History of

Manufactures in the United States ... Victor Selden Clark,1929 A History of Georgia Forts Alejandro M. de

Quesada,2011-05-31 A look at military fortifications over the centuries with photos included The state of Georgia has a long tradition of building stalwart military fortifications going all the way back to the early sixteenth century when it was part of a much larger region of the Southeast claimed by Spain and known as La Florida After the failure of Lucas Vasquez de Ayllon s settlement in 1526 on the coast of Georgia French Huguenots established a small fort at Port Royal Sound and another along the St Johns River This book explores the centuries that followed revealing the history behind Georgia s many forts Discover who emerged victorious after Savannah s Fort Pulaski was bombarded for over thirty hours by Federal troops during the Civil War and why Fort Oglethorpe was constructed in 1902 within the confines of Chickamauga Park as military historian and archivist Alejandro de Quesada explores the breadth of Georgia s forts from the colonial and antebellum eras to the Civil War and modern times

Never for Want of Powder C. L. Bragg,2007 Lavishly illustrated with seventy four color plates and fifty black and white photographs and drawings Never for Want of Powder tells the story of a world class munitions factory constructed by the Confederacy in 1861 the only large scale permanent building project undertaken by a government often characterized as lacking modern industrial values In this comprehensive examination of the powder works five scholars a historian physicist curator architectural historian and biographer bring their combined expertise to the task of chronicling gunpowder production during the Civil War In doing so they make a major contribution to understanding the history of wartime technology and Confederate ingenuity Early in the war President Jefferson Davis realized the Confederacy s need to supply its own gunpowder Accordingly Davis selected Col George Washington Rains to build a gunpowder factory An engineer and West Point graduate Rains relied primarily on a written pamphlet rather than on practical experience in building the powder mill yet he succeeded in designing a model of efficiency and safety He sited the facilities at Augusta Georgia because of the city s central location canal transportation access to water power railroad facilities and relative security from attack As much a story of people as of machinery Never for Want of Powder recounts the ingenuity of the individuals involved with the project A cadre of talented subordinates including Frederick Wright C Shaler Smith William Pendleton and Isadore P Girardey assisted Rains to a degree not previously appreciated by historians This volume also documents the coordinated outflow of gunpowder and ammunition and Rains s difficulty in preparing for the defense of Augusta Today a lone chimney along the Savannah River stands as the only reminder of the munitions facility that once occupied that site With its detailed reproductions of architectural and mechanical schematics and its expansive vista on the Confederacy Never for Want of Powder restores the Augusta Powder Works to its rightful place in American lore
