Ecopiety Sarah McFarland Taylor, 2019-11-12

Tackles a human problem we all share the fate of the earth and our role in its future Confident that your personal good deeds of environmental virtue will save the earth The stories we encounter about the environment in popular culture too often promote an imagined moral economy assuring us that tiny acts of voluntary personal piety such as recycling a coffee cup or purchasing green consumer items can offset our destructive habits No need to make any fundamental structural changes The trick is simply for the consumer to buy the right things and shop our way to a greener future It s time for a reality check Ecopiety offers an absorbing examination of the intersections of environmental sensibilities contemporary expressions of piety and devotion and American popular culture Ranging from portrayals of environmental sin and virtue such as the eco pious depiction of Christian Grey in Fifty Shades of Grey to the green capitalism found in the world of mobile device carbon sin tracking software applications to the socially conscious vegetarian vampires in True Blood the volume illuminates the work pop culture performs as both a mirror and an engine for the greening of American spiritual and ethical commitments Taylor makes the case that it is not through a framework of grim duty or obligation but through one of play and delight that we may move environmental ideals into substantive action

Thomas Berry, Dreamer of the Earth Ervin Laszlo, Allan Combs, 2011-01-27

A tribute to the visionary contributions and prophetic writings of Thomas Berry spiritual ecologist and father of environmentalism Contains 10 essays by eminent philosophers thinkers and scientists in the field of ecology and sustainability including Matthew Fox Joanna Macy Duane Elgin Sean Esbj rn Hargens Ervin Laszlo and Allan Combs Calls for a transformation of consciousness to resolve today s global ecological and human challenges Includes a little known but essential essay by Thomas Berry When cultural historian and spiritual ecologist Thomas Berry described by Newsweek magazine as the most provocative figure among the new breed of eco theologians passed away in 2009 at age 94 he left behind a dream of healing the Earth community In his numerous lectures books and essays Berry proclaimed himself a scholar of the earth a geologist and diligently advocated for a return to Earth based spirituality This anthology presents 10

essays from leading philosophers scientists and spiritual visionaries including Matthew Fox Joanna Macy Duane Elgin Sean Esbjorn Hargens Ervin Laszlo and Allan Combs on the genius of Berry's work and his quest to resolve our global ecological and spiritual challenges as well as a little known but essential essay by Berry himself Revealing Berry's insights as far ahead of their time these essays reiterate the radical nature of his ideas and the urgency of his most important conclusion that money and technology cannot solve our problems rather we must reestablish the indigenous connection with universal consciousness and return to our fundamental spontaneous nature still evident in our dreams in order to navigate our ecological challenges successfully
