Love And Fury A Memoir:

Love and Fury Margie Orford, 2024      Love and Fury Richard Hoffman, 2014-06-03 An acclaimed author reflects on his upbringing in a post World War II blue collar family and comes to terms with the racism sexism and other toxic values he inherited Finalist for the 2014 New England Book Award in Non Fiction Richard Hoffman sometimes felt as though he had two fathers the real one who raised him and an imaginary version one he talked to on the phone and one he talked to in his head Although Hoffman was always close to the man his father remained a mystery shrouded in a perplexing mix of tenderness and rage When his father receives a terminal cancer diagnosis Hoffman confronts the depths and limitations of their lifelong struggle to know each other weighing their differences and coming to understand that their yearning and puzzlement was mutual With familial relationships at its center Love Fury draws connections between past and present from the author s grandfather a breaker boy sent down into the anthracite mines of Pennsylvania at the age of ten to his young grandson whose father is among the estimated one million young black men incarcerated today In a critique of culture and of self Hoffman grapples with the way we have absorbed and incorporated the compelling imagery of post WWII America and its values especially regarding class war women race masculinity violence divinity and wealth A masterful memoirist Hoffman writes not only to tell a gripping story but also to understand through his family the social and ethical contours of American life At the book s core are the author s questions about boyhood fatherhood and grandfatherhood and about the changing meaning of what it means to be a good man in America now and into the future      Being There Tony Leon, 2025-05-09 In Being There Tony Leon goes behind the scenes reflecting on how history is made both here and around the world through his unique mixture of anecdote and informed opinion His vantage point ranges from a ringside seat in the recent formation of the government of national unity GNU recounted in detail here for the first time to close encounters with the likes of Harry Oppenheimer Ariel Sharon Yasser Arafat and Boris Johnson and reappraisals of FW de Klerk Nelson Mandela and Mangosuthu Buthelezi Leon writes of the dangers of modern politics from the purgatory of social media to the perils of political fundraising in tough times The challenge of leadership in a world often led by populist grifters or uninspiring time servers runs like a golden thread through the book Written with his customary blend of humour and flair and with an eye to the future and what the present and the past can tell us about it Being There is both important and highly readable      After the Fires Nozipho Tshabalala, 2025-08-15 When the flames of life s challenges have swept through you who do you become from the ashes Nozipho Tshabalala is a high performing excellence driven successful black woman Being in control of everything in her life was crucial to her survival and success For the most part it had always served her well until it didn t In this captivating and deeply personal memoir conversation strategist Nozipho invites you into her world one shaped by political violence professional triumphs on global stages and the intimate battles with loss that would test her most fundamental beliefs Now in her 40s she has realised that what she needed most to survive may not be what she needs to thrive After the Fires is a call to reclaim the narrative amid life's unexpected turns It honours the complexity of womanhood while celebrating the possibility of becoming exactly who you were meant to be even when that person looks nothing like what you imagined With vulnerability and wisdom Nozipho demonstrates how surrender becomes not an act of defeat but a pathway to freedom Her story reminds us that sometimes our greatest strength lies not in holding tighter but in opening our hands to release what no longer serves us

Journey Kwantu Vusumzi Ngxande, 2025-05-28 KWANTU MEANS HOME For decades African spirituality has been demonised or met with suspicion Many people find themselves at a crossroads that has them questioning their religious upbringing while trying to understand their place within African spiritual practice There are those who have to choose between being a believer usually in the Christian faith or believing in their ancestors As the cultural trajectory of the world shifts more people desire a deeper understanding of ancestral practices their history and their relevance to modern life Journey Kwantu is inspired by Vusumzi Ngxande's popular podcast of the same name that delves into South African spiritual identity showing how it has evolved over hundreds of years The book is rooted in extensive historical research lived experiences and interviews with healers teachers and ordinary people trying to live their truth With a unique ability to simplify complex issues the author endeavours to answer taboo questions like Who are we and How did we come to believe what we believe In the process he deals with challenges he has struggled with on his own spiritual journey from death the afterlife and the authority of ancestors versus the power of God to more practical matters like performing rituals in urban areas and understanding lineage and its impact on one's spiritual life Deeply perceptive and engaging Journey Kwantu offers guidance and sustenance to African believers

