The History of Wilbraham, Massachusetts (Classic Reprint) Chauncey E. Peck, 2015-07-08 Excerpt from The History of Wilbraham Massachusetts The fact that the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the incorporation of Wilbraham was approaching was brought to the attention of the town at the annual meeting held in 1911 by the following article in the warrant Art 17 To see if the town will take any action in regard to the celebration of its one hundred and fiftieth anniversary in 1913 Under this article the following votes were passed Voted that a committee of five be chosen to make all arrangements for the celebration with power to act and that they report at the next annual meeting the result of the progress made At a meeting of Historical Committee held soon afterwards Chauncey E Peck was chosen historian and Miss Evanore O Beebe secretary At the annual town meeting in 1912 a report of the progress made was given by the chairman and the town voted to instruct the committee to publish an illustrated history of the town Many meetings were held by the Historical Committee and many sub committees were appointed to arrange different details of the program for the celebration All of which were carried out in a manner creditable to those who had arranged them as will appear from reading the newspaper accounts of the celebration The actual day of the signing of the Act of Incorporation was on June 15th but as that day came on Sunday in 1913 it was decided to begin the three days celebration on Tuesday June 17th About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

William Marsh Rice and His Institute Randal L. Hall, Sylvia Stallings Morris, 2012-01-31 In 1891 William Marsh Rice made a generous bequest in order to found the distinguished Houston institution that bears his name Ironically this very bequest helped to bring about his murder an act of treachery perpetrated by a conniving attorney and Rice's naive malleable manservant This captivating tale full of intrigue legal twists and turns and sensational revelations an important part of the full biography of Rice himself received its first careful historical investigation by Andrew Forest Muir a longtime professor of history at Rice University who beginning in 1957 performed the fundamental research that forms the basis for this biography At the time of Muir's death in 1969 the work remained incomplete Subsequently at the request of the Rice Historical Society Sylvia Stallings Morris shaped the fruits of Muir's labor into the first edition of this book which was published in 1972 The new edition of William Marsh Rice and His Institute edited by Randal L Hall returns this fine biography to print in connection with the celebration of the centennial of the opening of Rice University Incorporating new and important sources unearthed since the publication of the original book this revised edition retains all the flavor and meticulous care of the earlier work especially the finely crafted storytelling of Sylvia Stallings Morris Lowe and Andrew Forest Muir as characterized by Hall Rice University students faculty staff and alumni scholars and students of Houston Texas and regional history and those interested in the history of American higher education will all welcome William Marsh Rice and His Institute The Centennial Edition History of Middlesex County, Massachusetts Duane Hamilton Hurd,1890 Books in Print Supplement,1994 Origin and Development of the High School in New England Before 1865 Emit Duncan Grizzell,1923
