Innes Ireland Remembers... Innes Ireland, 2008-03-01      Goodwood Remembered Peter Redman, 2007 Goodwood Remembered is a unique collection of previously unpublished photographs sketches and recollections of Peter Redman an enthusiastic spectator As well as over 150 of his photographs from the late 1940s and 1950s Peter Redman has included more than 50 sketches of cars and drivers of the period and 13 of his cartoons that help bring motor racing at Goodwood between 1948 and 1960 to life The book is full of interesting snippets Bernie Ecclestone s second place in a 500 cc race and World Champion Juan Manuel Fangio nursing an off song Cooper Bristol into sixth place in a Formula Libre race are just two examples It is a fascinating insight into the range of racing cars and drivers at Goodwood in that period from World Champions such as Fangio Farina and Hawthorn to handicap races for lady drivers Goodwood Remembered will be of great interest to anyone who remembers those times and for the huge number who follow historic motor racing or want to know more of the roots of modern motor sport      Cutting Edge Conversations EJ 'Ted' Cutting, Stuart Bailey, 2024-06-04 EJ Ted Cutting was not only Aston Martin s most successful Chief Race Car Design Engineer but was also an innovator with influential force on the worldwide automotive industry Originating from a limited edition hardback version this eBook was produced in celebration of the 60th anniversary of Aston Martin winning the World Sports Car Championship for Britain with the all conquering DBR1 designed engineered and created by Ted himself Rather than a traditional biography of his life Ted wanted his book to be rather less scripted and informal it was therefore initially adapted from a number of recorded conversations between himself and Aston Martin Heritage Trust members Stuart Bailey and Brian Joscelyne the title being an obvious choice considering this In addition to the in depth telling of a legendary period in British motorsport by a man at the centre of it all the book also sees Ted clarify a number of details which have in the past been incorrectly reported Unusually it also contains all his published documents and access to a 90 minute video of his unique lecture on Racing Astons to further endorse his story Although the original hardback edition of this book was produced only in a limited run Ted s wish was to make the complete book available to a much wider audience now possible through the internet as an engineer always working at the cutting edge of technology he would appreciate the benefits of information sharing in the digital age As well as being of interest to fans of Aston Martin and of motorsports in general the book is a compelling read for any student of automotive design and engineering after all progress is about standing on the shoulders of giants and in the field of race car design few individuals ever reach the colossal heights achieved by Ted Cutting      Road and Track ,2004      Partner and I Susan Ware, 1989-09-10 A fascinating exploration of the private and public worlds of Molly Dewson America s original female political boss In the first biography ever written of Dewson Susan Ware not only examines her political career as a trusted member of the Roosevelt team throughout the New Deal but also considers how Dewson s fifty two year partnership with Polly Porter and her woman centered existence strengthened her success as a politician Susan Ware s excellent biography of Molly Dewson restores one of Franklin Roosevelt's chums and an irrepressible battler for women in politics to her proper place in the history of the New Deal Arthur Schlesinger Jr Rich readable and intriguing biography Estelle B Freedman Women's Review of Books Readers should welcome Ware's spotlight on Dewson which widens to disclose wonderfully human views of FDR and Eleanor and brings to life many virtually forgotten feminists of an era that threatens to fade into gray Publishers Weekly Provides a lively and refreshingly concrete sense of everyday activities in reform and political circles A wonderful account of the model of a modern political woman Elizabeth Fox Genovese Times Literary Supplement Susan Ware is assistant professor of history at New York University where she also coordinates the Women's History Program

Remembering England: Cultural Memory in the Sagas of Icelanders Matthew Firth, 2025-03-18 This book provides an in depth study of depictions of England in the Saga of Icelanders slendingas gur examining their utility as sources for the history of Viking Age Anglo Scandinavian cultural contact The slendingas gur resent themselves as histories but they are difficult historical sources Their setting is the Saga Age a period that begins with the settlement of Iceland in the late ninth century and ends along with the Viking Age in the late eleventh century however the saga texts are disconnected from this setting having first been written down in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries This book traces the transmission and development of Icelandic cultural memory of Saga