Crash and Burn Glenn Orsmond, 2024-06-12 In the cut throat world of low cost airlines competition is the name of the game Not only up in the air but also on the ground Crash and Burn is an insider's tale of the South African airline industry over the past thirty years and the dramatic collapse of Comair in 2022 as told by Glenn Orsmond twice CEO of Comair and the founder CEO of 1time Orsmond takes the reader on a wild ride through the ultra competitive sector of low cost airlines that boomed after South African Airways stranglehold on the skies was loosened in the 1990s Comair which operated both Kulula and British Airways and 1time were at the forefront of this new wave of airlines that saw domestic flying and tourism take off But after some incredible highs and lows Comair crashed under Orsmond's watch despite the company's 75 year unblemished profit history The pandemic's impact the grounding of aeroplanes after a questionable regulator investigation and poor management decisions all contributed to its downfall Expect tales of industry legends and innovation but also of competitors trying to gut each other battles between pilots and accountants unions and bosses at loggerheads and warfare between shareholders and directors in boardrooms You'll never think of flying in South Africa in the same way again

Hollywood on the Veld Ted Botha, 2025-04-16 In 1913 a secretive American millionaire who lived on the top floor of the famous Carlton Hotel had a crazy idea to make movies in Johannesburg And not just any movies but the biggest in the world huge spectacles with elaborate sets thousands of extras and epic story lines Isidore Schlesinger better known as IW built a studio on a farm called Killarney where he set out to challenge a place in America that was in its infancy Hollywood The glamour gossip and high drama of IW s studio fitted perfectly into a city experiencing an intoxicating golden age There was as much action on the movie sets as there was on screen from political intrigue and the clashing of massive egos to public outbursts fiery judicial inquiries disaster and death Behind this mad enterprise was a maverick a tycoon a recluse a friend of the famed and the connected Schlesinger could have held his own in California but he chose as his base the City of Gold and his indomitable ambition saw his Hollywood on the Veld soar This is the untold story of the rise and fall of the strangest and most unique movie empire ever Writing

Hard Stories Melanie Brooks, 2017-02-07 Some of the country s most admired authors including Andre Dubus III Mark Doty Marianne Leone Michael Patrick MacDonald Richard Blanco Abigail Thomas Kate Bornstein Jerald Walker and Kyoko Mori describe their treks through dark memories and breakthrough moments and attest to the healing power of putting words to experience What does it take to write an honest memoir And what happens to us when we embark on that journey Melanie Brooks sought guidance from the memoirists who most moved her to answer these questions Called an essential book for creative writers by Poets about violence and shunning and about the process of writing It will serve as a tool for teachers of writing and give readers an intimate look into the lives of the authors they love Authors profiled in Writing Hard Stories Andre Dubus III Sue William Silverman Michael Patrick MacDonald Joan Wickersham Kyoko Mori Richard Hoffman Suzanne Strempek Shea Abigail Thomas Monica Wood Mark Doty Edwidge Danticat Marianne Leone Jerald Walker Kate Bornstein Jessica Handler Richard Blanco Alysia Abbott and Kim Stafford Insights from Writing Hard Stories Why we endeavor collectively to write a book or paint a canvas or write a symphony is to understand who we are as human beings and it s that shared knowledge that somehow helps us to survive Richard Blanco Here s what you need to understand your brothers or family or friends are going to have their own stories to tell You don t have to tell the family story You have to tell your story of being in that family Andre Dubus III We all need a way to express or make something out of experiences that otherwise have no meaning If what you want is clarity and meaning you have to break the secrets over your knee and make something of those ingredients Abigail Thomas What we remember and how we remember it really tells us how we became who we became Michael Patrick MacDonald The reason I write memoir is to be able to see the experience itself I hardly know what I think until I write Writing is a way to organize your life give it a frame give it a structure so that you can really see what it was that happened Sue William Silverman After a while in the process you have some distance and you start thinking of it as a story not as your story It was a personal grief but no longer personal It s something that has not just happened to me and my family but something that s happened in the world Edwidge Danticat Tibetan Buddhists believe that eloquence is the telling of a truth in such a way that it eases suffering The more suffering that is eased by your telling of the truth the more eloquent you are That s all you can really hope for being eloquent in that fashion All you have to do is respond to your story

