Reclaiming Home, Remembering Motherhood, Rewriting History Marie Drews, Verena Theile, 2009-05-05 Reclaiming Home Remembering Motherhood Rewriting History African American and Afro Caribbean Women's Literature in the Twentieth Century offers a critical valuation of literature composed by black female writers and examines their projects of reclamation memory and revision As a collection it engages black women writers efforts to create more inclusive conceptualizations of community gender and history conceptualizations that take into account alternate lived and written experiences as well as imagined futures Contributors to this collection probe the realms of gender studies postcolonialism and post structural theory and suggest important ways in which to explore connections between home motherhood and history across the multifarious narratives of African American and Afro Caribbean experiences Together they argue that it is through their female characters that black women writers demonstrate the tumultuous processes of deciphering home and homeland of articulating the complexities of mothering relationships and of locating their own personal history within local and national narratives Essays gathered in this collection consider the works of African American women writers Pauline Hopkins Toni Morrison Jessie Redmon Fauset Audre Lorde Laila Tademy Lorene Cary Octavia Butler Zora Neale Hurston and Sherley Anne Williams alongside the works of black women writers from the Caribbean Jamaica Kincaid and Gisèle Pineau Guyana Grace Nichols and Cuba Mar a de los Reyes Castillo Bueno

Reclaiming Migrant Motherhood Maria D. Lombard, 2022-02-18 The global landscape is dotted with border crossings that can be particularly perilous for displaced women with children in tow These mothers are often described by their various legal statuses like refugee migrant immigrant forced or voluntary but their lived experiences are more complex than a single label Reclaiming Migrant Motherhood looks at literature film and original ethnographic research about the lived experiences of displaced mothers This volume considers the context of the global refugee crisis forced migration and resettlement as backdrops for the representations and identity development of displaced women who mother Situated within motherhood studies this book is at the interdisciplinary intersection of literature life writing gender immigration refugee and cultural studies Contributors examine literary fiction memoirs and children's literature by Ocean Vuong Nadifa Mohamed Laila Halaby Susan Muaddi Darraj Terry Farish Thannha Lai Bich Minh Nguyen Julie Otsuka V V Ganeshananthan Shankari Chandran and Mary Anne Mohanraj The book also explores ethnographic research creative writing and film related to refugee studies The border crossings discussed in the volume are often physical with stories from Afghanistan Syria Vietnam Japan Iraq Canada Greece Somalia Palestine Sri Lanka and America The borders that displaced mothers face are examined through frameworks of postcolonialism nationalism feminism and diaspora studies Black Women as Custodians of History: Unsung Rebel (M)Others in African American and Afro-Cuban Women's Writing Paula Sanmartin,2014-03-28 This book is an essential addition to the study of comparative black literature of the Americas it will also fill the gap that exists on theoretical studies exploring black women s writing from the Spanish Caribbean This book examines literary representations of the historic roots of black women s resistance in the United States and Cuba by studying the following texts by both African American and Afro Cuban women from four different literary genres autobiographical slave narrative contemporary novel on slavery testimonial narrative and poetry Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl 1861 by the African American former slave Harriet Jacobs Dessa Rose 1986 by the African American writer Sherley Ann Williams Reyita sencillamente testimonio de una negra cubana nonagenarian Simply Reyita Testimonial Narrative of a Nonagenarian Black Cuban Woman 1996 written transcribed by the Afro Cuban historian Daisy Rubiera Castillo from her interviews with her mother Mar a de los Reyes Castillo Bueno Reyita and a selection of poems from the contemporary Afro Cuban poets Nancy Morej n and Georgina Herrera The study argues that the writers participate in black women s self inscription in the historical process by positioning themselves as subjects of their history and seizing discursive control of their hi stories Although the texts form part of separate discourses the book explores the commonalities of the rhetorical devices and narrative strategies employed by the authors as they disassemble racist and sexist stereotypes re constructing black female subjectivity through an image of active resistance against oppression one that authorizes unconventional definitions of womanhood and motherhood The book shows that in the womens revisions of national history their writings also demonstrate the pervasive role of racial and gender categories in the creation of a discourse of national identity while promoting a historiography constructed within flexible borders