Age England across this distance of centuries It offers case study analyses of how historical time place cultures and events are adapted and conceptualised in the slendingas gur and suggests methodological approaches to their study as historical literature Remembering England is an interdisciplinary book that will appeal to scholars and students of the history of pre Norman England the Icelandic sagas medieval literature and cultural memory Beyond the Limit Sid Watkins,2012-11-15 In the years since Sid Watkins first bestselling book of Formula One memoirs Life at the Limit was published the sport has seen enormous changes The FIA s President Max Mosley has launched a zero option policy with the goal of zero mortality and much research and development has gone into technical changes to the cars circuit design safety barrier development and personal protection in the cockpit The Prof has been intimately involved with this work and discusses it in detail here but as he knows only too well uncertainty and unpredictability provide the thrills both the fans and the drivers crave In Beyond the Limit Watkins also looks at some of the extraordinary Grands Prix the sport has seen in the last four years including Schumacher s epic crash at Silverstone in 1999 He also looks back over his twenty or more years in the sport and discusses some of the great drivers he has known Here too is a race by race account of the Millenium season offering a completely up to date picture of Formula One at the beginning of the 21st century Makes fascinating reading Planet F1 Lively and entertaining will make the reader laugh out loud F1 Magazine Sid Watkin s anecdotes are littered with humour and show us that one of the most respected men in F1 is also one of the funniest Motorsport News Remembering Dionysus Susan Rowland,2016-07-28 Dionysus god of dismemberment and sponsor of the lost or abandoned feminine originates both Jungian psychology and literature in Remembering Dionysus Characterized by spontaneity fluid boundaries sexuality embodiment wild nature ecstasy and chaos Dionysus is invoked in the writing of C G Jung and James Hillman as the dual necessity to adopt and dismiss literature for their archetypal vision of the psyche or soul Susan Rowland describes an emerging paradigm for the twenty first century enacting the myth of a god torn apart to be re membered and remembered as reborn in a great renewal of life Rowland demonstrates how persons forms of knowing and even eras that dismiss Dionysus are torn apart and explores how Jung was Dionysian in providing his most dismembered text The Red Book Remembering Dionysus pursues the rough god into the Sublime in the destruction of meaning in Jung and Jacques Lacan to a re membering of sublime feminine creativity that offers zoe or rebirth participating in an archetype of instinctual life This god demands to be honoured inside our knowing and being just as he re joins us to wild nature This revealing book will be invigorating reading for Jungian analysts psychotherapists arts therapists and counsellors as well as academics and students of analytical psychology depth psychology Jungian and post Jungian studies literary studies and ecological humanities Tales from the Toolbox - A collection of behind-the-scenes tales from Grand Prix mechanics Michael Oliver,2009 Tales from the Toolbox is a unique collection of behind the scenes stories and anecdotes as told in their own words by former Grand Prix mechanics who have worked at the top level of the sport during the past 50 years On the front line of the sport mixing with drivers and team bosses they saw a side of it that nobody else got to see and rarely gets to hear about and this book tells their story Chapters are themed around a particular aspect of a mechanic's life ranging from what they consider the highs and lows of their career to their opinions of drivers and team bosses the all nighters letting off steam the Mechanic's Gallon nightmare journeys and customs capers It also reveals a tale of camaraderie between teams and individual mechanics which is hard to imagine in today's highly competitive Formula One environment The stories are supplemented by photographs from the archives and photo albums of the mechanics themselves many of which are previously unseen

Accountability of Policing Stuart Lister, Michael Rowe, 2015-07-30 Accountability of Policing provides a contemporary and wide ranging examination of the accountability and governance of police and policing Debates about who guards the guards are among the oldest and most protracted in the history of democracy but over the last decade we have witnessed important changes in how policing and security agencies are governed regulated and held to account Against a backdrop of increasing complexity in the local national and transnational landscapes of policing political legal administrative and technological developments have served to alter regimes of accountability The extent and pace of these changes raises a pressing need for ongoing academic research analysis and debate Bringing together contributions from a range of leading scholars this book offers an authoritative and comprehensive analysis of the shifting themes of accountability within policing The contributions explore questions of accountability across a range of dimensions including those individuals and institutions responsible for its delivery within and between the public and private sectors and at local national and transnational scales of jurisdiction They also engage with the concept of accountability in a broad sense bringing to the surface the various meanings that have become associated with it and demonstrating how it is invoked and interpreted in different contexts Accountability of Policing is essential reading for academics and students involved in the study of policing criminal justice and criminology and will also be of great interest to practitioners and policymakers

Autocar & Motor, 1994 Winning Is Not Enough Sir Jackie Stewart, 2014-04-24 Sir Jackie Stewart is one of the most highly regarded names in global sport winner of three F1 World Championships 27 Grands Prix and ranked in the top five drivers of all time On retiring from the circuit he went on to build an equally impressive international business career In the 1960s and into the 70s with his black cap sideburns and aviator shades Jackie Stewart was an unmistakable icon in a glorious era of style glamour and speed On the track his story is one of drama excitement tragedy controversy celebrity danger and massive success Beyond the sport his life is a compelling tale of battling against the odds and achieving world wide recognition as an outstanding sportsman a role model and a highly accomplished and respected businessman

The Autocar, 1987 Remembering the Myall Creek Massacre Lyndall Ryan Jane Lydon, 2018-06-01 The 1838 Myall Creek Massacre is remembered for the brutality of the crime committed by white settlers against innocent Aboriginal men women and children but also because eleven of the twelve assassins were arrested and brought to trial Amid tremendous controversy seven were hanged Myall Creek was not the last time the colonial administration sought to apply the law equally to Aboriginal people and settlers but it was the last time perpetrators of a massacre were convicted and hanged Marking its 180th anniversary this book explores the significance of one of the most horrifying events of Australian colonialism Thoughtful and fearless it challenges us to look at our history without flinching as an act of remembrance and reconciliation Motor Racing Steve Wyatt, Jack Sears, 2012 Recounting a time of unparalleled access to the highest level of motor racing this is an informal personal record of the people the cars and the events from that golden era gloriously illustrated with many previously unpublished photographs Coverage includes GP and non championship F1 racing plus Formula 2 and 3 Sports GT and Saloon car racing Now a generation later many of the cars and drivers shown here in their heyday can be found appearing at historic race meetings drawing crowds approaching the size of those seen at modern Formula One touring car and motorcycle events The author's personal recollections are complemented by contributions from one of the foremost racing mechanics of his day Bob Dance A unique combination and a unique book
