Urbanization, Educational Expansion, and Expenditures Inequality in Indonesia in 1996, 1999 and 2002

Takahiro Akita and Sachiko Miyata,2007 Paper on Thailand's Income Distribution and Poverty Profile and Their Current Situations Suganya Hutaserani,Somchai Jitsuchon,1988 Poverty and Inequality among Chinese Minorities Ajit S.

Bhalla,Shufang Qiu,2024-11-01 The number of poor people in China is huge despite recent economic advances The minorities in China constitute less than ten per cent of the entire population yet they represent forty to fifty per cent of the absolute poor This compelling book investigates the problem of poverty and inequality in and among Chinese ethnic minorities focusing in particular on two important questions Have the minorities shared the fruits of spectacular economic growth in China during the past two decades Is their backwardness due to ethnic and cultural factors or to extremely low incomes The authors examine the different factors explaining poverty the relationship between poverty and ethnicity poverty indicators that permit a comparison between minorities and non minorities or the Han majority economic and demographic characteristics of minorities and their educational occupational and gender profiles They consider whether special measures in favour of minorities introduced by the Chinese government have contributed to an improvement in their standard of living Poverty and Inequality among Chinese Minorities gives original research findings and new thinking on a highly topical issue in Chinese development economics and fills a gap in the existing economic literature Regional Inequality and

Development Takahiro Akita,Mitsuhiko Kataoka,2022-07-14 This book addresses three main issues in regional income inequality and development meaning of regional inequality measurement of regional inequality and the relationship between national economic development and regional income inequality It provides analytical methods useful in exploring the determinants of regional inequality in income and productivity Some software commands in Stata statistical software package available for the measurement and analysis of income inequality are also introduced Some researchers have argued that spatial concentration of population in and around major cities and the concurrent increase in regional inequality do not hinder national economic development and may stimulate it Nevertheless many national governments seek to promote balanced regional economic development and reduce regional income inequality because unbalanced development and higher levels of regional inequality may cause political or ethnic conflicts between different regions of the country As the applications of the analytical methods introduced in the first part of the book the second part presents four independent empirical studies on regional inequality and development in Indonesia They offer very interesting case studies for the formulation of policies and programs to reduce regional inequalities because as the world s largest archipelagic country with more than 13 thousand islands and 300 ethnic groups Indonesia is spatially diverse in terms of its ecology natural resource endowments economy ethnicity and culture This book can be used as a textbook for undergraduate and graduate students who are interested in national economic development and regional income inequality It is also beneficial for practitioners and policy makers who are in charge of the formulation implementation and evaluation of development policies and programs

Locational Analysis of Firms' Activities from a Strategic Perspective Toshiharu Ishikawa, 2018-08-24 This book presents a variety of research papers on factories locations city systems and regional development Consisting of three parts it provides insights into the locational aspects of firms activities from a strategic perspective Part 1 discusses decision making in the context of location specifying the motivation for firms to move their factories provided by the corporate tax system It also presents a case study from East Asia to clarify a mechanism by which firms move factories Part 2 addresses city systems offering theoretical clues to understanding why city systems are important to regional economies It also clarifies from the empirical analysis the relations between city systems and the performances of regional economies Part 3 investigates the topic of industrial parks demonstrating how they form a basis for establishing industrial clusters in regional economies In addition it examines the economic phases such as economic disparity generated in the process of development

Population and Poverty in the Developing World Massimo Livi-Bacci, Gustavo De Santis, 1999-04-01 The increasing gap between developed and developing world will be one of the most important themes of the 21st century The contributions contained in this volume take a multidisciplinary approach to the problem offering a comprehensive review of the theoretical issues and empirical findings that relate to the complex and multidirectional link between poverty and demographic behaviours and outcomes in the contemporary developing world The starting point of the volume is an exact definition of poverty The contributors go on to analyse in the detail its causes and effects both at the micro and macro level concentrating on those factors and consequences which relate more directly to the demographic sphere Population growth household structure and labour fertility AIDS urbanization migration and mortality are amongst the areas covered with the major themes discussed and elaborated in an introductory overview chapter

Economic Policies in the Pacific Area
Developing Countries Bela Balassa, 1991-06-18 Aims to improve our understanding of the factors determining the economic performance of the Pacific area developing countries The book deals with both the newly industrializing countries and the newly exporting countries

Poverty Amongst Minority Melanesians in Fiji, 2004 An Anatomy of the Distribution of Urban Income Rakesh Mohan, 1984 The Poor in Asia Swapna Mukhopadhyay, 1985 Comparison of anti poverty productivity raising strategies and programmes in South Asia and South East Asia refers particularly to rural employment and income generating activities includes modernization of agriculture land reform basic needs programmes in Bangladesh India Pakistan Sri Lanka Korea R Malaysia the Philippines and Thailand contains project evaluation financial aspects etc Statistical tables references

Malaysian Journal of Economic Studies, 2001 Income Inequality and Poverty in

Malaysia Shireen Mardziah Hashim,1998 This thorough analysis of Malaysia s economic expansion evaluates the success of the government s New Economic Policy NEP which was designed to promote national unity by reducing poverty as well as by loosening the link between ethnicity and economic function The first comprehensive analysis of income distribution trends after the inauguration of the NEP the study also considers interethnic urban rural and regional variations over time Although there have been significant reductions in poverty and income inequality Hashim uses previously unpublished data to show that both are still rampant

Income Inequality in Singapore Pundarik Mukhopadhaya,2014-03-26 The World Bank 1993 conferred on Singapore the status of tiger economy because of its two miraculous characteristics high growth and reduced income inequality Expansion of educational provision is one of the major policies the Government of Singapore followed since 1975 particularly to enrich the human capital endowment of the country which has been crucial to the success of Singapore This book made a coherent study of these extremely important issues to examine the trend and pattern of income inequality in Singapore The book delves further into the trend and pattern of income inequality in Singapore and their implications for the future It attempts to analyse the links between social welfare and inequality in the light of rapid economic growth phase and adduced important policy implications The concepts and methodologies used in this book as well as the novelty of analyses and policy implications make this a coherent and in depth study of extremely important issues with most up to date observations In the last three decades no such book on Singapore has been written and this book fills the gap in existing literature It is a must read for anyone who is interested to learn more about the tiger economy of Singapore