that need to be negotiated constantly The study s engagement in crosscultural exploration constitutes a step further in opening connections with a comparative literary study that is theoretically engaging in order to include Afro Cuban women writers and Afro Caribbean scholars into scholarly discussions in which African American women have already managed to participate with a series of critical texts The book explores connections between methods and perspectives derived from Western theories and from Caribbean and Black studies while recognizing the black women authors studied as critics and scholars In this sense the book includes some of the writers own commentaries about their work taken from interviews many of them conducted by the author Paula Sanmart n herself as well as critical essays and letters Black Women as Custodians of History adds a new dimension to the body of existing criticism by challenging the ways assumptions have shaped how literature is read by black women writers Paula Sanmart n s study is a vivid demonstration of the strengths of embarking on multidisciplinary study This book will be useful to several disciplines and areas of study such as African diaspora studies African American studies Afro Latin American and Afro Caribbean studies women s studies genre studies and slavery studies Rebels Leerom Medovoi,2005-11-23 A cultural history of the political Riotous Flesh April R. Haynes,2015-10-21 Nineteenth century America saw numerous campaigns against masturbation which was said to cause illness insanity and even death Riotous Flesh explores women s leadership of those movements with a specific focus on their rhetorical social and political effects showing how a desire to transform the politics of sex created unexpected alliances between groups that otherwise had very different goals As April R Haynes shows the crusade against female masturbation was rooted in a generally shared agreement on some major points that girls and women were as susceptible to masturbation as boys and men that self abuse was rooted in a lack of sexual information and that sex education could empower women and girls to master their own bodies Yet the groups who made this education their goal ranged widely from ultra utopians and nascent feminists to black abolitionists Riotous Flesh explains how and why diverse women came together to popularize then institutionalize the condemnation of masturbation well before the advent of sexology or the professionalization of medicine

Women Empowerment: Challenges and Strategies DR.GRISHMA KHOBRAGADE,2019-11-30 The proposed edited book on Women Empowerment Challenges and Strategies deals with the problems associated with the women community suffering from marginalization and the ways to address their identity and human rights concerns The status of women in every nation was deprived and never considered They were considered as mere machines to fulfill mere different duties During ancient ages we can see the evolution of changing and taking new perspectives The concept of female in Manusmriti and in Puranas of considering them as dependents and deities is contradictory There are still places where women are still considered as deprived and are still under chains it is the duty of the privileged to empower the underprivileged Women empowerment programs failed as they overlooked the structural factors that perpetuated oppression and exploitation The fulfillment of practical needs such as food health care and education cannot empower women unless the long term strategic needs are met The process of empowerment requires a transformation of structures of sub ordinance control over material and intellectual resources gaining decisions making authority and reduction of gender inequality The present book is the collection of Twenty two research papers enlightens and thought provoking articles contributed by research scholars throwing light on the women empowerment and role of religion and policies women and nutrition gender sensitization role of education status of working women in unorganized sector role of media and NGO in promoting women empowerment empowerment of Indian women a challenge of 21st century life skills and older women with reference to old age homes depiction of women in literature and Marginalization of Women Characters in literature social organization and woman empowerment and entrepreneurship The book will be an important reference source for scholars in the fields of rights of the marginalized sections rights of the women the role of education practice and gender studies The purpose of this edited book is to provide a common platform for academicians and policymakers for a comprehensive deliberation on issues relating to social sector development in our society The research papers and various articles covering so many themes of social awareness for education and social sector development are compiled in one place so that anyone can get easy access to their research This book is edited basically for the students teachers researchers and academics The students pursuing their masters Ph D degree and doing dissertations thesis on women empowerment may also be highly benefited by this book