honestly and that's the ideal Kate Bornstein You can never entirely redeem the experience You can't make it not hurt anymore But you can make it beautiful enough so that there's something to balance it in the other scale And if you understand that word beautiful as not necessarily pretty then you're getting close to recognizing the integrative power of restoring the balance which is restoring the truth Richard Hoffman      Judith Wright and Emily Carr Anne Collett, Dorothy Jones, 2021-01-28 Knitting together two fascinating but entirely distinct lives this ingeniously structured braided biography tells the story of the lives and work of two women each a cultural icon in her own country yet lesser known in the other's Australian poet Judith Wright and Canadian painter Emily Carr broke new ground for female artists in the British colonies and influenced the political and social debates about environment and indigenous rights that have shaped Australia and Canada in the 21st century In telling their stories this book charts the battle for recognition of their modernist art and vision pointing out significant moments of similarity in their lives and work Although separated by thousands of miles their experience of colonial modernity was startlingly analogous as white settler women bent on forging artistic careers in a male dominated world and sphere rigged against them Through all this though their cultural importance endures two remarkable women whose poetry and painting still speak to us today of their passionate belief in the transformative power of art      A Philosophical Dictionary ... To which is prefixed a ... memoir, and ... portrait of the author Voltaire, 1843      The Works with Notes Critical and Explanatory, and a Biographical Memoir, by W. Gifford Benjamin Jonson, 1816

Psychoanalytic Memoirs Jeffrey Berman, 2022-11-17 The first book length study of the psychoanalytic memoir this book examines key examples of the genre including Sigmund Freud's mistitled An Autobiographical Study Helene Deutsch's Confrontations with Myself An Epilogue Wilfred Bion's War Memoirs 1917 1919 Masud Khan's The Long Wait Sophie Freud's Living in the Shadow of the Freud Family and Irvin D Yalom and Marilyn Yalom's A Matter of Death and Life Offering in each chapter a brief character sketch of the memoirist the book shows how personal writing fits into their other work often demonstrating the continuities and discontinuities in an author's life as well as discussing each author's contributions to psychoanalysis whether positive or negative      The Memoir and the Memoirist Thomas Larson, 2007-05-15 The memoir is the most popular and expressive literary form of our time Writers embrace the memoir and readers devour it propelling many memoirs by relative unknowns to the top of the best seller list Writing programs challenge authors to disclose themselves in personal narrative Memoir and personal narrative urge writers to face the intimacies of the self and ask what is true In The Memoir and the Memoirist critic and memoirist Thomas Larson explores the craft and purpose of writing this new form Larson guides the reader from the autobiography and the personal essay to the memoir a genre focused on a particularly emotional relationship in the author's past an intimate story concerned more with who is remembering and why than with what is remembered The Memoir and the Memoirist touches on the nuances of memory of finding and telling the truth and of disclosing one's deepest self It explores the craft and purpose of personal narrative by looking in detail at more than a dozen examples by writers such as Mary Karr Frank McCourt Dave Eggers Elizabeth Wurtzel Mark Doty Nuala O Faolain Rick Bragg and Joseph Lelyveld to show what they reveal about themselves Larson also opens up his own writing and that of his students to demonstrate the hidden mechanics of the writing process For both the interested reader of memoir and the writer wrestling with the craft The Memoir and the Memoirist provides guidance and insight into the many facets of this provocative and popular art form

The Real Real Thing Wendy Steiner, 2010-11 A masterly performance by a penetrating inquisitive mind Vie Real Real Thing is that rarest of books one whose provocations will inspire readers to take a new and nuanced look at the world around them Book Jacket
