverse subjects have come to view the world A critical question this book raises is What are the radical ways of re conceptualizing curriculum knowledge about global societies so that we can become accountable to the different ways people have come to experience the world Another question the book raises is how do we engage with complexities surrounding social differences such as gender race ethnicity religion etc in the global contexts Analyzing global issues and events through the prism of social difference opens up spaces to advocate a transformative framework for a global education curriculum Transformative in the sense that such a curriculum asks students to challenge stereotypes and engages students in advocating changes within local global contexts A critical global perspective advocates the value of going beyond the nation state centered approach to teaching about topics such as history politics culture etc It calls for the need to develop curriculum that accounts for transnational formations an intervention that asks us to go beyond issues that are confined within national borders Such a practice recognizes the complicated ways the local is connected to the global and vice versa and cautions against creating a hierarchy between national and global issues It also suggests the need to critically examine the pitfalls of forming dichotomies between the local or the national and the global or the center and the periphery

Performing the Past Tamar Katriel, 2013-11-05 A nostalgic interest in the past is a well recognized feature of fast changing contemporary societies It finds its expression in a variety of history making practices of which the establishment of local heritage museums is a major manifestation in many parts of the world today Katriel develops a communication centered perspective on the study of heritage museums and by extension other tourist sites highlighting the role of discourse in these institutionalized yet vernacular contexts of cultural production social legitimation and identity formation Descriptive and critical in orientation this book combines a close analysis of museum discourse with an exploration of such larger issues as the socio cultural role of museums as arenas for the production of collective memory the ideological and performative constraints that shape museum presentations the interfacing of verbal and visual codes of communication in the context of material displays the dialectical interplay of the local and the global in contemporary life and the interpenetration of the personal and the communal in vernacular processes of narrative production Of interest to scholars in communication linguistics anthropology history museum studies tourism intercultural communication middle eastern studies or those with interests in narratives material culture and ethnography

International Encyclopedia of Civil Society Helmut K. Anheier, Stefan Toepler, 2009-11-24 Recently the topic of civil society has generated a wave of interest and a wealth of new information Until now no publication has attempted to organize and consolidate this knowledge The International Encyclopedia of Civil Society fills this gap establishing a common set of understandings and terminology and an analytical starting point for future research Global in scope and authoritative in content the Encyclopedia offers succinct summaries of core concepts and theories definitions of terms biographical entries on important figures and organizational profiles In addition it serves as a reliable and up to date guide to additional sources of information In sum the Encyclopedia provides an overview of the contours of civil society social capital philanthropy and nonprofits across cultures and historical periods For researchers in nonprofit and civil society studies political science economics management and social enterprise this is the most systematic appraisal of a rapidly growing field
