

INFANT BAPTISM & THE COVENANT OF GRACE

Paul K. Jewett

"Paul Jewett has accurately seen that covenant theology, to be consistent with its essential emphasis on personal commitment and faith, must not only practice believer communion (which it does) but also believer baptism (which it does not). Dr. Jewett is judicious in his careful survey of history, responsible in sifting biblical evidence, and perceptive in recognizing the contemporary need for theological guidance on this matter."

—John D. W. Watts
Fuller Theological Seminary

"A careful and provocative study of Reformed theology in relationship to one of the most perplexing legacies handed to us by the Reformers. . . . It is based on one of the most careful and comprehensive studies of biblical and theological evidence that I know."

—Robert S. Paul

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
