Historical Dictionary of Film Noir Andrew Spicer, 2010-03-19 Film noir literally black cinema is the label customarily given to a group of black and white American films mostly crime thrillers made between 1940 and 1959 Today there is considerable dispute about what are the shared features that classify a noir film and therefore which films should be included in this category These problems are partly caused because film noir is a retrospective label that was not used in the 1940s or 1950s by the film industry as a production category and therefore its existence and features cannot be established through reference to trade documents The Historical Dictionary of Film Noir is a comprehensive guide that ranges from 1940 to present day neo noir It consists of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography a filmography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on every aspect of film noir and neo noir including key films personnel actors cinematographers composers directors producers set designers and writers themes issues influences visual style cycles of films e g amnesiac noirs the representation of the city and gender other forms comics graphic novels television and videogames and noir s presence in world cinema It is an essential reference work for all those interested in this important cultural phenomenon Historical Dictionary of Holocaust Cinema Robert C.

Reimer,2024-12-19 Some 80 years after the end of World War two and Nazi Germany s attempt to annihilate European Jews and the Jewish culture the story of the Holocaust continues to be told in novels paintings music sculpture and film Over the past eight decades close to a thousand documentaries narrative shorts and features television miniseries and filmed statements from survivors have confronted the horrors of the past creating a recognizable iconography of persecution suffering and genocide While arguably movies and television have a tendency to overly simply if not trivialize historical events popular culture artists also keep the past from being forgotten Historical Dictionary of Holocaust Cinema Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 175 cross referenced entries on films directors and historical figures Foreign language experimental and canonical films are included This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about holocaust cinema

Lovable Crooks and Loathsome Jews T.S. Kord,2018-11-05 In the years leading up to the World Wars Germany and Austria saw an unprecedented increase in the study and depiction of the criminal Science journalism and crime fiction were obsessed with delinquents while ignoring the social causes of crime As criminologists measured criminals heads and debated biological predestination court reporters and crime writers wrote side splitting or heart rending stories featuring one of the most popular characters ever created the hilarious or piteous crook The author examines the figure of the crook and notions of Jewish criminality in a range of antisemitic writing from Nazi propaganda to court reporting to forgotten classics of crime fiction Expressionist Film--new Perspectives Dietrich Scheunemann,2003 Beginning with a fundamentally new interpretation of Dr Caligari and with fresh views of other expressionist classics this book offers new perspectives on important alternative styles and genres that emerged in films by such eminent directors as Lubitsch Fritz Lang and E A Dupont Haunted Families and Temporal Normativity in Hispanic Horror Films Charles St-Georges,2018-04-20 This book examines the interactions between ghosts and families in three recent horror films from the Spanish speaking world that rather than explicitly referencing recent political violence speak to the societal conditions and everyday normative violence that serve as preconditions for political violence This study deconstructs intersectional processes of racially and sexually normative subject formation and its oppositional other ghostly erasure that are framed by a common temporal logic wherein full citizenship is contingent upon a nation s dominant notions of contemporaneousness and whether individuals properly inhabit prescriptive timelines of re productivity St Georges s study explores ways in which ghosts and families are manipulated in each national imaginary as a strategy for negotiating volatility within symbolic order a tactic that can either naturalize or challenge normative discourses As a literary and cinematic trope ghosts are particularly useful vehicles for the exploration of national imaginaries and the dominant or competing cultural attitudes towards a country's history and thus the articulation of a present political reality The rhetorical figure of the family is also key in this process as a mechanism for expressing national allegories for expressing generational anxieties about a nation's relationship to time and for organizing societies and social subjects as such interpellating them into or excluding them from national imaginaries By proposing these specific coordinates ghosts and families and by mapping their relationship between Spain and Latin America Troubling Timelines proposes a study of a temporal framework that besides bridging the traditional area studies divide across the Atlantic creates a space for interdisciplinary inquiry while also responding to increasing demand for studies that focus on intersectionality
